George Garwood, of California, Pa., Committed Shooting Crime Here.

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE

Hilda Vogel His Victim With Whom He Lived, Was a Mt. Oliver Girl.

MAN HAD WIFE AND CHILDREN

George Garwood, a prominent citizen of California, Pa., and a member of one of the best known families of Fayette county, shot and killed Hilda Vogel, a Mt. Oliver girl, with whom he had been living as man and wife, at No. 131 Moultrie street, and then shot and killed himself, sometime yesterday morning. Jealousy over a life long friend of the girl is supposed to have prompted the deed. Garwood was 65 years old, and his wife and nine children are all living. The girl was a little over 20 years old.

Clyde H. Garwood, a son of the man, is principal of the Homewood public schools, this city. A daughter, Miss Edith Garwood, is a notary public at No. 400 Grant street and a stenographer for George W. Acklin, an attorney, whose offices are at the same address.

Hilda Vogel was a daughter of Ferdinand Vogel, a florist, of Ormsby avenue, Mt. Oliver.

Garwood was born in Luzerne township, Fayette county. He came of a family that has lived for generations in that part of the state. The Garwood farm is well known there today. Garwood's father and grandfather were farmers, and he followed the same occupation until about four years ago. Then he sold his property, moved to California, Pa., and engaged in the optioning of coal lands. He was quite successful in this as he had been in the farming pursuit.

His Downfall in Pittsburgh.

After selling his farm Garwood, with his wife, Rachel M. Garwood, and two daughters, who still remain at home, moved to California. The family became well-known and popular. Garwood was well thought of by his neighbors, and he and his family entered into the best society of the place. About three years ago, however, a change in Garwood was noted by his intimate friends.

It became noised about at that time that Garwood was going about with women in Pittsburgh. This was not generally believed, as the man was very domesticated when at home. Business called him to Pittsburgh considerably, but he was seldom gone over night at first. But commencing about two years, his visits away from home became more frequent and the length of time he remained away gradually lengthened. It is said that Garwood met Hilda Vogel about the time his visits to Pittsburgh became more frequent and of longer duration.

Hilda was a waitress in Miller's restaurant in Smithfield street. Garwood was in the habit of taking his meals there while in Pittsburgh. The proprietor stated last night that he grew to know Garwood by sight, and then by name, owing to the fact that he was very attentive to the girl waitresses and because the girls would tell him about Garwood trying to make engagements with them.

Became Infatuated With Hilda.

Garwood formed the habit of going to the table upon which Hilda waited. Finally he grew to know her and they went out to theaters together. Garwood always had plenty of money and an inclination to spend it. Then one day Hilda gave up her position in the restaurant.

This was about 18 months ago, after Hilda had worked in the restaurant for about four months. Mrs. Bertha Payton, of No. 610 Congress street, stated last night, at the morgue, that the girl boarded with her for several months last winter. Where she lived, in the meantime is not known. She did not live at her parents' home and she never told them where she lived. They were led to believe she was still employed at the restaurant, and so they believed until told the truth yesterday.

According to the story given out at the Moultrie street house, Garwood had been living there since July 3. The house is

FRANKLIN IN SPLENDOR TO GREET PENNYPACKER

Maj. Gen. Miller Gives Brilliant Reception in Honor of the Governor and His Staff—Handsome Gowns and Glittering Uniforms.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Franklin, Pa., Sept. 29.—The preparations which have been going on for the past two weeks for the reception of Maj. Gen. Charles Miller to Gov. Pennypacker and staff culminated tonight at the Nursery clubhouse in a scene of brilliancy which has never been surpassed in this city. Under the hundreds of electric lights the decorations at the club house shown with dazzling splendor, and, added to this, the handsome gowns of the ladies and the glittering uniforms of the guardsmen, made the ballroom seem like a palace.

The governor's special train arrived at 1 o'clock p. m. The party was met by a reception committee composed of Gen. Miller and his staff, and headed by the Franklin band and escorted by company F, Sixteenth regiment, N. G. P., the party was driven to the Alsace, where luncheon was served. Gov. Pennypacker witnessed on every hand the successful result of the elaborate preparations in his honor. Turning to amember of the committee who had made his way to the governor's side the latter said:

"I am indeed affected by your citizens' graciousness."

Ovation to the Governor.

After the party had rested, they were escorted to the Nursery clubhouse at 4 o'clock, where a reception was held for civilians. To this function, which partook of the nature of an afternoon tea, many of the residents of this place were invited, and Mays post, No. 220, G. A. R., called on the governor in a body.

Early in the morning business places and residences were decorated with flags and bunting in honor of the distinguished military and civil guests expected during the day. An hour before the time for the arrival of the governor crowds of people gathered at the station to bid the guests welcome. The arrival of the train was the signal for a mighty cheer and the governor was kept busy bowing his acknowledgments of the greetings of the people during the trip from the station to the hotel.

The reception at the Nursery clubhouse this evening began at 8 o'clock and until 9:30 the governor was busy shaking hands with the hundreds of guests who streamed through the doors. It was the most significant event of the governor's trip here, from the popular point of view. The guests entered the parlors of the clubhouse, greeted the governor, and passed through to the ballroom.

Many Distinguished Guests.

At 9:30 the grand march, led by Gen. Miller and Mrs. Pennypacker and Gov. Pennypacker and Mrs. C. J. S. Miller, took place. Luncheon was served in the club dining room, but there were (no toasts. Over 1,000 guests were present at the reception tonight, and at least 500 attended the reception and tea this afternoon.

Aside from the special train from Philadelphia, which brought the governor and his staff and the guests from Harrisburg, Pittsburgh and intermediate points, special trains and trolley cars were run to and from Oil City and Meadville, and many persons from neighboring towns were present. The governor and party will return on their train over the Lake Shore and Pennsylvania, leaving here at 2:30 tomorrow morning. They will return via Pittsburgh and Harrisburg, reaching Philadelphia tomorrow evening.

Among the guests present tonight, besides the governor and wife and Miss Anna Pennypacker, were the following, representating all parts of the state:

Brig. Gen. John W. Schall, Miss E. H. Hooven, Brig. Gen. Thomas J. Stewart, Mrs. Stewart, Mr. Bromley Wharton, Mrs. Wharton, Col. Ezra H. Ripple, Col. Frang G. Swee-

SERIOUS EXPLOSION AT THE HOTEL IMPERIAL

One Workman Killed and Three Injured—Panic Among Guests Averted.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—One workman was killed and three were injured this afternoon in a gas explosion on the ninth floor of the Hotel Imperial. The accident was followed by a rush of the patrons from rooms and corridors, and had it not been for prompt action on the part of employes a panic would have resulted.

Odors of gas had been noticed and were traced to room No. 52, on the eighth floor of the old hotel. The hotel electrician, whose name is Bopp, went into the room. Soon there was a deafening explosion which blew out four feet of the floor of the servants' quarters and tons of brick and mortar dropped. James Owens, a plasterer, was crushed to death, and John Lebrettes and James McCabe, plasterers, were pinioned. Bopp, the electrician, was seriously injured.

Every part of the hotel felt the shock. Roofs of houses near were loosened and their windows shattered. The windows of several of the rooms which faced the air shaft were blown out. Thousands gathered in the streets and the police reserves were called out.

STEEL CORPORATION'S PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

Plants Being Started Up and Earnings Show But Little Decrease.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The dividend on the common stock of United States Steel to be paid Wednesday will be equivalent to 1-15 of the value of the entire issue at Monday's new low record of 15. At that valuation the common stock is worth $75,000,000 in round numbers, and the dividend due Wednesday will slightly exceed $5,000,000. The common at its highest market price of 55 was worth $275,000,000, or $200,000,000 more than Monday's low level. At the same time the preferred stock at 58 was worth only $290,000,000 in the market, a net loss of $215,000,000 from the highest market valuation of $505,000,000.

For the third quarter of the present calendar year the net earnings of the United States Steel are estimated by an official to have been $34,000,000. Decrease this quarter $2,245,498. The unfilled orders on the books are also expected to show a decrease, but to be still in excess of 4,000,000 tons, which means that beyond its present working capacity the Corporation has not less than $50,000,000 of work contracted for, much of which cannot be completed this year and will consequently have to be carried over into 1904.

SHORTS ARE SQUEEZED BY BIG COTTON CORNER

They Contribute More Than $7,000,000 to W. P. Brown in September Option.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—With September cotton at an advance of 145 points for the day and more than 200 in two days and likely to go higher and with news of private settlements 100 points higher, the New York cotton exchange today saw the culmination of the most successfully carried out corner in cotton in the history of this market, a corner which has made for W. P. Brown of New Orleans between $7,000,000 and $8,000,000 in the September option alone.

For the first time in the history of cotton selling on a world-wide basis the market is absolutely cornered, if the market tells the truth. The men who have lost in the corner are mainly Europeans, although Wall street was hit hard.

Brown began bulling the cotton market last April. He recently learned there was a big short interest in September cotton, and knowing the crop condition to be short bought up the options for September cotton which were sold freely by the speculative element in the market which looked for a sharp break in the month, when they could buy and deliver their contracts.

COMMITTEE TO LIMIT OUTPUT

Five Well Known Furnace Operators Given Charge of Pig Iron.

LARGE MEETING HERE

TO FIX THE DETAILS AT ONCE

A plan to obtain the desired restriction of the output of pig iron by a percentage of reduction, instead of a 30-day shut down, was evolved at the meeting of furnace operators from the Pittsburgh, Cleveland and valley districts yesterday. The meeting was held in the board room of the Carnegie Steel Company and was one of the most largely attended furnace meetings held here for a long time. The discussion lasted about two hours.

At the end of the meeting it was announced that a committee of five furnace operators had been appointed to work out the detailed plan. The members of this committee are J. G. Butler, Jr., Youngstown, president of the Bessemer Furnace association; D. B. Meacham, Cleveland, of Rogers, Brown & Co; W. P. Snyder, Pittsburgh; A. W. Thompson, Chicago, president of the Republic Iron & Steel Company, and D. G. Kerr, representing the Carnegie Steel Company or United States Steel Corporation interests.

This committee will at once formulate the details of the plan to be followed. It was given power to act and its decision is therefore to be accepted by the members of the conference. It is expected that there will be another meeting of the operators here shortly to confer on the progress of the plan. The committee will call this meeting.

In the discussion yesterday it became evident that the purpose of the meeting—the restriction of the iron output—could be accomplished by having all work on a certain percentage of lessened product and then each obtain this lessening by whatever methods he chose to follow, quite as well as by the original plan of each furnace agreeing to a 30-day closing period between now and January 1. From the fact that this period is just one-third of the last quarter, it is believed that the percentage to be recommended in the reductions will be close to 33 1-3. This is as yet entirely unofficial, inasmuch as the committee has not prepared its report.

Southern Furnacemen to Meet.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—A meeting of southern furnace operators has been called for October 2, at which time they will consider overtures from western iron makers to curtail the output so as to steady the market and prevent further curtailment of prices.

TWO MURDER SUSPECTS HAD SATCHEL OF MONEY

Strangers Seen at Washington Supposed to Have Caused Ferguson Tragedy.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 29.—It is believed that two of the men implicated in the killing of Contractor Samuel L. Ferguson at West Middletown last Friday and the subsequent robbery were in Washington today and may still be hiding about town, although the indications are that they have gone to Pittsburgh. Two men, one of whom answers the description of the man seen by Lewis Liggett at West Middletown, were in Washington this afternoon and had with them a grip containing over $2,000 in bills of small denominations.

Today Amos Martin, a retired farmer who lives in West Washington, was accosted by two men who told him that they had a quantity of money which they wished to have changed. They told Martin that they had over $2,000 in a grip which one of them carried and, opening their satchel, showed him a huge pile of bills. The men offered him $5 if he would take the money to a bank and secure bills of higher denomination.

Martin at first accepted, but realising that he had started after medicine for a sick girl reconsidered and refused to go. He said that the men waited while he went to a drug store, but when he returned they had gone. It is supposed that they boarded a train for Pittsburgh.

The search for the slayers of Ferguson has been placed in the hands of Roger O'Mara of Pittsburgh and he has detailed several men on the case. Today Francis and Huston, the men in the county jail, were "sweated" for several hours by Detective Sweeney of the Pittsburgh force, but nothing of importance was learned from them.

CHICAGO RABBI KILLED BY CARBOLIC ACID POISONING

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Suffering intense agony, his mouth and face burned severely, Rabbi H. Silverman, connected with the Russian Jewish Orthodox church, died from the effects of carbolic acid poisoning after a physician worked over his unconscious form for two hours. "Did Rabbi Silverman commit suicide, or was he the victim of a fatal accident?" is the question the members of his congregation are asking.

Pennsylvania and New York Central Are the Leaders.

STEEL MAKES GAINS

Rumor That President Cassatt of the Pennsy Would Resign Authoritatively Denied.

SENTIMENT MORE CHEERFUL

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.

There was a cessation of the heavy liquidation in the stock market and the sudden upward turn brought gleams of sunlight into many an office in Wall street where gloom had hung heavy. There was little news to account for the reversal in feeling and many were disposed to believe that strong support at the opening caused a frightened movement of the shorts.

Advices from London before the New York market opened were gloomy enough. The heavy blow given the market the night before by the closing weakness in Pennsylvania, it was also thought meant a weak opening here. Few expected a rally such as developed during the day. The opening prices did give some indication of further liquidation, but support of a character that the bears always fear came from various quarters. Stock offered was freely taken and more was bid for an even advancing scale.

Pennsylvania and New York Central were the leaders. One large banking house identified with the financial end of the Pennsylvania is supposed to have entered the market with an order for 50,000 shares and absorbed all the offerings. The price quickly advanced. In Amalgamated Copper there was a large buying order awaiting the opening and the sudden upturn in this stock amazed and frightened the bears, who had sold it with impunity the night before.

In conservative quarters it was said that the frenzy to sell had given way to saner feelings and that holders were not disposed to make such sacrifices while in this frame of mind. In brokerage quarters, however, some of the gloomy sentiment continued to hang over the offices. One of the stories which was current during the day was that A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania railroad system, was to send in his resignation soon, and this was followed by a radical change in the control of that vast property. The rumor, which gathered strength as it rolled along, explained that the Standard Oil Syndicate had gathered in the control of the system and as a result Mr. Cassatt and some of his friends would resign soon. These reports were denied in absolutely reliable quarters. Mr. Cassatt was in New York today in company with an important executive officer of his system. They had come from Philadelphia to examine the terminal improvements here and proposed work at Greenville, N. J. He met several bankers during his visit to the financial district who ridiculed the report that he would resign. In regard to questions as to a change in control, these authorities said it would be practically impossible to buy the control of the Pennsylvania system.

United States steel shares were stronger and their strength contributed much to the better feeling. It was noticed, however, that the low records which one of the three issues usually made, were again in evidence. This time it was steel common, which broke below all previous records, selling down to 14¾. It closed at 16⅜. The preferred made a gain of 2½ points, closing at 61⅜.

Cassatt Resigned From Office.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 29.—Alexander J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, has resigned as third vice president of the Public Service Corporation, and A. B. Carlton, president of the United Electric Company before it was absorbed by the Public Service Corporation, was elected in his place.

CONGRESS TO SIFT POSTAL SCANDALS

President Roosevelt Will Spoil a Lot of Democratic Campaign Thunder.

TULLOCH CHARGES SUSTAINED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 29.

There is to be a congressional investigation of the postoffice scandal upon the initiative of the Republicans. This decision has been reached by President Roosevelt after conferring with Representative Cannon, who is to be the next speaker of the house, and other prominent Republicans. The present investigation must be finished in time for a report to congress during the early days of the session.

The president has made up his mind upon these points and will see that they are carried out. He believes that in unearthing the crookedness in the postoffice department there has been too much self-glorification. It is also stated upon the best of authority that Attorneys Bonaparte and Conrad, to whom were referred the Tulloch charges, have made a report to the president, in which Mr. Tulloch's statements have been sustained in almost every particular. These charges involved a number of former and present officials of the department, including former First Assistant Postmaster General Perry S. Heath, Postmaster John A. Merritt of this city, Auditor Castle of the postoffice department and Comptroller Tracewell of the treasury department. Today the president conferred with Postmaster General Payne and First Assistant Wynne. He urged upon them that the investigation be finished with all possible expedition.

A resolution is to be introduced in congress at the earliest opportunity authorizing an investigation of the postoffice department, and this program will interfere to a large extent with the plans of the Democrats, who had anticipated the making of campaign thunder.

GONZALES MURDER WAS DELIBERATELY PLANNED

Three Witnesses Give Damaging Evidence in Trial of James H. Tillman.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

LEXINGTON, S. C., Sept. 29.—"When I left home I didn't tell my wife where I'd stop. I just put those editorials (the Gonzales attacks) in my pocket and thought I might stop in the penitentiary."

"If there is any way to him; any way to get at him."

"If I hit him where I aimed he is a dead man."

These are three statements sworn to as having fallen from the lips of James H. Tillman, who is on trial here for the murder of Editor Gonzales.

Last October, one witness testified, he walked in on Tillman and Dick Holzenback in a stable in Ridgefield. He heard the name of Gonzales called and heard Tillman address the others and say evidently of Gonzales: "If there is any way to get him."

W. B. Gaus, of the house of representatives, said he heard Tillman make the declaration about the probability of his stopping in the penitentiary.

Henry Dowling called on Tillman at the jail soon after the shooting of Gonzales and expressed his regrets. Tillman asked him where he had hit Gonzales. "If I hit him where I aimed he is surely a dead man," said he.

The fight for the admission of the ante-mortem statement of Gonzales was won by the prosecution.

Europe Is Buying the American Apple.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—All records for the exportation of American apples to Europe, Germany, France and the United Kingdom are being broken. A total of 75,000 barrels will be shipped abroad from this city alone this week. This consignment is sufficient to fill about 430 ordinary box railroad cars. In Germany the better grade of American apple is selling at $6 50 per barrel.

CONFERENCE AT WHITE HOUSE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, Sept. 29.—An important conference took place at the White House tonight between President Roosevelt and five members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, during which the case of Foreman W. A. Miller of the government printing office, who was dismissed because he had been expelled from the local Bookbinders' union, and afterward was reinstated by direction of the president, was the principal topic of discussion. The Miller case was very fully presented by the members of the executive council, at the close of which the president made a statement in which he announced that his decision not to dismiss Miller was final and that the question of his personal fitness must be settled in the regular routine of administration. The conference broke up about 11:30 o'clock and shortly thereafter the following statement was given to the press at the white house:

"Pursuant to the request of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, the president granted an interview this evening to the following members of the executive council of that body: Mr. Samuel Gompers, Mr. James Duncan, Mr. John Mitchell, Mr. James O'Connell and Mr. Frank Morrison, at which various subjects of legislation in the interests of labor as well as executive action were discussed. Concerning the case of William A. Miller, the president made the following statement:

The President's Attitude.

I thank you and your committee for your courtesy, and I appreciate the opportunity to meet with you. It will always be a pleasure to see you or any representatives of your organizations or of your federation as a whole.

As regards the Miller case, I have little to add to what I have already said. In dealing with it, I ask you to remember that I am dealing purely with the relation of the government to its employes. I must govern my action by the laws of the land which I am sworn to administer and which differentiate any case in which the government of the United States is a party from all other cases whatsoever. These laws are enacted for the benefit of the whole people, and cannot and must not be construed as permitting discrimination against some of the people. I am president of all the people of the United States, without regard to

BIGELOW MACHINE FAILS TO SECURE PEACE IN TWO BIG WARD COMMITTEES

Orders of the Bosses Are Not Carried Out in the Fight in the Fourteenth.

BOTH SIDES STAND FIRM

Capt. E. Y. Breck and W. J. Moore Fail to Carry Out the Harmony Program. Two Organizations Will Be Continued.

Free Fist Fight Is the Result of an Attempt to Harmonize the Eleventh.

LAMB CLAIMS A VICTORY

After Getting Hemmingray Forces Out of the Room He Elects Officers for His Organization — His Action Is Denounced.

War instead of peace is the result of the attempt of the Bigelow machine bosses to secure harmony in the Citizen committees of the Eleventh and Fourteenth wards. The plan of Thomas S. Bigelow, Mayor W. B. Hays and Murry A. Verner were rejected and the breach in both cases is wider than before.

In the Eleventh ward the attempt to settle the troubles existing since June resulted in a free for all fist fight. While there were no disgraceful scenes in the Fourteenth, the orders of the bosses were not obeyed. The rival organizations have refused to get together and the feeling is more bitter than before.

Peace in the Citizens party in the Fourteenth ward is not in sight. The factions are still far apart and the county committee will again be asked to determine whether the Breck on the Moore committee is in the right.

Bigelow, Verner and Hays had thought that at the meetings last night Breck and Moore would willingly relinquish claim to the ward chairmanship and a compromise man be named. Instead of surrender, there was a decision to keep up the fight, each side placing a different interpretation on the orders from the front.

The Moore-Stevenson crowd met in the Bellefield school house and Breck's committee convened in their new headquarters on the opposite side of Fifth avenue. The chairs, which Moore claims are the property of his committee, were carried to the other headquarters and the men who met in the school house had to sit on store boxes. To even matters, James H. McQuaide, one of Breck's committeemen, supplied a number of the boxes.

After the failure to harmonize, Capt. Breck said: "There was an understanding that Moore and I were to retire tonight. Each side was to appoint a committee to make up a roll in accordance with instructions from headquarters. The delegates as selected were to elect a new ward chairman. Councilman Christ Beckert acted as the go-between and told me tonight that Moore would carry out the program. When it came to the appointment of a committee he refused. I will now refer the whole matter to the county committee on contests."

Verner Makes a Ruling.

When W. J. Moore called his committee together a report from the committee that had been instructed to secure a ruling from County Chairman M. A. Verner on the regularity of the meeting of June 3, at which Moore was elected, was called for. Charles A. Anderson read this letter from Verner:

Several inquiries have been made of me by members of your ward organization as to who is eligible to serve as members or officers of your ward organization. In answer thereto, will say:

That any Citizen-Republican or Citizen-Democrat who is affiliated with the Citizens party can serve as a member of the ward executive committee or as a district or ward officer if he is not a member or officer of the regular Republican or Democratic organization.

That is, a person who is also an officer or member of either ward, city or county Republican or Democratic organization cannot be a member or officer of the Citizens organization. Any person, however, either Republican or Democrat, who is a member of the Citizens party and who is not a member of the Republican or Democratic committees, can serve as an officer or member of the ward executive committee.

Anderson said that under this ruling the election of Moore was regular.

"We stand on that ground," said he.

It was explained that this ruling meant any Democrat who took an active part in the primaries of the party. Under this interpretation Moore said that the name of Dennis Cone, John Doherty, Harry Ricketts, James H. McQuaide and A. J. Strickler, Breck men, would have to be stricken from the roll. It was denied that the new election would have to be held in these districts and Citizen-Republicans chosen. Under this plan Moore would have 33 of the 48 committeemen.

Plea for Harmony.

Anderson said that some action should be taken toward bringing the "wayward brother" back to the fold. In his opinion the ruling of Verner is supreme and the fight is at an end. J. B. Stevenson, who has taken the place of his brother William H., on the committee, while that "orphan" is waiting for the Citizens to redeem their pledges, made a motion that the late unpleasantness be regretted; that the "wayward brothers" be requested to return to the fold; that the districts effected by the Verner ruling elect their delegates, and that the secretary so notify the other side. This was adopted.

Moore then proceeded to make a speech about his committee turning in for the Bigelow ticket. Incidentally, he remarked, "We control the Citizens party of the Fourteenth ward." He said that Brown, the candidate for sheriff, was a fine man. "From what I hear of Goehring, he is a perfect gentleman. They say he is well liked in his own community. I do not know anything about the other three candidates."

'Squire J. W. Jones made a brief speech in which he regretted that the Citizens party did not have a representative newspaper to assist it.

Moore was preparing to adjourn his meeting when J. W. Harger appeared as message bearer from the Breck camp. He offered a letter from the captain in which the appointment of a committee of five men requested to meet a like committee of Breck men. The purpose was to prepare a roll of delegates.

Where Harmony Failed.

The Moore committee agreed to name a committee. It was composed of Messrs. Kenzer, McManus, Linal, Binder and Jones. It was instructed to go to the other headquarters and read the Verner letter and the roll of delegates, as made up by Moore. In a short time Mr. Kinzer reported that the Breck organization insisted that the Moore committee have power to confer about making up a roll. The authority was refused and the Moore meeting adjourned with the understanding that everyone was to stand "pat."

When the Breck men heard the report they also announced that they would stand "pat" and harmony was declared off. Capt. Breck says he recognizes the Verner ruling, but does not interpret it as meaning that if a man is simply a member of the Democratic party he cannot serve on the committee. He says that all the Democrats ruled off by Moore have a right to seats. He will today ask the county committee to hear both sides and give a decision.

Fist fights, dissension and further disruption of the ward organization was the result of the call for a meeting last night of the Eleventh ward Citizens committee. The meeting was to have been held in the Moorhead school building to elect ward officers and bring peace out of the chaotic condition that the party affairs have been in since early last June.

It was the understanding that none but committeemen should be permitted in the meeting, but long before the hour set for the meeting almost 100 outsiders were in the hall. William Hemmingray, who claims to be the chairman, declared that Councilman Harry Lamb, leader of the other faction, packed the meeting. For this reason the former's friends refused to go into session, although they claimed they had 19 of the 30 committeemen.

For almost two hours workers of both factions, and a large number of noisy Democrats, quarreled in all parts of the room while the leaders conferred with the avowed purpose of bringing about a harmoney deal. This failed, however, and the declaration from Hemmingray that there would be no meeting seemed to be a signal for a free-for-all fight.

There Was a General Fight.

A small riot was soon going on and Assistant Superintendent of Police Thomas Malone, one of the committeemen, was pushed and jostled about among the fighting mob in his efforts to restore order. Finally two of the belligerents decided to go down into the street and finish their fight. The entire crowd, with the exception of the Lamb followers, followed, and the fight was continued in the street. The shouts and curses of the contestants and onlookers brought scores of persons to the scene. The fight ended when one of the men, who was getting the worst of the battle, ran down Wylie avenue and into a milk dealer's store. The crowd followed, yelling, but the vanquished escaped through a rear yard.

Meanwhile Councilman Lamb had hurriedly called around him his faithful friends and, after shutting the doors, called a meeting, stating to those already instructed, the object of the meeting. It was to elect ward officers and to restore harmony in a ward that had been torn by strife since an alleged illegal meeting held on June 3, at which Hemmingray was elected ward chairman. A roll of committeemen was called and Mr. Lamb announced that there were 16 present. There were really 19, he said, but he allowed each member from the First and Seventh districts a half vote each. It is these districts that contested.

Councilman Lamb made a short address in which he said the Hemmingray faction had come into the meeting prepared to elect a slate, but as they knew the other side had votes they refused to play. Mr. Lamb denounced slates severely and complained of the action of the other side in trying to perpetrate such a thing.

Lamb Men Elect.

A temporary organization was formed, with Samuel H. Gilson, chairman and Harry Lamb secretary. Then the election of the Lamb slate followed. Dr. Harry B. Burns was made ward chairman; William Hemmingray, vice; Joseph T. Flinn, secretary, and Theodore Schmidt, treasurer. The nominations were made, seconded and closed with rapidity, no opposition to the slated candidates being tolerated. Temporary Chairman Gilson was instructed to appoint a harmony committee of three to notify the new officers of their election and to endeavor to restore peace in the ward.

Hemmingray, Assistant Superintendent Malone and others of the Hemmingray faction, were seen after the Lamb meeting adjourned, and all declared the meeting illegal.

"We won't stand for anything like that," said Hemmingray. "The meeting was packed tonight, and for that reason we refused to go into session. Our side has 19 votes, but it would have been useless to try to do anything regular with such a mob in the house. Lamb used the votes of committee whose status is in question in order to make a bare majority of 16. The county committee will not recognize the action of the other side as legal and the result will be a call for another meeting."

Councilman Lamb differs in this opinion and declares everything regular. "We had the voters here tonight," he said, "and Hemmingray and his followers were afraid to take part. They knew they had no chance to win and took this other method of trying to throw barriers in the path of harmony. But you will see our action will be sustained."

The election of Hemmingray to the vice chairmanship was arranged by the Lamb crowd as a sop to the other side. Hemmingray declared last night he would not have the office, especially when it is given in what he declares an illegal manner.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Session Opens This Morning in Supreme Court Room—Many Subjects to Be Discussed.

From all parts of the state, with the exception of Philadelphia county, delegates to the annual convention of county commissioners arrived in this city last night and are lodged at the Monongahela House. About 100 will sit in the convention this morning in the supreme court rooms. W. M. Davis, chairman, will preside. The other members of the executive committee elected at the last convention at Gettysburg are R. F. Hopewood, Fayette county; the Hon. A. E. Sisson, Erie county; John C. Yates, Cambria county; F. W. Seibert, Allegheny county.

The session which opens at 10 o'clock this morning lasts for two days. Among the questions that will be discussed are:

Resolved, That road damages should be paid by the respective districts through which they are opened. The discussion will be opened by William M. Davis, who takes the affirmative.

Resolved, That each county should have its own asylum for the care of its insane. Frank H. Fay, Esq., Blair county, will open for the affirmative.

Question, What changes, if any, would be advisable in our poor laws? W. W. Wilbur of Warren county will open.

Question, What effect has the tax lien law of 1901 had upon the legislation regulating sale of land for taxes? A. E. Sisson of Erie will open.

Question, What are we doing toward getting good roads in Pennsylvania? J. C. Mercer of Allegheny will open.

A question box will be opened and all questions deposited therein will be discussed. They will be taken up before the close of each session.

Wyman Administration Loses the Allegheny Assistant City Engineer.

PERRY CASSIDY GETS NEW JOB

Was Ejected from Highways Bureau by Wyman, but Is Appointed to Another Place for Political Reasons. Preparing for Republican Meeting.

Disgusted with the way the city administration of Allegheny has been running things, Thomas L. Strickler, assistant city engineer, yesterday resigned his position, the resignation to take effect today. Strickler was an appointee of the administration.

Strickler had expressed his intention to resign and go over to the Republican party before his resignation was handed in. He wrote it out and gave it to Director E. J. McIlvain yesterday afternoon and the director accepted it, of course, as Mr. Strickler was determined to leave the municipal service. Last night McIlvain confirmed the story, saying that Strickler had resigned and his resignation had been accepted.

That leaves two of the better class places vacant, the other being the building inspectorship, which was promised to 20 carpenters and brick masons but has not yet been filled, the assistant, who was in office when Wyman became mayor, being the acting head of the bureau. The intention is to reserve the building inspectorship appointment until shortly before the election, so as to give it to the man who can do the Citizens organization the most good.

The first move to distribute appointments among supposed Republican workers was made yesterday, when Perry Cassidy, formerly superintendent of highways and sewers for the eastern district of Allegheny, was appointed to a place in the engineer's office. Cassidy, however, although an appointee, has not been in the confidence of the Republicans of Allegheny, and the transfer of his influence to the Wyman administration is not expected to injure the Republicans. Charles Lipman was appointed inspector of sidewalks.

As election day approaches the Allegheny administration is throwing off the ill-fitting mask of reform and as a result 38 unchartered drinking clubs have been opened in the Seventh ward. The fiction that one must be a member to obtain a drink is no longer observed and any thirsty man can get into the clubs without trouble.

The Allegheny Republicans are working to make the opening meeting, to be held on Saturday in Allegheny, a success. A list of 300 vice presidents has been prepared, a fine array of speakers is being secured and the silk banner to be presented by Joseph H. May to the "banner" Republican district of the city is being made and will be finished in time to be exhibited at the meeting. The work of forming district organizations in going on and last night three districts were organized at the headquarters in East Diamond street. As usual half of the voters taking enthusiastic part in the meetings were former adherents of the Citizens party.

The Citizens party's ward committee of the Fourth ward met last night in the Kenyon hall headquarters, discussed the canvass now being made in the ward and talked encouragingly to the city chairman, Richard H. Jackson about it. Chairman Jackson expects to have his list of standing committees ready for publication tonight.

MEETING WILL BE LARGE.

Republicans Are Preparing for a Big Demonstration in Allegheny Saturday Night.

Plans are almost complete for the opening of the Republican campaign in Carnegie music hall, Allegheny, Saturday night. Chairman T. J. Ford says that a number of eloquent speakers have offered their services. A big attendance is expected.

Congressman E. F. Acheson of Washington came home from Philadelphia yesterday where he had a conference with Republican State Chairman Boies Penrose. Under authority given him by the last state convention, Penrose is empowered to devise a plan for nominating a congressman in the Twenty-fourth district, the conferees representing the Republican organizations in Beaver, Lawrence and Washington counties having failed to agree. It was agreed that nothing should be done in the matter until after the November election.

John Pierce, assistant to the president of the Amalgamated association, is being discussed as a successor of Assessor D. O. Barr, who died Monday. Pierce was an applicant for the place when Barr was named. He is a Democrat.

Republican County Chairman Ford has received letters from Republican National Chairman M. A. Hanna and Congressman John Dalzell in reference to securing the national convention for Pittsburgh. Mr. Dalzell said that he would give every assistance possible. Chairman Hanna promised that he would bring the matter before the national committee. Mr. Ford has not met with Mayors Hays and Wyman.

HANLON GETS DECISION AFTER 20 FIERCE ROUNDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Eddie Hanlon obtained the decision over Bennie Yanger of Chicago last night after 20 rounds of the fiercest fighting ever seen in this city. Both contestants were badly used up.

creed, color, birthplace, occupation or social condition. My aim is to do equal and exact justice as among them all. In the employment and dismissal of men in the government service I can no more recognize the fact that a man does or does not belong to a union as being for or against him than I can recognize the fact that he is a Protestant or a Catholic, a Jew or a Gentile, as being for or against him.

In the communications sent me by various labor organizations protesting against the retention of Miller in the government printing office, the grounds alleged are twofold: First, that he is a non-union man; second, that he is not personally fit. The question of his personal fitness is one to be settled in the routine of administrative detail and cannot be allowed to conflict with or to complicate the larger question of governmental discrimination for or against him or any other man because he is or is not a member of a union. This is the only question now before me for decision, and as to this my decision is final.

Labor Leaders Not Satisfied.

The members of the executive council attending the conference constituted the sub-committee appointed to take up the Miller case at the meeting of the executive council of the Federation of Labor held in Washington last week. At that time the sub-committee wrote a letter to the president asking that a time be set for a conference. It was dated Washington, September 24, was sent to the president at Oyster Bay.

The letter asked that an interview be accorded the committee, and expressed the hope that inasmuch as Mr. Mitchell's engagements required him to leave Washington Tuesday evening, and that his presence at the interview was desired, that the president would set the time for the interview before his departure. The reply of the president was favorable and the interview was set for tonight.

From the manner of the labor leaders as they came from the White House it was evident that they were not entirely satisfied with the result of their interview. Mr. Gompers referred the reporters to the statement that would be given out by the president's secretary. While he was talking one of his associates wished it to be impressed on the reporters that the president's statement should be understood by them to be an entirely "independent statement," and not as an answer to the council's request.

The council also brought to the attention of the president several matters of legislation in which it is interested. Among these were the enforcement of the eight-hour law and the anti-injunction bill which passed the house of representatives at the last session of congress.

The president, Mr. Gompers said, expressed himself as favorable to the principles of the shorter work day and his deep concern for the interest of the wage earners of the country.

The president also was asked by his visitors to take up the case of Ephriam W. Clark, who is confined in the Thomastown, Maine, jail, under sentence of life imprisonment for mutiny. The president was asked to extend executive clemency in Clark's case.

HANNA PAYS RESPECTS TO TOM L. JOHNSON

Senator Declares That Democratic Campaign in Ohio Is One of Socialism.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SANDUSKY, O., Sept. 29.—The Republicans of this city and environs rallied to the campaign echo in two great meetings, one at Berlin Heights this afternoon and the other in this city tonight. Senator Hanna, Myron T. Herrick, candidate for governor, and State Senator W. G. Harding of Marion, O., were the principal speakers at both meetings.

Senator Hanna, in his speech before an immense audience tonight, paid his respects to Tom L. Johnson. The senator was eloquent and emphatic in his declaration that Johnson's management of the Democratic campaign in Ohio this year was of the extreme Socialistic type, almost bordering on anarchy. He said Johnson was becoming frantic in his endeavors to create discord and discontent, while the people were enjoying a full measure of peace and prosperity. He reviewed the history of the Republican state administrations which showed a diminishing debt and an increasing surplus.

Gov. Pennypacker Does Not Believe in Either Stock or Political Flurries.

Gov. Samuel W. Pennypacker, who spent two hours in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, while en route to Franklin with the other guests of Gen. Miller, expressed the most optimistic views regarding the financial situation. "We have always had such flurries on the stock markets," he said. "This country is too great to be dominated by any such influences as those originating on the stock exchange."

Gov. Pennypacker believes that the nomination of President Roosevelt in 1904 for a second term is certain. "There seems to be no doubt on this question. His nomination is practically assured and this only means that he will again be chosen president," he said.

MURDERED SLEEPING GIRL AND THEN SHOT HIMSELF THROUGH THE HEART

rented by Howard W. Lindh, a stenographer, and his wife. Garwood rented the second story front room. He never mentioned that he was married nor communicated any of his business with the Lindhs. He stayed there for about three weeks alone, until one day he brought Hilda Vogel to the house and announced that she was his wife.

Were Pleasant Companions.

Mrs. Lindh was formerly Maud Newland and she, too, had worked in the Smithfield street restaurant where Hilda worked, and at about the same time. Mrs. Lindh asked Hilda if she was really married, and Hilda said she was. The Lindhs and the Garwoods became quite intimate and went out much together, despite the fact that Garwood was nearly 40 years older than any of the other three.

The Lindhs never doubted they were man and wife and nothing marred the pleasant relations they enjoyed with their boarders. Garwood appeared much infatuated with and devoted to the woman he called Mrs. Garwood. He did everything in his power to make her happy, and was with her constantly. She was well supplied with good clothes and plenty of jewelry and appeared to be happy with the man.

Last Sunday afternoon they went out for a drive. Garwood ordered a carriage by telephone from a nearby liveryman. When the carriage arrived Garwood was angry because a closed instead of an open vehicle was sent. The driver asked Garwood where he should drive to. Garwood was heard to reply:

"We are going out Perrysville avenue first, and God knows where afterward."

Something Happened at a Theater.

Garwood and Hilda returned to their room Sunday night safely, and on Monday Garwood came down town. He returned about 6 o'clock and he and Hilda dressed and went out. They left about 7 o'clock and went to the restaurant where Hilda formerly worked, and had dinner. They left about 7:45 o'clock. They must have met some friends on their way to the Bijou theater, for Garwood asked the ticket seller at the box office for four seats. The four viewed the performance in box No. 5.

Roy Morse, the usher at the Bijou theater, who took the party to the box, stated last night he knew Garwood and the girl by sight, and that he remembered of taking the party of four to the box Monday night. He said Garwood seemed very angry at something. Morse said that long before the end of the performance and while the play was going on, Garwood left the theater alone. This fact is borne out by the fact that a return check for the Bijou theater's Monday night performance was found in the room in Moultrie street. In a pocket in Garwood's coat was found the coupon checks for the box.

Where Garwood went, or how Hilda Vogel reached the Moultrie street room is not known. They were not heard going to their room. The Lindhs retired about 12:30 o'clock, and say that up to that time the Garwoods had not come in. Mrs. Clara Bulger, who lives next door, at 133 Moultrie street, says she heard a muffled shot about 1 o'clock.

Garwood and Hilda were in the habit of arising about noon each day. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when nothing had been heard of the pair during the day, Howard Lindh, who is ill and did not go to his office yesterday, went to the room and knocked on the door. No response was made. Lindh tried the door. It was locked. There was not a sound from the inside. Lindh became alarmed and sought the services of Policeman Patrick N. Hanigan, of No. 4 police station, who was at Fifth avenue and Moultrie street.

After searching for half an hour Lindh found a key that fitted the door of Garwood's room. Lindh and Hanigan opened the door and a horrible sight met their eyes. George Garwood and Hilda Vogel were lying on the bed both dead.

The room was in a state of chaos. Clothing and wearing apparel were strewn about, bureau and wardrobe drawers were open and papers and clothing of all descriptions were littered about. Hilda had a bullet wound through her head, the bullet having passed through the right temple. Garwood had shot himself through the heart. From the situation of the bodies, it is believed that Garwood killed the woman while she was asleep. He probably killed himself immediately afterward. Hilda was clothed in her nightdress and was covered up with the bed clothing. Garwood had on his night clothes, but was lying outside the bed clothes.

Deed Was Premeditated.

From the fact that no light was found burning it seems likely the deed was committed in broad daylight, probably about 8 or 9 o'clock in the morning. A physician who was called at 4 o'clock stated both had been dead for several hours, but how many he was unable to determine.

On the bed beside Garwood's body was a 32-caliber revolver. Two chambers were empty. Between the two bodies was a bit of cardboard which had been torn from a nearby trunk. On it was written the following:

"My name is George Garwood of California, Washington county, Pa. Notify George W. Acklin, No. 409 Grant street, attorney-at-law. He will care for me."

No clew as to the identity of the girl could be found in the room with the exception of a special delivery letter sent to Hilda Vogel to the Moultrie street address, about two weeks ago, from Claysville. It was through Hilda's acquaintance with Mrs. Lindh that she was finally identified.

The coroner's office was immediately notified and Deputy Coroner G. J. Limber was detailed on the case. The bodies were removed to the morgue and were later formally identified. Mr. Acklin was notified, but arrangements were made with Garwood's son, Clyde, for the disposition of his body.

Mr. Acklin stated last night that he had known Garwood and his family for nearly 50 years, having been born about two miles from the point in Luzerne township, where Garwood was born. He said Garwood had always been a strictly temperate man, shrewd in business and regarded as a thrifty farmer when he was following that line of business. He had also been successful in speculating in coal lands. Mr. Acklin said he had not done any business with Garwood for several years, and was unable to account for Garwood having left word for him to take care of his body.

Garwood Jealous of "Charley."

It is supposed Garwood led his family to believe that he had rented a room at the Moultrie street house for his use while here because of the fact that he had to be away from home so much. Several letters from his wife to that address were found in the room. From a receipt found in his pocket it was learned that Garwood sent a special delivery letter to his wife at California on Monday afternoon. Whether or not that contained any intimation of the deed he was going to commit is not known.

Hilda Vogel, who was a little past 20 years old, was well known in Mt. Oliver and in parts of Pittsburgh. While she was working at the Smithfield street restaurant she went to numerous dances at a hall at Fifth and Old avenues. About 20 of her friends with whom she went to these dances were at the morgue last night trying to view the body.

Hilda's particular friend at all these dances was a man called "Charley" who is said to be a bartender on the South Side. He and Hilda were lifelong friends, it is said, and her family thought the two were to be married next summer. It is believed "Charley" knew of Hilda's relations with Garwood, and that Garwood knew Hilda was fond of "Charley." About a week ago "Charley" and Hilda paid a visit to the latter's home in Mt. Oliver, and during the evening it was announced they were to be married next summer. "Charley" took the girl to Garwood's room in Moultrie street that night.

Hilda Deceived Her Parents.

The Lindhs stated yesterday that Garwood was an exceptionally jealous man and was continually talking about some one coming between him and his "wife." He was heard to remark more than once that if anyone came between him and Hilda, he would shoot the man and not the girl, as the man would be to blame. Whatever brought Garwood's suspicions to a head in regard to "Charley" is not known. It is thought by some that "Charley" was one of the party of four at the Bijou theater on Monday night. The description of the second man tallies with that obtained of "Charley."

Ferdinand Vogel, the girl's father, went to the morgue last night, and after learning the story of her death and viewing the body of his daughter, refused to identify her. She was identified by her brother Ferdinand, Jr., who called one hour later with his father and another sister, Augusta.

Vogel stated his daughter had been living away from home for about two years. He thought she worked in a downtown restaurant. It was Hilda's habit to call on the old folks in Mt. Oliver every two weeks. She was there two weeks ago, and on Saturday of last week she met her brother on the street and told him she would be home yesterday.

Garwood was identified by his son and daughter who are in this city and who are prostrated over the crime. Both refused to make any statement concerning their father. They made the necessary arrangements for the disposition of the father's body. Clyde Garwood was notified of the tragedy at his home, 6320 Kelly street, by Mr. Acklin. He notified his sister at her home, 128 Walter street, Mt. Washington. The two visited the morgue together.

Had Gay Time at Atlantic City.

Miss Vogel was an exceedingly attractive young brunette. She had fine clothes and knew how to wear them. She was rather tall, of good figure and nice carriage. Garwood, 45 years older than she, did not look much over 50. He was rather tall and slight, had coal black hair and wore a black mustache. He was not very particular about his clothing, but was a passably well dressed man.

Garwood's wife was prostrated at her home in California yesterday, when notified of her husband's tragic end. Their two daughters who are at home, were likewise grief-stricken. Two sons live at Greensburg and the balance of the children reside in Kansas.

During the summer Garwood and Hilda were at Atlantic City together for two weeks, and it was while they were there that the photograph from which the picture of the pair presented herewith is reproduced, was taken. It was one of those photographs taken on an Atlantic City mailing card, and shows them seated in one of the wicker rolling chairs so popular on the board walk at the popular resort.

Did Not Dream of Awful End.

They looked happy and contented then and it is not within the range of possibility that they had the remotest idea of the awful ending of it all.

When Garwood and Hilda went to Atlantic City they retained their room in Moultrie street and claimed it on their return. The room is a small one. The house is a two-story brick. In the room were found many pieces of valuable jewelry, mostly the kind worn by women. Around Hilda's neck was a gold locket on which was engraved the initials "C. N." This is taken to stand for "Charley," whose last name remains at present unknown.

Eczema

How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales!

Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum.

The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to—they mitigate, but cannot cure.

It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions.

Hood's Pills are the best cathartic. Price 25 cents.

MAJOR S. W. HAY KILLED BY FALL

Well-Known Soldier and Steel Man Meets Instant Death in Elevator Shaft.

OCCURRED ON 56th BIRTHDAY

He Stepped from Cage as It Started Upward and in a Second He Had Fallen from Fourth Floor to Subbasement.

Maj. Samuel Worthington Hay, of 5024 Cypress street, Shadyside, a veteran of both the civil and Spanish wars, and one of the best known men in the steel trades in this city, was instantly killed by a fall down the elevator shaft in the Arrott building, at 3:15 p. m., yesterday. He fell from the fourth floor striking on the machinery in the sub-basement. Life was extinct when those who rushed to his aid reached the place.

The full details of the accident will probably not be brought out until the investigation by the coroner is made. Major Hay was one of half a dozen passengers going up on the elevator. When the fourth floor was reached, it is said, one of the passengers got out. The outer or shaft door was all but closed, the inner or cage door was closing, and the elevator was just starting upward when Maj. Hay started to leave the cage.

Was All Over in a Second.

Maj. Hay either plunged or fell heavily against the outer door, so that one of the wheels running on the tracks above was knocked from the tracks and door swung around as if on hinges. He fell out and as the elevator was not stopped quickly enough, his feet were dragged from out the cage. Before he could be caught he had fallen down the shaft. The whole accident was over in a second.

The force of the fall, about 70 feet, was sufficient to crush the body greatly. The remains were taken to the morgue. Maj. Hay's identity was learned from letters in his pockets and word was sent to his brother, Alexander F. Hay, of 614 Penn avenue. Mr. Hay identified the remains.

If Maj. Hay had lived through yesterday he would have completed his 56th year. He was born in Pittsburgh September 29, 1847, and belonged to one of the old families of this section. His father, Capt. Alexander Hay, was three times elected mayor of Pittsburgh, his term covering the years 1842, 3 and 4,—the mayors of Pittsburgh being chosen for a one-year term.

Prominent in Military Life.

Maj. Hay has been prominent here in both civil and military life. He was engaged in the steel business, in important positions, for the greater part of his life. For the last 12 years or so he had been the Pittsburgh manager for the Whiting Foundry Equipment Company, and individually he dealt in mill and foundry supplies. Before that time he was for some years assistant superintendent of the old Howe, Brown & Co. plant on the Allegheny river, now a part of the Crucible Steel Company of America.

His military career started in the Civil war. He enlisted as a private in the One Hundred and Twenty-third volunteer infantry and served throughout the war in that regiment and in a Pennsylvania artillery command. He left the service a private with a fine decord.

When the Spanish war broke out in 1898 he was given a commission by President McKinley as chief of commissary of subsistence with the rank of major on the staff of Maj. Gen. S. B. M. Young. He held this position at Camp Alger. Later he was transferred to Gen. Joseph A. Wheeler's staff at Tampa, Fla., with the same duties and rank, and still later he served in the same capacity with Maj. Gen Davis at Anniston, Ala. While Gen. Davis' corps was camping at Anniston the war was ended and the troops were mustered out of service. Maj. Hay returned to Pittsburgh and has been actively engaged in business here since.

Well Known in a Social Way.

Maj. Hay was a member of Duquesne Post, No. 259, Grand Army of the Republic, and also belonged to the local association of service men of the Spanish-American war. He was a member of Milnor lodge, No. 287, F. & A. M. He was an active member of Christ Methodist Episcopal church, and took great interest in church matters.

Maj. Hay was married in 1870 to Miss Sallie Liscomb, daughter of the late Dr. P. D. Liscomb of the South Side. Mrs. Hay survives with two sons, Paul L. Hay, mechanical engineer of the Carnegie Steel Company at Donora, and Ralph W. Hay, bookkeeper for the Wheeling Natural Gas Company, and one daughter, Miss Ruth A. Hay, at home. Miss Hay is mezzo-soprano soloist at the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension.

Maj. Hay is survived also by one brother, Alexander F. Hay of Sherman avenue, Allegheny, and three sisters, Mrs. S. K. Gay of New York, and Misses Eleanor and Mollie Hay of Arch street, Allegheny.

Few men in Pittsburgh had a larger circle of acquaintances than Maj. Hay. His home in Cypress street, Shadyside, was visited last evening by many of the best-known men of this city, who came to extend their sympathy and make offers of any assistance they could give the bereaved family.

A. J. Pittsley, the elevator operator, said after the accident that he did not know that Maj. Hay intended to leave the cage. He says Maj. Hay was carried to the sixth floor between the car and the side of the shaft before he fell. Pittsley was completely unmanned by the accident. He became so violently ill that he had to be sent to his home.

Maj. S. W. Hay

TITLE OF THE NEW TECH CHANGED BY TRUSTEES

To Be Known as the Carnegie Technical Schools of Pittsburgh.

At a special meeting of the board of trustees of the Carnegie institute yesterday afternoon action was taken for the appointment of a sub-committee to have direct charge of the building of the school. The first duty of the committee will be to select a president, who will have full power to make suggestions in drawing the plans and specifications. At the same time the trustees dropped the word "technological" and adopted the title, "The Carnegie Technical Schools of Pittsburgh."

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by the president, including the president, to be known as the committee on the Carnegie Technical Schools of Pittsburgh, with authority to have prepared working plans and specifications for the Carnegie technical schools, the same to be submitted to the board as soon as prepared, and, that prior thereto said committee shall recommend to this board as soon as possible a suitable person to serve as president of these schools.

W. N. Frew, president of the trustees, stated that he would be ready to appoint his committee before the end of the week. The committee will probably contain not less than seven members. No candidate for the office of president has appeared. Mr. Frew said that the committee would doubtless get to work immediately and that no further delays would present themselves toward the realization of the new school.

The word "technological" has been dropped from the title because the term "technical" was considered more appropriate. Technological institutions have greater scope in the range of scientific studies than has been proposed in the curriculum of the Pittsburgh schools. Later on, however, the institution may be advanced to the class of a scientific university.

FIGHT FOR CITY LIGHT CONTRACT

Philadelphia Capitalists Will Bid Against Allegheny County Light Company.

DISPLACES THE ARC-LAMPS

Representatives of Widener-Elkins Combination Discuss Plans With Assistant Controller Morrow—Present Four Year Contract Expires in November.

The Allegheny County Light Company will have competition this year for the Pittsburgh street lighting contract, despite the hold-up of the ordinances of rival electric light companies by the Citizens party in select council. Widener, Elkins and other Philadelphia capitalists identified with the United Gas Improvement Company of that city are preparing to enter the local field and in about a month will file at the city controller's office a bid to supply the city with street light for the ensuing year. The bid will be made by the Pennsylvania Globe Gas Light Company, said to be a constituent of the United Gas Improvement Company.

Representatives of the Pennsylvania Globe Gas Light Company have several times recently called at the controller's office to discuss the matter with Assistant Controller Morrow, who for a number of years has been trying to solve the problem of getting cheaper light for the city.

The Philadelphia Company, of which the Allegheny County Light Company is a branch, receives from the city $350,000 annually for the street lighting contract. The present contract was made for four years, and Assistant Controller Morrow stated yesterday that this contract expires the latter part of the year, and that the new contract would be let in November. It was generally believed that the present contract did not expire until next March, but Mr. Morrow stated that this impression was erroneous.

Arc-Lights to Be Displaced.

Mr. Morrow stated that the Pennsylvania Globe Gas Light Company had an arrangement with the Welsbach Commercial Company to use the Welsbach burner and that the Pennsylvania company proposed to replace the present electric arc lights with Welsbach lights, with gasoline as fuel. Gas could not be used, as all the local artificial gas lines are controlled by the Philadelphia Company. Mr. Morrow said he had seen the Welsbach lights in use in Philadelphia and that they were highly satisfactory.

He said they would prove a great saving to the city, as the cost of one Welsbach light was estimated at about one-fourth the cost of one arc light. The Welsbach lights are said to have about 200 candle power, and the arc lights that illuminate the Pittsburgh streets are of 2,000 candle power. It is proposed, the assistant controller explained, to place the Welsbach lights closer together than arc lights. This, he said, would equal the light of an arc lamp and distribute the rays more evenly. Another advantage which is claimed for the Welsbach light is that they are on lamp posts, and being near the ground the street gets the full benefit of the rays.

In Use in Philadelphia.

The Pennsylvania Globe Gas Light Company has branch headquarters in Pittsburgh and is supplying the city with 3,400 gasoline lamps in the remote outlying districts, where electric light or gas mains are not constructed. These gasoline lamps are in no wise similar to the ones which the company has in use in Philadelphia and which they propose to introduce in this city.

About eight or nine months ago the Widener and Elkins combination was said to be backing the City Electric Light Company, headed by J. N. Paw, which was then asking the city councils for a franchise. It was stated at that time that the company proposed to compete with the Philadelphia Company for the city contract and to make a bid to supply the city with electric lights. This project, however, was dropped when the Citizens party blocked the ordinance of the City Electric Company and the ordinances of three or four other concerns.

One of the companies refused admission to the city was the Pennsylvania Light, Heat and Power Company of which ex-Mayor Charles E. Geyer of Allegheny is president and which has a plant in operation in Allegheny. The ordinances were passed in common council by the force of public sentiment after the Citizens party managers attempted to defeat them.

They were sent to select council and there referred to the corporations committee of that body, and by it referred to a sub-committee, where they were quietly buried.

The Citizens leaders have never made an effort to take them from the committee but on the contrary are said to have made and agreement with the select council combine to hold them up and thus give the Philadelphia Company a chance to again obtain the city contract without competition.

Under the terms of the new charter the city cannot let the street lighting contract again for four years. The charter limits the contract to one year, as shown in the letting of the garbage contract this year.

Landed Wolf After Ten Months.

William H. Wolf, whom the police allege they have been looking for since last December, was yesterday committed to jail on charges of perjury and bigamy, made by J. Grant Herron of Wylie avenue. It is alleged that on December 5, last, Wolf, although already married, secured a license in this county and married Marie Smith of Allegheny, with whom he lived for some time. At the time the alleged marriage took place Wolf's wife made information against him on a charge of perjury.

The Matter of Correct Gifts for October Brides.

While very many of the departments of this store are filled with suggestive articles—the Picture department, the Jewelry department, the Leather Goods department, the Silverware department and others—it is through the Bric-a-Brac department of the third floor and the China department of the basement, that we wish to take people who are now discussing the engaging, and yet weighty, subject of bridal gifts.

In the Bric-a-Brac department the inexpensive as well as the expensive gift can be found. There are wares there literally from every country on the globe, some of them of barbaric splendor. We do not quote prices, for the simple reason that there is such a broad range. Anyway, this news is simply given out by way of suggestion. In this department there is to be found—

ROCK CRYSTAL,
COLONIAL CRYSTAL,
BOHEMIAN CRYSTAL AND GOLD,
BOHEMIAN ENAMELED CRYSTAL,
CARVED CRYSTAL IN VASES AND TABLE SERVICES,
THE CHOICEST CUTTINGS IN RICH, SPARKLING CUT GLASS; VASES, ALL STYLES OF BOWLS, NAPPIES, PUNCH BOWLS, PUNCH GLASSES, TABLE TUMBLERS, SUGAR AND CREAM SETS, CELERY
TRAYS, CANDLESTICKS, CANDELABRA, ETC.
ART POTTERY IN FINE VIENNA, SEVRES, BONN, DOULTON, CROWN DERBY, LOWESTOFT, CAPI DE MONTE, IN FACT EVERY KNOWN EUROPEAN MAKE.
FINE CLOISONNE IN SILVER,
FINE LIMOGES ENAMEL, HAND PAINTING ON COPPER VASES AND PANELS, RICHEST ENGLISH AND FRENCH CHINA PLATES,
TEAS AND BOUILLONS BY THE DOZEN,
ART PIECES IN FRENCH, GERMAN AND ITALIAN FAIENCE,
ALL THE NEW ART PIECES IN VIENNESE TERRA COTTA FIGURES AND BUSTS,
REAL AND IMITATION VIENNA, FRENCH, GERMAN AND DOMESTIC BRONZES, LAMPS AND LAMP SHADES OF UTMOST EXCLUSIVENESS, AND MANY OTHER CHARMING OBJECTS.

In the Basement China Store perhaps the more practical is to be found in the way of a bridal gift, found in greater variety—such, for instance, as—

CHINA DINNER SETS,
SALAD SETS,
CHOP SETS,
BREAKFAST SETS,
BOUILLON SETS,
SERVICE PLATES,
SALAD PLATES,
DESSERT PLATES,
BREAD AND BUTTER PLATES,
TEA CUPS AND SAUCERS BY THE DOZEN,
CHOP PLATES AND SALADS BY THE SINGLE PIECE,
COMPLETE WINE SERVICES IN FINEST ETCHED BOHEMIAN AND FRENCH CRYSTALS, BANQUET AND COLONIAL READING LAMPS,
AND A HOST OF OTHER SUGGESTIVE ARTICLES.

Besides gifts for the bride, there are also innumerable novelties which will be found admirable for gifts to the bridesmaids, for the groom and his ushers.

Cool Weather Underwear.

Exclusiveness in Dress Materials.

The pride of women is to have a dress, a coat or a hat that no other woman possesses; the pride of this store is in having newest Fall suitings that no other store has. In both cases the aim is exclusiveness. Exclusiveness does not mean costliness. Just now we take pleasure in showing the very latest foreign novelty dress stuffs.

Zibeline-peau de chat,
Zibeline-bearskin,
Zibeline-crystalline.

Here you have three new and exclusive members of the zibeline family which have just arrived from abroad and which are to be found only here. The richest shades—navy, marine, nut brown, medium and oxford gray. Range of prices is:

$1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50 a yd.

New Donegal Tweeds in multi and tri-color mixtures—54 and 56-inch widths—sure to be very popular for the long coat suit. $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 a yard.

Great favorites just now are the Mohairs with printed metallic dots; also the plain color Mohair and Sicilian, 50c, 60c, 75c, $1.00 a yard.

Of Newest Silks and Velvets

Two fabrics that have been hand-in-glove with Fashion since she established for herself a throne. But never more in evidence among well-gowned women than today. Our buyers were forewarned of the polite decree and visited every manufacturing center of silk and velvet that is commercially known with what result we leave to you. We know your verdict will be a favorable one, as our stocks were never more complete nor more tempting to feminine seekers of the beautiful in dress weaves.

Colored Silks—

Among the late arrivals is a foreign silk of new weave called Peau Minerva—so soft that it can be drawn through a finger ring without crushing. It has what is known as kid finish and comes in all the leading Autumn colorings. A most unusual price for such a splendid silk—$1.00 a yard.

Another new member of the silk family is known as Louisine Diamond—named by reason of its brilliance and softness. A leading Fall fabric for Waists and Suits. Both light and dark colorings. $1.65 a yard.

Colored Crepe de Chine—44 inches wide—in pink, blue, white and helio. Every woman knows its many uses. $1.50 a yard.

Fancy Silks—a table full of them; Persian stripes, cannele effects, warp printed designs and many small, neat patterns. Suitable for Waists and Shirtwaist suits. $1.25 and $1.50 qualities for 98c a yard.

Black Silks—

Black Peau de Soie—36 inches wide—a splendid black with soft finish. Much used for Coats and Skirts. A $1.25 grade for 95c a yard.

Fancy Louisines—several styles of small figures. You'll be surprised when you see our $1.25 quality at 88c a yard.

Three Specials in Black Taffetas—

36-inch Black Taffeta—guarantee woven on edge. $1.35 quality at $1.00 a yard.
36-in. Black Taffeta—bright finish; a very popular silk. $1.00 goods at 78c a yard
19-inch Black Taffeta—guarantee woven on edge; either soft or rustle finish. 75c quality at 50c a yard.

The Velvet Family—

Colored Velutinas—a large range of pretty Autumn colorings; 24 inches wide. An interesting special at 85 a yard.

Panne Velvets—gun metal effects which are now so fashionable—$1.00 quality at 75c a yard.

Corduroys—We have a large assortment in all the leading Autumn shades—each year adds to its popularity. $1.00, $1.10 and $1.25 a yard.

Again of New and Stylish Silk Waists.

An article without which no woman's wardrobe is complete. And when your wants in this direction are supplied here you will find you have added a dressy adjunct to your wardrobe. Because, whether you purchase a neat, pretty $5.00 Silk Waist or one of our handsome creations from Paris, you will find it embodies every element of style and service. Here are a few for medium prices:—

For $9.00. Louisine Silk in black only—plain box pleated front, tucked sleeves—collar and cuffs to match. This is what is termed a "tailor" waist.

For $12.50. A more elaborate style. The material is Silk Louisine—made with box pleated front ornamented with lace medallions; tucked back; fancy sleeves and extra pretty cuffs and collar.

For $13.50. Another dressy number in black Louisine. Fashioned after the newest models. The front trimmed in French lace; a graceful sleeve and beautiful new collar.

Solely for Women's Eyes.

Special Sale of Stamped Linen Centers, With Diagram Lesson Sheet and Color-plate Showing Shades and Stitches.

Lately we have been throwing in the way of women some very engaging art needlework bargains, and today we have one that is specially attractive—Stamped Centers of pure linen, along with which go a diagram lesson sheet and a color-plate, so that you may know how to arrange the shades and stitches. It seems to us this is an admirable idea for girls who have just taken up embroidery, as well as for women who know they should have given it some thought long ago.

The diagram is numbered, showing just where to take stitches, and the artist has painted it in such way as to show the shading of the flower, or fruit design, and also to show the exact stitches.

On center table, today, main aisle, there will be some 1,200 pieces ready in various designs, each and all very pretty, and the prices will be as follows:

12-inch Stamped Centers, 10c each.
18-inch Stamped Centers, 18c each,
23-inch Stamped Centers, 30c each.
27-inch Stamped Centers, 45c each.

There are some 50 different arrangements of floral and fruit designs. We miss our judgment if there be one of these 1,200 Center Pieces left at the closing of the store today. Would it not be better to come this morning rather than to trust to the afternoon?

Ladies, See Our $5.00 Hats and Toques.

We want to tell you in all earnestness that a prettier or more refined Hat or Toque was never sold for $5.00. They are not $5.00 Hats, but are Hats that would sell any place for $7.50 and up to $10.00. The large Millinery Room, third floor, has tables laden with Hats in all shapes, in every material, in every notion as to trimming, in every color, and all you will be asked to pay for choice amid this great lot is the small sum of $5.00.

If your ideas run to finer hats, just throw out a hint and we will show you as fine hats as ever graced woman's head—the finest from our own workrooms, the finest from Paris.

If you would like a jaunty and inexpensive Street Hat—say the Golf style or the Promenade style—we have either of those styles for $2.25, worth all of $3.

Now, many women like nothing better than trimming up a hat. Look over our great lines of Untrimmed Scratch Felt Hats in every shape, 50c each, worth all of $1.00.

We want to impress upon the minds of mothers that we are making a specialty this season, as in past seasons, of Trimmed Millinery for Girls—hats that are trimmed in a girlish way, hats that will not make the girl look 10 to 15 years older than she really is. More styles than we could describe, case after case filled with beautiful millinery for the young set, $3.50, $5.00 and by easy range to $18.00.

Another thing that we have always made a specialty of, and that is natty headwear for boys and girls—inexpensive Caps and broad brim Hats in colors to match the clothing—35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and up to finest at $4.75.

Women's New Fall Skirts.

Every time we refer to Women's Separate Skirts we are under the necessity of using the word "new," because a line scarcely gets to that department before each skirt of the line finds a new owner. This is not said to hurry you up to seeing the two new lines mentioned below, still if at any time this morning you are down this way it wouldn't be a bad idea to look at them. We don't recall any skirts this season bearing the stamp of fashion that were quoted at such small figures.

$7.50 New Walking Skirts of Scotch mixtures, all pure wool; gray with hairline stripes of red and blue; seven gores with flare over lap seams; three hip straps; choice is from either habit or pleated back.

$10.00 New Walking Skirts of all-wool Scotch novelty cloth in gray and black mixtures, threaded with fine stripes of blue and red; this skirt has lap seams, kilted bottom, six rows of stitching at bottom, trimming of buttons. The woman who becomes an owner of one of these skirts would not take $15.00 for it.

Some Umbrella Specials.

Are you prepared for the rainy season? It will soon be with us. Umbrella doesn't necessarily mean rainproof by any means, but we handle only such as are guaranteed to keep out the rain. We have every style of Umbrella here from the good low-priced ones to the very finest from London. Below are a few special numbers—

Young Ladies' Umbrellas—intended chiefly for school and every-day use—black with tape edge finished with tassel and complete with case. Natural princess handle. $1.50, $2.00 and $3.00.

Colored Umbrellas—Yes, Fashion has pronounced them correct for Fall use, and Winter as well. The colors are red, blue, green. The materials are taffeta and pure twilled silk. White borders in various designs. $2.00 and $3.00.

Wednesday, September 30, 1903.

We agree with Councilman Stevenson that "if the Citizens party wants to prove that it is sincere and controls select council, it will abolish every one of those rump committees without further delay." We will add that Republican members of council who are sincere will also vote for the abolition of the rump committees. They serve no good purpose and lend themselves to bad use with great facility. This huggermuggering of the public business between the two branches of councils and through two sets of committees is destructive of proper responsibility and in every way injurious to public interests. The community should recognize the fact that the organization of councils is much better calculated to facilitate graft than to aid the transaction of public business. Public opinion should insist not only upon the abolition of the rump committees, but also upon a general overhauling and improvement of councilmanic procedure. The way the franchise tax ordinance is now being manipulated means that the people are to be jollied, but the corporations are to be protected if they behave right.

There are some curious features connected with the trial of former Lieut.-Gov. Tillman of South Carolina, on charge of murdering N. G. Gonzales, editor of the State, on January 15. Mr. Gonzales was unarmed and was shot down by Tillman in the street. There have since been two continuances and a change of venue, showing the promptitude of justice in such matters. The father of the defendant, Col. George D. Tillman, killed a man in a gambling room before the war, and for this served a term in jail. Former Congressman George Johnstone, one of Tillman's counsel, killed a fellow lawyer in the court room in Newberry several years ago, and when tried was acquitted. State Attorney Thurmond killed a young merchant in Saluda some years ago, but was acquitted. At that time Tillman was counsel for Thurmond, assisted by Col. George Craft. Now Thurmond is prosecuting Tillman and has for his chief assistant this same Col. Craft. These facts show how life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness flourish in South Carolina. And there are some critical persons who think that there is something fundamentally wrong with the administration of justice in this country.

The mechanical filtration people have influenced Controller Larkin to adopt a phraseology they would like to introduce, according to which sand filtration is dubbed the English system and mechanical filtration is dubbed the American system, the idea being to enlist patriotic sentiment in favor of alum water. This is all nonsense. There is no national character in any process of filtration. Sand filtration is a method used all over the world. There are no patent devices connected with it, and it is an ordinary work of engineering, as much so as building a reservoir. It happens that mechanical filtration is not much used outside of Russia and the United States, but the only thing American about the method is that it calls for machinery, and there is a large commercial interest in this country engaged in the business of supplying such machinery. There is no such interest attached to the process of sand filtration, the expense of which is almost wholly labor cost. Names that would be truly descriptive of the two systems would be to call sand filtration the natural method and mechanical filtration the chemical method, but the present names by which the two methods go designate them with sufficient accuracy.

To prevent further delay select council was justified in passing without amendment the joint resolution providing for the appointment of the filtration commission to pass upon the recent estimates of the department of public works. Those estimates were really prepared by Mr. Morris Knowles, resident engineer, in charge of the work under the plans prepared by Consulting Engineer Hazen, to carry out the recommendations of the former filtration commission. Director Bigelow directed that the cost of filter covers should be included in the estimates, which, according to Mr. Hazen, is an unnecessary expenditure and was not included in the former estimates. There is really nothing that any commission of experts can say that is not fully covered in the report of the original commission, but the delay in introducing the meter system has completely disarranged the base of the estimates then made, and another expert report appears to be desirable for public information. The experts named are all men of standing in their profession and will speak with authority. The important point is to expedite action, for further delay means that when the matter is taken up again the cost will have again largely increased. Unless councils take prompt action to introduce the meter system a 90,000,000 gallon plant will soon be inadequate.

At the time Controller Larkin and the Citizens members of the finance committee concocted the 14 and 1 mill tax ordinances, and arbitrarily trimmed appropriations to correspond, The Gazette declared that the proceeding was based upon false pretenses and would eventually prove a costly piece of business. This is now practically conceded. For lack of means to attend to the work of suppressing smallpox the disease got out of control and large expenditures became compulsory. The bond issue of $225,000, authorized by councils to meet the deficiency in the bureau of health, is simply one installment of the bill of expense incurred by the Larkin method of economizing. Other items are contained in the ordinances revising salaries and increasing positions in the various city departments. Much more is now put on than was originally trimmed off, and the payroll of the public safety department alone is now $15,540 more than under the previous administration, denounced by the Citizens party as corrupt and extravagant, and the general increase is about $50,000. These ordinances rolling up the expenses of administration beyond all previous limits beautifully illuminate the value of the plank in the recently issued platform which says "the men nominated and elected to administrative offices in three memorable campaigns have proven not only their fitness, but also their determination to have a clean, honest and economical conduct of affairs." After these three memorable campaigns the city administration is costing more and doing less for the people than ever before, and this is the Citizens party idea of "clean, honest and economical conduct."

Will Not Be Controlled.

It may be significant that the Wall Street Journal gives credence to the story that "Wall street" is hostile to the re-election of President Roosevelt. The journal ought to be in pretty close touch with Wall street sentiment. If so, that paper's presentation of the case is not derogatory to Theodore Roosevelt, the president of the United States, or to Theodore Roosevelt, the man. By its statement it is not fear that President Roosevelt will attack capital or vested interests that has created the feeling of hostility, but the absolute certainty that all the power of Wall street cannot control the president for its own ends.

It needed no sage of Wall street to discover that fact. Mr. Roosevelt has been in the public eye for a good many years and it is not of record that he was ever controlled by any interest. As civil service commissioner, police commissioner, assistant secretary of the navy, colonel of Rough Riders, governor of New York, or vice president, he never gave any symptom of being the tool of anybody. His one aim in public place has been to serve the public. His mistakes—and they have not been many—were his own, not those of some one else.

He will not be controlled by organized capital or by organized labor, though he can be counted upon to labor for the best interests of both. Nothing worse could befall "Wall street" than to be able to control the administration and then to have the fact known, because that would be a dire calamity to the country. It would be a misfortune to organized labor to be in a position to dictate to the chief executive of the nation, for such a condition would be followed by disaster. We do not believe that any considerable number of the representatives of organized wealth or of organized labor are opposed to President Roosevelt because of their inability to own or control him. On the contrary, we believe they admire him for his sturdy integrity.

The Man in Second Place.

It is now the Chicago Post that wants to do something for our vice presidents. It appears to be worried about the matter, for it argues at considerable length. Worry, like panic or laughter, is communicable. It is infectious if not contagious. Therefore, it is not surprising to find a lot of newspapers taking up the doleful note and worrying along with our Chicago contemporary because of the status of the vice president in our system of government. But why worry? The nation has grown and prospered. It is large and populous and prosperous and growing more populous and more prosperous every day. It is not probable that it would be any larger or any more prosperous or populous today had the status of the vice president been other than it has been made by the Constitution and, by each incumbent of the office, and it is not likely that the pace would be accelerated by any change. The people seem to be doing first rate, regardless of the status of the vice president, and they are not unwilling to leave to president and vice president the adjustment of their relations with each other, hoping that the adjustment will be amicable, sociable, friendly and even fraternal.

It is a complaint of the Chicago Post that custom and practice shut the vice president out "from participation in the work of the executive department" and, not satisfied with his position as ex-officio president of the senate, it concludes that to fit him for the executive duties, to the exercise of which he may be called, he ought to be also ex-officio a member of the president's cabinet, his voice, advice and judgment as potent as that of any other member of the cabinet. There has been a chorus of approval of this sentiment which we would halt for a moment with the plea that the key notes and the choristers pause and think.

The cabinet of the president is not given to him ready-made. His official advisers are the heads of the great departments of state. They are not elected or selected for the president, but chosen by him, with the advice and consent of the senate on theory, but in general practice by the president in accordance with his own best judgment. The vice president, on the contrary, is associated with him by his party's convention, and may or may not be the man he would have selected for the place, and there is always the possibility that he will be some one that the president would not select for any office within his gift. The members of the cabinet are in the first instance the expressions of the president's wishes in affairs of government, and their respective characters represent his interpretation of, as they are his response to, the demands of the national will. If they do not meet the requirements he has the power and authority to retire them, one and several, and try again. Is it necessary to argue that the entirely different constitutional status of the vice president might cause serious complications were he to be pitchforked into the cabinet councils whether the president liked his presence or whether he objected to it?

The cabinet as an institution is a growth that is recognized by the law rather than a product of it, and membership therein goes by favor, not by right of election. There have been times when the incumbent of the vice presidential office would have been a serious embarrassment in the cabinet, as there have been times when the holder of the office would have been welcome at the council board. It is better, therefore, that the status of the vice president in affairs of government be left as now to the natural processes of adjustment.

Mob Goes Free.

Despite the plea of the presiding justice of the Delaware supreme court, noted in these columns a few days ago, the grand jury ignored the bill charging certain persons with complicity in the crime of burning George White at the stake. It is the old story. The lynching bee may be regretted by the otherwise reputable persons engaged in it, but no one is ever convicted for participation in those acts of illegal vengeance. Upon the rare occasions that persons are indicted the members of the grand jury appear to take the view that the fellow dealt with by the mob deserved his fate; that, at least, he could be better spared by the community than those who hurried him into eternity unshriven, so the return is not a true bill.

It is hardly worth while to moralize further on the case. The belief is prevalent that there are too many loopholes in the law for the escape of the guilty and too much delay in the execution of justice when its course does run true. There is some foundation for this belief. There ought to be an effort to simplify the practice of the courts and to prevent failures of justice. Possibly there should be a readjustment of the bandage upon the lady's eyes. At any rate better results from the courts will be likely to be followed by some diminution in the outbreaks of the mob. For the remainder it is a matter of better education and higher civilization. Mob vengeance is a survival from savagery. It is nearly related to the blood feud. The one is individual vengeance for real or fancied wrong; the other is tribe vengeance upon the individual malefactor. The prevalence of either suggests an imperfect evolution, or a reversion to barbarous types.

The Petroleum Supply.

An advance of three cents a barrel for crude petroleum has renewed the discussion of the exhaustion of the oil fields. An advance in price always did set the oil men to talking upon this subject, though in former times it required an appreciation of a dollar, or at least a half-dollar to get the topic in full swing. But every such discussion was followed by a fear that everybody was going to be drowned in a flood of oil.

The fact is the advance is justified by existing conditions. There is little promising new territory in sight and the production is declining. Further advances may be justified. Some day the last Pennsylvania pool will be developed and will pass to exhaustion. Advances in price, however, operate in two ways. First, they stimulate the search for more production; second, they act to reduce consumption. In one way or the other there is a point at which they will check the drain upon stocks above ground. There are other illuminants almost, if not quite as cheap as petroleum. There are substitutes for gasolene, though they are either not quite as cheap or slightly less convenient. Advancing prices will gradually break down the barriers of difference and overcome conservative inertia. So there will be no oil famine. Even when final exhaustion of the fields is in sight—and that time has not come yet—the change from petroleum products to their substitutes will be gradual and there will be no shock to the social machinery. Just now there may well be another advance or two in the oil market.

Take the Other Road.

At about the close of the Boer war a young English lieutenant fell in love with an Afrikander maiden whom he had met quite often. The region where the young people were had been pacified and they took long horsback rides together. Sometimes their conversation ran upon the war, without bitterness, of course, but the young lady always evinced contempt for the British military—not the bravery of the soldiers, but the methods of the army, particularly the scouting. One day the young officer asked his South African beauty to tell him in what one thing the English was weakest. She replied:

"You always come back the same road."

"What do you mean by that?" asked the officer, and the young woman explained.

"You go out one road looking for the enemy and you come back along the same road into an ambush. We Boers never make that mistake. Every child in this country is taught to never come home by the same road he goes away. Our ancestors, who struggled with the Zulus for possession of the land, learned the lesson that no ambush could be laid if the enemy did not know what road would be traveled. You English have fallen into one trap after another by going out and then taking the same road back to camp."

This bit of wisdom is recalled by the testimony at the coroner's inquest into the death of Contractor Samuel T. Ferguson. It was told that Mr. Ferguson always paid on the same day of the month, always traveled the same road with the money and always arrived at camp at about the same hour. Anyone who chose to observe his habits could have known when and where to lay a trap for him. The honest man had no suspicion of his fellows.

The lesson is for the hundreds of other men who carry large sums of money over country roads or even upon city streets. Method is a good thing in business, but traveling the same path at all times is not. The man who must carry money should have different routes, and whenever possible should have different days or hours. One gets accustomed to carrying money pretty much as one may become accustomed to everything else and there is a tendency to fall into set habits about it. That is dangerous. The Boer plan is better—take a different road. Few criminals have the patience to wait long for the man who does not come. A change of route will be apt to discourage them. The desperate chance wears on the nerves and one day's disappointment may prevent a crime.

Since Dresden, O., has compelled the saloons to take down all screens and thus give passers-by a full view of the bar bibulous citizens, it is said, have taken to wearing false faces and hoisting umbrellas as they line up for refreshments. It would appear, therefore, that there is a public sentiment behind the city fathers which considers dram drinking a bare-faced proceeding, while the feeling of the imbibers of liquor is that it is only properly bare-faced when concealed from public view.

The Post applauds the Maryland Democrats for raising the race issue in that state by declaring for white supremacy, in which connection it is only truth to say that the Republican party stands pat on its record of devotion to the welfare of the human race—at least so much of it as resides within the United States. On a race issue stated in that way the Democratic party will have to go away back.

A journalistic agitation in favor of giving the vice president of the United States a more influential place in affairs of the government has been started by the Chicago Post. It may be remarked, however, that much depends on the vice president. So suppose we wait until we get one.

The circumstance that Milwaukee claims the honor of originating the movement to group the bishoprics of the Protestant Episcopal church in provinces and to change the name of the church is fresh evidence that the town is doing its best to become famous for something else.

Coroner McGeary held an inquest yesterday in the case of a man whose slayer is already serving time in the penitentiary for the deed. "Better late than never," must have been in the coroner's mind as he established the fact that the man was dead.

Lewis Nixon, who gained some valuable political experience when he tried to succeed to Croker's control of Tammany, now wants to gain some more as a Democratic candidate for mayor of New York. Some men never know when they have enough.

It is, of course, over-mastering consciousness of innocence and of the complete justice of his cause that impelled former Lieut.-Gov. Tillman of South Carolina to employ eleven lawyers to defend him against the charge of murder.

Gen. Miles has correctly diagnosed the feelings of the American people when he declares: "They do not want war; they want peace." And he might have added that they are always ready to fight for it.

The city payroll has been raised $50,000, which ought to enable the beneficiaries to contribute generously to the campaign fund. Reform comes high, but we must have it.

Thomas S. Bigelow, Murry A. Verner, Mayor Hays and Harry Moore went down to Harrisburg yesterday to make affidavit that they are the Citizens party.

Lewis Nixon has been out for other things besides the mayoralty of New York. And he is still out.

IN THE EYE OF FAME.

The Rev. Samuel Simpson after spending one year as lecturer at the Hartford Theological seminary, has been elected professor of church history at that institution.

John Hazeltine, known throughout central New York as a philanthropist, has announced plans to take a colony of 1,000 Syracuse people to Montana for the purpose of establishing a town.

Rabbi Glazier, of Des Moines, Ia., is compiling a history of Jews in Iowa. He has succeeded in tracing the first arrival of Jews in that state back to 1872, when a wandering band of Russians entered Iowa City.

It is said that ex-Queen Liliuokalani expects soon to return to Washington, to be present during the extra session of congress, in order to secure payment of her claims for the crown lands and in compensation for her loss by the throne. She is at present paid an annuity by the territory.

England's Responsibility.

And what is the position of England? More than any other nation in Europe except the Turks themselves we are responsible for what is now going on in Macedonia. But for our disastrous interference at the Berlin congress Macedonia would now be as prosperous and free from oppression as Bulgaria has been since her deliverance from the one system of government which is equivalent to desolation. But for us the province would have formed part of the new Bulgaria. At the wrost it might have been administered by Austria with the same success as Bosnia and Herzegovina.—London Chronicle.

CUTTIN' CORN.

Folks may hanker all they keer to
  Fer th' country in th' fall,
They may rave about th' beauty
  Of the autumn leaves an' all;
They may talk about th' glory
  Of th' sunshine an' the haze,
They may gush about th' grandeur
  Of th' gold an' purple days.
But they's just one recollection
  Makes me glad, as sure's your born—
Gee, I'm glad 'at I'm not out there
  Cuttin' corn!

Spanish needles in yer jumper
  An' yer threadbare overalls;
Cockle-burrs as thick as hops that's
  Growin' on th' garden walls;
Dead ol' blades that keeps a-sawin'
  At yer blistered neck an' ears—
I recall it jest as easy,
  Though it's been a heap o' years
Sence I ust t' take my cutter
  An' go growlin' out at morn
To put in a whole long day at Cuttin' corn!

Heap o' things a man don't fancy
  In this city life o' ours,
Where ye've got t' keep a-spurrin'
  At yer mind's an' body's powers;
Sleep don't find yer eyes so easy
  As it did when you was tired
With the long day's tug an' rustle
  That th' farmin' work required.
But ye'll never catch me fretin'
  Ner a-pinin' 'round, forlorn,
While I realize, I'm safe from
  Cuttin' corn!

The Quiet Observer.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

The reason why so few marriages are happy is because young ladies spend their time in making nets, not in making cages.—Swift.

How does that strike you?

And how is it with you, fair one wondering why you are left to linger longer on the perch than you would if you could have things your own way?

Have you spent all your time, or most of it, making nets to trap men in, and have no cages to hold them when caught?

Only too often women lose fine opportunities by not being able to show valuable accomplishments in addition to their physical charms. Practical, useful men— men who are worth while as husbands—are looking for practical, useful women, and will marry no other.

Of what use would you be to a man who has to make his way in life? In what way could you assist him? Or would you be a constant burden, an expensive luxury, a pensioner?

Of what use are you, anyway?

* * * * *

Luxuries are for now and then, not for all times. You know yourself that choicest bits, and daintiest foods, soon pale upon the taste and lose their charms.

So with the dainty lady who poses as a luxury. At first she is just too nice, too sweet, too lovely for anything. And time will tell, sooner or later, that she is too lovely and nice and sweet for anything that is worth while.

She spends her time knitting nets, using cosmetics, ribbons, furbelows, and what-nots to give them an attractive appearance. Thus she catches the eye of the man, and by sundry winsome ways challenges his attention. She may interest him sufficiently to cause him to admire. And were it not that admiration leads to closer scrutiny and this to the discovery of defects, she might capture him right there.

Thus it is that the dainty lady, posing in the middle of a deftly knitted net, has many admirers, among whom are men of worth; but her suitors are men of appearances and not of worth. If she will not be satisfied with the picture of a man she is surely doomed to a ripe old age of single life. She may take one of her kind—a weakling that may be caught in a fragile net, and needs no cage to hold and to keep.

* * * * *

It sometimes happens that a clever knitter succeeds in spreading a net so broad and so inviting that it catches a whole bunch instead of a single man. Thinking to take her own time to look them over she waits, and dallies, and is disappointed, for when it is her sweet will to give them attention the strong ones, the better ones, the ones worth while, are gone—broken loose from the filmy, flimsy, fragile net, and flown in search of something more practical elsewhere.

And yet her net is likely to be well supplied with willing victims for a time, at least, and with these she manages to amuse herself, but ever waiting to capture a king bee.

By and by the net grows dingy, gossamer threads are not restored as fast as broken, and rents become so numerous and so wide that it will not catch, much less entangle any save the weakest of weaklings.

And then it is that the fair net knitter concludes that rather than take no one she will fasten onto a weakling, and chooses the one who has a name as good as a limited amount of gold, and take chances on making a helpful, convenient sort of servant out of him.

Dear Mr. Q. O.: I have just read your column in this morning's Gazette. At first I was somewhat amused by the kissing subject, but it just occurred to me this morning that there is sense in the discussion, and I should like to reply to Sue Berry's letter and give her an opinion, as she seems to be desirous of disinterested advice.

As for the right or wrong of permitting a man friend to kiss one, I should say in her case at least (and I will deal with it only in this letter) it could hardly be brought under that category; it is more of a question of whether it is discreet or otherwise.

If the young man is as nice and agreeable as she says, one can scarcely criticise her for permitting the caress—it is only human—but it is certainly not the most discreet she can do. She evidently would not object to his being a lover or suitor, while he has not given her to think he has any desire along that line. Personally, I should fear he was simply amusing himself at my expense, and would be deterred from permitting the caresses, more from a spirit of womanly pride and caution than from the moral standpoint. He may declare himself, and he may not.

However, Mr. Q. O., I will say to you that the girl who does not allow any personal liberties of a tender sort doesn't have masculine callers. She trudges to the theater, concert, etc., alone or with some other chaste Diana like herself. She may some day have an honorable lover who will metamorphose himself into a husband, but she will not have any of the social attentions that all women like, such as invitations to dances and such like social diversions.

I could go deeper still and attack it on more serious, ethical grounds, but will not take up your time or space. I have only stated what observation and experiences have taught me to be facts.

I hope my few lines may be acceptable to Sue Berry, but I hardly think so; she would prefer to be told she was quite justified in her course: that she was doing the only right and proper thing under the circumstances, and she will keep on doing it, like the majority of girls.

Maybe it is one of the instances which would come under Mr. Hubbard's wise saw: "There is folley in some wisdom, and much wisdom in some folley." LYDIA DAUPHIN.

* * * * *

Thus it does seem that there are some girls left who have practical ideas on kissing. This correspondent is ready to admit that the habit is upon us, and that custom favors it, so that we are not likely to get rid of it soon, if ever.

Well, what are you going to do about it? Stay in the ring and kiss and be kissed, or go away and play by your lone and lonely self?

And then, how are you going to stop it, if it is a great evil? You know how hard it is to reform men and women who have contracted wrong habits. To tell them of their faults will not cure them; nor will they always reform after being convinced of the evil of their ways.

It looks very much as if the only way to suppress this habit will be to teach children that kissing is wrong and train them to avoid the habit as they would the liquor or gambling habits.

The first step in this direction would be to put a stop to the kissing of babies. To this there would be no objection on the part of the babies, which would render the reform fully one-half easier than if the party of the second part were as willing and as anxious as the party of the first part.

The next step in order would be to stop women from kissing each other, for if children should see their mammas, their aunties, their cousins, and other good and proper ladies kissing, they would be encouraged to do likewise. And, as you know, a woman much prefers kissing a man to one of her own sex, the children would soon discover that they were being denied common privileges, and right and just privileges, because if they were not right and just those good people would not indulge in them.

And then—

O well, you know what a lot of social changes would have to be made, and these are awfully hard to make when they go against the grain.

But after all, the most essential thing will be to agitate the question. Once when Wendell Phillips was asked for his little anti-slavery band how to reform that great evil, his reply was: "Agitate, agitate, agitate."

Come, let's agitate the kissing question. What do you say?

The Issues in Kentucky.

The issues to be adjudged and determined in the present gubernatorial contest in Kentucky are as momentous as those of the Declaration of Independence, free speech, freedom of the press, a free ballot, fair elections, an honest judiciary, trial by jury, security of life and property, schools for the people's children, are all at stake. No concern or interest of life, individual, civic or social, but machine rule has directly or indirectly assailed. The people of Kentucky have, under the Beckham regime, witnessed a flagrant turpitude in official life, happily, without parallel in their annals. The bench befouled by partisan appointments and partisan decisions, the bar desecrated by T. C. Campbell methods, juries notoriously packed, lawlessness and violence rampant through scandalous misuse of the pardon power, are part only of the conditions to which machine rule has reduced a fine state and a noble people. It is an odious, atrocius, conscienceless system of misgovernment. It is intolerable.—Louisville Herald.

Talked of in New York

GEORGE C. JENKS.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Reform is a question of experience in most communities. In New York the money consideration is always present regardless of the possible disposition to improve conditions which may or may not prevail in potent quarters. New Yorkers have made up their minds that reform is really desired at this time and that it is wide-spearding in its operations when it operates at all. Gambling is a vice which springs naturally from the soil of a great community. Among its many forms there is none with a greater fascination for a large number of men than that familiarly known as "bucking the tiger." To get an opportunity of wrestling with the animal it is necessary to have the entree to the quiet looking, substantial houses, always models of decorum, where one may risk his hundreds, thousands or tens of thousands of dollars between sunset and sunrise without fear of molestation. It is said there are more than a score of such establishments in full operation at present in spite of the loud asseverations of the police that they have closed all that have dared to open. W. T. Jerome, the district attorney, says that a number of such places are open, and that he has them all down in his little book. He can close them, but he requires $100,000 for expenses. Many New Yorkers doubt whether it would be worth the money.

Devery Preserves His Confidence.

Senator McCarren, a prominent man in New York, who is supposed to know as much about politics as any citizen of this city, remarked calmly today that everyone seems to be at sea over the political situation. It is worse than that. We are all overboard and floundering. The only man who seems able to swim a nice, easy stroke is W. S. Devery, and that is because he never loses confidence in his own boast, that politically you cannot lose him.

Gay Wedding at Grace Church.

Mingled with the roar of Broadway this morning were the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" and the tumultous clanging of the joy bells. There was a wedding in Grace church. This temple of worship is always beautiful on a sunshiny day, but when the ivy-clad walls are a background to all the brilliancy of wedding favors, it is something to make the passing throng stop and admire. The bride today was Miss Marion Jones, second daughter of ex-Senator Jones of Nevada, while the bridegroom was Robert Farquhar, of this city. The hundreds of people who stopped to watch the procession into the church and to listen to the music cared less for the names of the couple than for the general holiday flavor of it all. Somehow, neighbors of Grace church always seem to feel that they have a personal interest in every wedding held there.

Lots of Jewelry, But No Money.

Whether or not there is justification for Bronson Howard's assertion that excessive drinking is on the increase among wealthy women of New York city, certain it is that the police are not accustomed to taking into custody well dressed and evidently refined women. One of this sort was sent to the Toombs today because she could not pay a $5 fine. She wore expensive jewelry and evidently belonged to a respectable family. But she was drunk—woefully drunk—near the entrance to Brooklyn bridge in Park row, and the policeman had to arrest her. Not an uncommon case, but a sad one. The woman said she was a bookkeeper in a large department store in Brooklyn.

Controller Grout Names His Terms.

Controller Grout said today he would accept indorsement of Tammany hall of the fusion nomination for controller if it came unsolicited and without conditions. This may clear the air somewhat. On the other hand it may add to the fog. That the move will be an unpopular one from the point of view of Mayor Low and his supporters there is no doubt. But Mr. Grout is a man of firm convictions and when he has made up his mind to any particular course it is not easy to dislodge him. There is much disturbance in the fusion camp while Tammany hall as a body is wondering whether Murphy knows exactly what he is doing.

The Pump to Be Painted—Perhaps.

It was like W. S. Devery to be the first in the field when it came to making himself an official candidate for the mayoralty. He filed his first installment of 4,000 signatures to his independent petition today, by the hand of his first lieutenant, Edward J. Schneider, who went to the election bureau with them. This was the first day on which certificates could be filed. Devery wanted to be the first to make known his intentions in legal form. He has about 15,000 names already, but expects to have several thousand more before the period has elapsed in which they can be entered. The "pump" will be the heading of one of the columns on the ballot, and it will be the first time a picture of the famous hydrant has ever set off such a paper. Devery intends to have a fine oil painting made of it if he wins the election and will have it hung in the mayor's office during his term.

A Reasonable Assumption.

Justice Marean of the supreme court rules that a man who can afford to live at a first class hotel in New York can pay $250 back alimony. He made the decision in the case of a New York business man who pleaded poverty in answer to his wife's application for assistance in collecting $500 a year for the support and education of their child. The justice remarked that a man living in a $2 a week hall bedroom might be hard up, but not when he could pay the charges in a fashionable hotel.

Contest for Carnegie Medal.

Many New York expert telegraphers have entered for the tournament in Philadelphia on the 30th and 31st of October, under the auspices of the American Telegraphers' Tournament association. A number of prizes are offered for good and fast telegraphing. Among them is the Carnegie medal, with $300 cash, for the best all-around telegraph operator. Although it is many years since Mr. Carnegie sat at a Morse key, he retains his personal interest in that kind of work and if he should be in this country when the tournament takes place it is hoped that he will be there to see the contest for his own medal. He has been invited and the committee are sanguine that he will be there.

An Absurd Question.

A correspondent wants to know if Miss Goelet who is to become the duchess of Roxburghe, is handsome. No woman with $40,000,000 in her own right was ever homely.—Washington Post.

A King in Fact.

It is gratifying to learn that King Edward VII. is taking an active part in the affairs of the British government, especially as he belongs to the new and not the old class of monarchs. These are not the days when kings chop off heads of men and women at their own sweet will, and override parliaments and the people without mercy. It is a sort of balancing observation to add that the heads of kings are safer on their shoulders than they used to be, though the strong tendency of the times everywhere is in the direction of the republican form of government. Edward understands himself, and the conditions which surround him. He is a conservative, non-sensational man, and has given much evidence that he has the real good of his country at heart. He shows no disposition to run to excess, and the civilized world will be glad to see him assert his powers and prerogatives—to see him be a king indeed. If the English people choose to persevere in a mild monarchical form of government, that is their right. Even those under our popular form can admire a king who assumes his proper share of the public burdens, and takes the crown from a position of mere ornament and mendicancy.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

+ + + +

When he came to the throne the Boer war was dragging miserably along. England was isolated. Unsettled and threatening issues were showing everywhere around the horizon and the empire was without allies. By general consent King Edward closed the Boer war and insisted on liberal terms. He forced the settlement of the Irish land question and visited Ireland. He established new relations with France, placated Italy, sore over Abyssinia, gave France a free hand in Morocco and Italy in Tripoli, won Portugal to an arrangement in Africa, one of whose results is the appointment of the king of Portugal as British admiral, weakened the league of Central Europe, and by visits to every leading European power emphasized personal relations which no minister can enjoy.

These public services are frankly appreciated by the English press and by English public opinion. Let any great leader arise, the head of the ministry and the choice of the commons will hold the same place as in the Victorian era; but until then King Edward is able to exert an authority and to wield an influence for whose full equal in a British king we must return to the 18th century.—Philadelphia Press.

+ + + +

With the accession of Edward we find the crown awakening and exercising its admitted prerogative to the limit, but doing it so tactfully and in promotion of such uniformly good ends that, instead of arousing popular alarm, the personal participation of the king in the affairs of government is hailed with popular pleasure. No voice has been raised against it, and it is not likely that a protesting vote would ever get a hearing from the British people. On the surface, of course, the king is merely using the royal influence to effect certain needed reforms in the British government, as it stands, without aiming at any radical changes in its character; but Balfour hopes for complete commercial unity of the empire and Chamberlain openly fights for it—and it would be passing strange if the king himself were not dreaming that under his reign the vast British domain may become an empire in reality as well as in name.—Indianapolis Journal.

+ + + +

At the time of the accession of King Edward to the throne of England many prophecies were made that should he attempt to rule instead of being content with reigning he would imperil the monarchical institutions. These prophecies do not appear to trouble the king in the slightest degree. He has on several occasions displayed an ambition to be more than an ornamental king, and he is now apparently committed to the policy of exerting an active influence in the selection of new members of the cabinet. If the prophets were right, the king is laboring toward the overthrow of the monarchy.

One thing, however, was overlooked in the formulation of the prophecies noted. This is the fact that the king may safely gratify his desire to rule if he keeps on the right side of public opinion. In the present emergency King Edward appeared to be a better interpreter of public opinion than his premier.—Baltimore Herald.

+ + + +

Edward VII. reveals himself in a new and interesting fashion in his dealings with the cabinet crisis in his government. That his assertion of his kingly prerogative to be satisfied with the competency and patriotism of his cabinet ministery should excite surprise is evidence only that his illustrious mother and other sovereigns before her were too content to bear about a puppet crown. The ministers of their reigns determined all serious intents and directed all political movements of the government. The sovereign was needed only to preserve the personality of monarchy and give a perfunctory royal assent to the acts of the cabinet.

But, King Edward, as might have been suspected from his life and sentiments before he came to the throne, is not set up to be that sort of sovereign. He is a man of learning, of full contact with kings and courts, of wide political observation, with fixed ideas of the part he has the right to assume and discharge in the government of the British people. Laying aside all the vagaries of his career as prince of Wales, like Prince Hal, his coronation brought him to his feet every inch a king. A [illegible] upon him as upon Saul and he was "turned into another man."—Atlanta Constitution.

+ + + +

By taking an active share in the reformation of the cabinet King Edward is well within the constitution, but he avails himself of rights which have long lain disused. The crown since it has rested on Edward's head has come step by step to be a factor with which every one in English politics must reckon seriously.—New York Press.

Our Trade With Mexico.

Trade between Mexico and the United States is steadily increasing. Our exports to and imports from Mexico during the fiscal year ended June 30 last amounted in value to nearly $83,000,000; in 1880 our total trade with that country amounted to barely $15,000,000, and in 1870 to about $8,500,000. The period from 1880 to 1903 practically coincides with the reign of General Porfirio Diaz and the progressiveness of his rule is fairly measured by the growth of his country's commerce. Our exports to and imports from Mexico are nearly equal in value, but inasmuch as the valuation of exports does not include the cost of transportation, the earnings of commercial agents and other expenses incidental to business, all of which are added to the price to consumers, and inasmuch as all these additional earnings (which are considerable) go into American pockets, it will be seen that the "balance of trade" with Mexico inclines very much in our favor.—Philadelphia Record.

True to "Dixie."

No wonder the old boys in gray shouted and voted down the Missouri proposition that the Daughters of the Confederacy rewrite the words of "Dixie." The words of "Dixie" cannot be changed with pen and ink. They cannot be changed even by resolution. And if they could it would be a poor venture to change them. There could be no more hopeless exhibition of inane drivel than that which is furnished in the words of our modern song writers.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

FATHER'S DARING ACT MAY CAUSE HIS DEATH

Dashes from Barber Shop to Rescue Two Boys and Loses Both Legs—Son Is Killed.

In a race against a traction car running at high speed and which was bearing down on his 4-year-old son and a companion, who were unconscious of their danger, Martin Kospenski, a Pole of No. 2718 Penn avenue, last evening dashed out of a barber shop near his home to rescue the boys, but was too late. The car reached the boys about the same time as Kospenski, and with his little son the father disappeared under the wheels of the car. The other boy was hurled to one side by the car and rendered unconscious.

When people on the street reached the victims it was found that the boy had been killed outright, having been cut in half across the abdomen. Kopenski's left leg was cut off completely and his right leg was so badly crushed it was necessary to amputate it at the West Penn hospital last night. The other boy was found to have sustained no serious injury after he was revived. About a year ago another son of Kopenski was killed by a street car.

John Shinke, 27 years old, was killed yesterday morning in the Carrie blast furnace yards at Rankin by being run over by a train of hot-metal cars. He was married and lived at No. 425 Third street, Rankin.

Daniel Carroll, 55 years old, married, fell dead at his home, No. 9 Arch street, yesterday morning. Heart disease is thought to have caused death.

The body of an infant about one week old was found in a vault in Homestead last evening. The body was taken to the morgue.

WALCOTT'S STAR AGAIN IN THE ASCENDANCY

Former United States Senator Controlled Colorado Republican Convention.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

DENVER, COL., Sept. 29.—Former United States Senator Edward O. Wolcott won a decisive victory today in the contest before the Republican state central committee between the rival factions in this city and afterward in the state convention.

The committee by 71 to 15, placed the Wolcott delegates on the temporary roll call of the convention, and the convention by a unanimous vote made the temporary roll call permanent. No opportunity was given the anti-Wolcott delegation to make a contest before the convention. Mr. Wolcott was chosen temporary chairman without opposition and in a carefully prepared speech he criticised his opponents in the party and pleaded for harmony.

A strongly worded resolution indorsing President Roosevelt for re-election was unanimously adopted without reference to the committee on resolution. Only one office, that of justice of the supreme court, is to be filled this year, and for this Chief Justice John Campbell was honored with renomination by acclamation.

SAMPLES OF A NEW MINE WILL COME TO PITTSBURGH

BUTTE, MONT., Sept. 29.—A 100-foot ledge of tin ore has been discovered near Lost river, in the Cape York district, north of Cape Nome. One hundred pounds of sample rock will be shipped to Pittsburgh. Details of the discovery, which it is claimed may prove the greatest known anywhere, are given by Joseph Hutchinson, who represents eastern capitalists associated with the American Tin Plate Company.

EARLY CLOSING A RENAISSANCE

Campbell & Williamson Started This Movement 'Way Back in 1871.

History is sometimes strangely at variance with general impressions. While many firms are claiming the credit of inaugurating movements for shorter hours of business the older residents of the city with good memories will quickly place the credit where it belongs.

A notice posted by Campbell's, "The People's Store," on its bulletin boards yesterday was cause for great rejoicing throughout the house. This announcement sets forth the fact that 'way back in 1871, when it was the practice of all general stores to remain open on Saturday nights, Campbell & Williamson caused a sensation by closing their store promptly at 6 p. m. This policy was steadfastly maintained regardless of what other stores did until 1893, when a new movement on the part of competitors, who started to keep their stores open until 11 p. m., compelled the firm, as a measure of self-protection, to lengthen the Saturday hours of business to 9:30 o'clock. It was promised at this time by Campbell that whenever competitors saw fit to shorten the Saturday hours of business "The People's Store" would gladly return to the old system. This promise is now fulfilled and next Saturday night will be the last evening "The People's Store" will be open. The firm congratulates its employes that the time has come when night work, excepting through the strenuous holiday season, is likely to become a thing of the past, so far as Pittsburgh is concerned.

COMPLAINT TO BE FILED BY CHINESE MINISTER

His Brother's Wife and Child Detained by San Francisco Officials.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Sir Cheutung Liang Cheung, Chinese minister, will file a protest against the immigration officials at San Francisco because they refused to admit the wife of Liang Hsun, Chinese consul general at Manila and brother of the minister. Some time ago the Chinese minister requested his brother to come to Washington. The state department was informed of the coming of Liang Hsun and two girls, Miss Wong, companion of the minister's daughter, and another girl who will visit at the legation. When the consul general arrived at San Francisco he was accompanied by these two girls, and his wife, child and maid as well.

Immigration authorities declined to permit Mrs. Liang Hsun and her child and maid to land. Liang Hsun was compelled to leave his family until arrangements were made for the landing, which required some time.

The Chinese minister believes that inasmuch as Liang Hsun is the accredited representative of his government at an insular possession of the United States he should have been permitted to bring in his family without trouble.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.

Long and Severe Fast Begins This Evening When the Sun Goes Down.

The Day of Atonement, the great Jewish fast day, will begin this evening at sunset. From sundown today to sunset tomorrow evening, the Jewish people throughout the world will observe a rigid fast. Neither food nor drink will be taken.

In the synagogues the day is divided into morning, afternoon, memorial and closing services. Among the special features of the morning service is a series of penitential hymns of rare beauty. The afternoon service contains a complete description of the observance of the Day of Atonement in Bible times. The memorial service, which is in many congregations of special solemnity, is held in memory of departed dear ones. It is a most touching and pathetic portion of the modern observance of the Day of Atonement.. Its central theme is a contrast between man's littleness and God's greatness and contrasts man's weakness with God's omnipotence.

In Pittsburgh the Day of Atonement will be observed in all the synagogues with elaborate services and augmented choirs. In the temple of the Reform congregation of Rodeph Shalom the rabbi, the Rev. Dr. J. Leonard Levy, during the service will speak on "The Love That Never Fails," and in the morning he will preach on "The Law of Life."

In the Tree of Life congregation, Rabbi Fried, the officiating minister, will speak in the evening on "Difficult Rowing" and in the morning on "Charity."

CHRISTIAN MISSION WORKERS IN SESSION

The convention of the Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary Society and of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions opened last night in the First Christian church, in Hazelwood avenue. Almost 300 delegates were present. This morning the work of the missionary convention really begins. In the afternoon the Woman's Board will meet. Tomorrow morning the missionary convention will meet again. Thursday afternoon will be given up to the Christian Endeavor work. The convention will close with a praise service and sermon tomorrow evening.

LYNCHERS MUST ANSWER FOR THEIR VICTIM'S DEATH

LYNCHBURG, TENN., Sept. 29.—The coroner's jury has returned a verdict to the effect that Allen Small, who was killed last Thursday night, during a raid on the Moore county jail, was deliberately, maliciously and premeditatedly murdered and 27 men are named in the verdict as guilty of the crime. Fourteen of the mob are under arrest and warrants for others have been issued.

Detective Charged With Embezzlement.

Private Detective J. B. Kirk was yesterday held by Alderman C. F. Anderson for a hearing on a charge of embezzlement made by I. L. Kaufman of Spear & Co., furniture dealers of Penn avenue. Kirk, it is alleged, collected money amounting to $62.00 for the firm and has failed to account for it.

THE DEATH ROLL

Mrs. Mary Hood Witherspoon.

Mrs. Mary Hood Witherspoon, aged 73 years, widow of W. H. Witherspoon of Burgettstown, Pa., died last night at the United Presbyterian home for the aged in Wilkinsburg of pneumonia. Mrs. Witherspoon was born in Murdochsville, Washington county, and lived almost her entire life in Burgettstown. Her husband, a prominent wool dealer, died two years ago. Mrs. Witherspoon is survived by a brother, James Hood; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Fullerton of Frankfort Springs, and a brother-in-law, the Rev. Dr. William Witherspoon of the Fifth United Presbyterian church of Allegheny.

J. R. McKay.

J. R. McKay, president and general manager of the Ashtabula Hide and Leather Company, died yesterday at Ashtabula, O. He was also vice president of the Ashtabula Carriage Bow Company, a director in the Ashtabula Telephone Company, and director of the National Bank of Ashtabula. He was a trustee of the First Congregational church, and the largest individual contributor to the fund for building the new hospital. He leaves a widow and two children.

Remains Taken Home.

The remains of Harry Davis, a tin worker of Martins Ferry, were taken to his late home yesterday. Mr. Davis died at Mercy hospital of typhoid fever Monday night. He was taken ill while working at Waynesburg and sent to the hospital. In the meantime his wife was notified of her husband's illness and she came to Pittsburgh, but on arriving in the city had trouble finding the hospital, and when she finally reached the institution, he was dead.

Funeral of Daniel O. Barr.

Funeral services over the remains of City Assessor Daniel O. Barr will be held tomorrow morning in the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic church in Center avenue at 9 o'clock, when solemn requiem high mass will be offered. The funeral will take place from his late home, No. 442 Amberson avenue, Shadyside, at 8:30 o'clock.

Obituary Notes.

Benjamin G. Brown, for 35 years professor of mathematics at Tuft's college, died yesterday of heart disease at his summer home at Marblehead, Mass.

Henry J. Willing, one of the wealthy pioneer merchants of Chicago, is dead at Jefferson, N. H. Mr. Willing was at one time a partner of Marshall Field in the firm of Field, Leiter & Co.

Mrs. Nancy Thomas, wife of Samuel Thomas of Washington, Pa., died at her residence yesterday. She was formerly Miss Nancy Hill, daughter of the late George Hill of Freeport, Pa.

Charles Murphy, a clothing merchant of Salem, O., died at the home of his father, T. B. Murphy, at East Liverpool, O., yesterday of pneumonia. He was a brother of G. C. Murphy, the pottery manufacturer, and his father is one of the oldest merchants in East Liverpool.

Haden T. Ivory, aged 54, a contractor, of Beech street, East Pittsburgh, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Death was due to pneumonia. He was ill but three days. The deceased was a native of Cambria county and a resident of East Pittsburgh for six years. He leaves a widow and one child.

A SUCCESSFUL DOCTOR

Why does Doctor Tucker succeed where other doctors fail? Why does Doctor Tucker cure a larger percentage of his patients than any other specialist? The reasons are plain to all—1st. He has devoted years of his life to the exclusive study of Chronic Diseases and their cure—2d. Every patient receives Doctor Tucker's personal attention. 3d. Doctor Tucker supplies his patients with medicine, thereby insuring the very best drugs and chemicals, and avoiding the evils of substitution. These, with absolute cleanliness, the use of every new and valuable remedy, caring for no expense which hastens the cure, honest business methods, and fair charges—make Doctor Tucker's office a boon, a haven of relief to all persons whose afflictions come under the head of his specialties.

Doctor Tucker gives special attention to the study and cure of patients by mail. His system of Symptom Blanks, Report Sheets and special combination of remedies, give to the patient at a distance the same advantages they would have if living in the city.

When visiting the Pittsburgh Exposition come and see Doctor Tucker.

MILES DELEGATES GET INJUNCTION

Merry War Between Factions of Women's Auxiliary of Spanish War Veterans.

HARD BATTLE AT ENTRANCE

Mrs. Ball, President of District of Columbia, Badly Hurt and Another Woman Knocked Down—Have Recourse to Court and Judge Befriends Them.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 29.—Refused admission to the annual business meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans on the pretext that they had not the latest password, and then bodily thrown back through the door which was slammed in their faces, the delegates of the Mary Sherman Miles chapter of the Woman's Council today sought in vain to gain admission to the session of the national delegates.

The factions clashed in a fierce personal encounter about noon, when Mrs. Isabel Worral Ball, president of the District of Columbia auxiliary; Mrs. Fannie Parker, a Columbia district officer; Mrs. Harriet L. Scribner, president of the Mrs. Miles auxiliary, and Miss Cornelia Clary, national treasurer general, stepped to the door of the Second Regiment armory and demanded admission.

"Step forward and give the password," challenged Mrs. Flora A. Lewis, president of the National auxiliary, who had taken her station as outside guard. Mrs. Ball whispered "Rough Rider," which has been the password for the current term. Mrs. Lewis smiled sarcastically and declared that the password was stale.

"We demand admission to this meeting," said Mrs. Ball.

"As suspended members you have no right to enter," answered Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. Ball and her fellow delegates edged gradually to the door. There was a jam and the insurgents would have forced the door back had not a dozen of the heaviest delegates stood inside, braced against the door. For a moment the door waved back and forth but finally superior numbers prevailed and the door shut with a bang, catching two of Mrs. Ball's fingers in the crack. Mrs. Scribner was thumped in the chest and keeled over. Mrs. Parker and Miss Clay were badly shaken up.

After the insurgents had been repulsed the half dozen regulars stood with their backs to the door, while the beaten delegates took seats on the stairs and waited for a summons to be called inside which never came.

Inside the convention Mrs. Joseph R. Hawley, the wife of the Connecticut senator, pleaded the cause of the delegates from the Mrs. Miles chapter. Her advice was not taken.

This afternoon the national officers were served with an injunction restraining them from keeping from the meeting the members of the chapter.

SCARANO SAYS HE SHOT AT WIFE FOR A BURGLAR

Woman Is Likely to Die and the Husband Is Locked in Jail for an Investigation.

With a gaping bullet wound in her head and the sight of one eye destroyed, Mrs. Bassilia Scarano lay fighting for life last night at the Homeopathic hospital, while her husband occupied a cell in jail. The husband is charged with shooting his wife and it is now said that in doing so he mistook her for a burglar. The first report was that he had shot her during a fit of jealousy. The shooting occurred at Bruce station on Saturday night and on Monday Scarano brought the woman to the hospital and was placed under arrest shortly afterward.

Yesterday Scarano told through an interpreter that he was awakened Saturday night by some one knocking at the door. He asked who was there, and getting no reply he supposed there was a burglar outside. He shot through the door and the report was echoed by a moan. Upon going out Scarano found his wife. He can give no explanation of the action of his wife, as he declares he knows of no reason why she would be out late. It was his belief that she was in bed.

The woman was conscious when brought to the hospital on Monday and, according to the husband's story, never lost consciousness after getting the bullet in her head. There is a disposition on the part of the police to look upon the shooting as intentional.

TOO NIMBLE FOR OFFICER.

Just as Detective Was About to Arrest E. A. Brown He Disappears.

Finding that an officer was on his track and that he was about to be arrested, E. A. Brown, alias "Logan Cannon," alleged to be wanted in New York for forgery and in Freedom, Pa., for swindling a bank there, hastily left Freedom for Pittsburgh yesterday. It is also alleged that last evening the wife of a Freedom man, at whose home Brown was a frequent visitor, also left in a hurry for this city after she learned Brown had started for Pittsburgh. The police were last evening asked to look out for Brown and arrest him.

For the last seven months Brown is said to have been employed as a laborer in the Conway railroad yards at Freedom. Outside of working hours he was one of the best dressed men in Freedom. It is alleged he also spent considerable money.

When Detective Harry M. Baird of New York arrived at Freedom with a warrant for the arrest of Brown on charges of forgery, the latter, who is alleged to be a clever crook, kept himself informed of the detective's movements, and just when the officer was ready to place Brown under arrest, the latter carried out his design on the Freedom bank. Yesterday he bought a ticket for Pittsburgh and disappeared. Brown is about 20 years old, and is alleged to be wanted for several other offenses besides the ones for which Detective Baird has been running him down.

TO UNIONIZE ALL MILLS.

Amalgamated Association Will Commence a Fresh Series of Endeavors.

Amalgamated association officials will try to recover all mills that have not signed the scale or those that have signed and are violating the agreement. This afternoon a mass meeting will be held in the Pere Marquette hall, at which will be present President Theodore J. Shaffer, Vice President William Gibson and National Organizer John Pierce, to bring into line the strikers and non-union men of the Continental tube works. This mill was union for several years, but this year the management refused to sign the scale and the men struck.

An effort is to be made to regain the Stark rolling mill of Canton, O. This firm signed the scale and because the association would not increase the output limit closed down a month ago. As no change was made in the limit the firm started to run it open.

Renewed efforts are to be made to win the strike at the Port Vue mill. The manager of the plant is reported to have said several months ago that the mill would be started union, but when the time come he refused to sign the scale.

The board of inquiry trying President Shaffer spent yesterday reviewing the testimony offered last week. A decision is expected today.

Night for Local Talent.

Pittsburgh composers are to have their inning at the new exposition tonight, and the two programs arranged offer an abundance of good, interesting music. Mr. Sousa has entered into this work with his characteristic zeal and enthusiasm, and has taken exceeding care with rehearsals.

CREATED OFFICE OF NATIONAL ORGANIZER

M. O'Sullivan, Business Agent of of Local Tinners, Selected for the Position.

Michael O'Sullivan, business agent of Local No. 12, Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' International alliance, has resigned to become national organizer. He will be succeeded by N. S. Glass, now assistant business agent. O'Sullivan is second vice president of the alliance, having been elected at the convention held in Milwaukee last April.

Michael O'Sullivan.

O'Sullivan was instrumntal in forming the Sheet Metal Workers' National alliance, organized in Pittsburgh February 19, 1902. This association embraces the tinners in New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Shortly after the tinners of other cities formed an association. Both affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and prospered until their organizations reached the same city, when they clashed.

The American Federation of Labor was asked to settle the dispute but failed. The trouble was finally settled at the Milwaukee convention by the two unions merging, O'Sullivan being elected second vice president. Since that time the work of the executive board has increased until it has become necessary to create the office of national organizer.

MARTIN IS GAINING.

West Middletown Dynamite Victim Soon to Undergo an Operation.

Charles L. Martin, the bookkeeper of the Ferguson Contracting Company, who was injured in the dynamite explosion near West Middletown on Friday afternoon, will soon be called upon to submit to the operation of setting his fractured limbs. Owing to his nervous condition his injured ankle and elbow were wrapped in bandages and the setting of the bone was necessarily delayed.

Mr. Martin is gaining his strength and at the hospital is frequently visited by his wife. His father is still in the city.

SCARED BY A CAMERA.

McKeesport Man Puts to Flight a Mob of Angry Chinese.

George H. Allen, a buyer of oriental goods for a furniture house in McKeesport, has written to his employer that while in one of the large cities of China he was almost killed by a mob of angry Chinese, but saved himself with a small camera.

Allen was chased by a crowd of Chinese, and when about to be overtaken he wheeled and trained his camera upon the mob. Instantly they took flight, evidently mistaking the camera for a Gatling gun.

EVER GIVE

Your Thinker a Thought?

Funny things happen in this world and now and then some of them make one an interested observer, for instance: Several years ago a man pursued a systematic course of investigation to discover what kind of elements the body would take up from the vegetable kingdom out of which to make gray matter in the brain and nerve centers throughout the body; also how to prepare this food so that it would be easily digested and allow Nature to make use of these elements. So far the proposition was all right. Question—How to bring all this about?

It took over two years' work to solve the problem successfully. After it was solved the food was given to many people and the result watched carefully.

When all results were proven beyond doubt the food was put on the market under the name of Grape-Nuts. Then followed public announcement in the newspapers and magazines that such a food was in existence and that it would perform its intended work.

People all over the world realized the need of such a food and began purchasing it liberally. It attracted so much attention that a long list of imitators sprung up all over the country. They boiled wheat, roasted it, stewed it, chopped it, mixed it with rye, malt, oats, and perhaps hay—we are not sure—gave it a fantastic name and told the public it was a "Brain Food."

Then, from these imitators, came the offering of spoons, knitting needles, chinaware, pictures, doll babies and even pianos to induce people to gorge themselves with the various and sundry things.

Fortunately the most of these imitation foods are harmless and decently clean so that no real harm is done except that people who pay out money to secure a food for special service have a right to expect an equitable return for that money.

Investigation proves that in practically all cases where imitations are put upon the market, the men who place them are untrained and have no knowledge of the real scientific basis of food making. If they did have, they would produce original articles. The very fact that they make imitations is prima facie evidence that they have no professional ability to originate valuable articles themselves, but must get under the eaves of some originator.

Up to the present time no prepared food has appeared, to the knowledge of the writer, that is made upon the solid, fundamental, scientific basis of Grape-Nuts.

In this celebrated food the right parts of the wheat and barley are selected, they pass through various and sundry mechanical processes (absolutely no chemical treatment). In these processes the starchy elements are slowly transformed into a sugar now known as Post Sugar. In this form it is ready for immediate assimilation and transmission to the blood without taxing the digestive organs. By the blood, the elements which Nature uses for rebuilding the soft gray matter in the brain and nerve centers are carried to the respective parts and there made use of, while other elements known as carbohydrates are carried to the muscles and tissues and there deposited and held in readiness for use when energy and warmth are demanded. Remember that simply raising the arm requires the expenditure and giving off of warmth and energy. Now then we must have the elements that supply warmth and energy deposited in these tissues and muscles else we cannot release them and make use of them. These are the missions of Grape-Nuts, and the person who desires to make use of the proper rebuilder of brain and nerve centers, and keep them in first-class working order, and also make use of a supply of warmth and energy, can absolutely rely upon securing this service if they feed regularly on Grape-Nuts.

These are incontrovertible facts demonstrated by actual use by hundreds of thousands of Anglo-Saxons today.

There's a reason and a profound one for the use of Grape-Nuts. The food is already cooked at the factory and can be served instantly with rich cream. It is delicious and can be made into a great variety of toothsome dishes after the recipes found in the recipe book enclosed in each package.

Attention is also invited to another very small but "meaty" little book in each package under the title "The Road to Wellville."

Grape-Nuts food is made at the Pure Food Factory of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., and sold all over the world.

MILK INSPECTOR TO GO AFTER WHOLESALERS

All Milk Brought Into City Will Be Tested for Chemicals by Experts.

The crusade against impure milk is to be directed towards the wholesale dealers. S. P. Adler, meat and milk inspector, said yesterday that he believes this will be the most effective method of fighting, and to make good his assertion he will today prosecute two wholesalers before Alderman J. D. Walker of the East End. The inspector now has three men under him and they are working night and day on milk cases.

Samples are being taken from the milk cans brought to the city every morning, from the surrounding country, on the railroads. Tests made so far of this milk show that it is generally pure. Adler said:

"The trouble is with the wholesale dealers in Pittsburgh. The milk seems to be fairly pure when it is brought here, but is chemically treated after arrival. I have found that the bottle dealers supply good milk because their patrons come from a better class of people."

The cases on hand for today, Adler says, are against the Purity Dairy Company, of No. 963 River avenue, East End, and G. M. Lewis of Broad street and Euclid avenue, East End.

SHED NO TEARS FOR FATE OF ALEXANDER AND DRAGA

Servians in the United States Think Better of the New King.

Servians in the United States are loyal adherents to the throne of King Peter Karageorgevich. There are few tears shed on this side of the Atlantic for King Alexander and Queen Draga, his wife. Alexander was branded by the American subjects as a traitor and the cat'spaw of the Austrian court in its intrigues against the Servian patriots.

The fact that King Peter has safely installed himself upon the throne and that the followers of the old dynasty have been completely ignored by the new regime is said to have no bearing on the popular views of American Servians. The assassination was deplored, but its results are applauded.

Savo Hajdin of McKeesport, president of the Servian Orthodox Society Srbobran, a beneficial organization which is holding its national meeting in Perry hall, Allegheny, yesterday expressed his views of the recent Belgrade coup d'tat. He declared that it was the ambition of the majority of American Servians to become naturalized American citizens. The majority of those in this country come from Austria, but are loyal to their own fatherland across the Balkans.

The future of Servia seems safe, the countrymen think. The powers in their own natural watchfulness will act as sturdy guardians of King Peter's little monarchy. The Turkish and Macedonian troubles are also looked upon as struggles which will promote the unification of Servia.

Around Pittsburgh there are 7,000 Servians, while the number in the state is about 25,000. A new orthodox church will be erected here next year. The report of the financial secretary showed that the increase in membership in the national society was 862 for the year. The society will continue its sessions throughout the week.

POLICE TO BE RIPPED.

Public Safety Official After South Side Officers.

Complete reorganization of the South Side police force is to be started in a few days, according to Director Harry Moore, who yesterday said that the demoralized condition of the force in that section demands that the incompetent officers be removed and their places filled by competent men.

A decision to do some ripping on the South Side is said to be the result of the many officers called before the police trial board and punished recently. Among these officers are Capt. J. N. Fredericks and Lieutenant Thomas J. Morley, both of whom are indefinitely suspended for neglect of duty.

General Fall Opening

THURSDAY. FRIDAY. SATURDAY.

Millinery will be the mainspring of the occasion, but every section will join in the general goodwill and lend its aid and stocks that we make merry with fall.

Millinery

It is the custom to speak with pride of the imported hats in such a collection. We may well be proud of ours—we will show masterpieces chosen out of a multitude of masterpieces. But our own designs will, of course, be in the great majority and shown with perfect confidence side by side with the best of all that comes from London or Berlin, from New York or from Paris.

Fine Furs

Furs picturesque in their exclusiveness, Parisian in their novelty but tuned withal to critical America and practical Pittsburgh.

Cloaks & Suits

Novelty, exclusiveness, refinement in cloaks and suits join with the absolute in style and integrity of fabric, fit and finish and invite most critical inspection and closest comparison. No doubts as to your judgment—we've done well.

ENEMIES STRIVE TO ENLIST LABOR

Roosevelt's Defeat Desired by a Coterie of Wall Street Capitalists.

THEY CANNOT CONTROL HIM

Therefore They Are Working Secretly to Secure His Downfall—Will Resort to Any Means That Promise Results. Slump in Prices Partly Due to Them.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.

The Wall Street Journal of this (Tuesday) morning prints the following double leaded leader on its first page:

It is not because President Roosevelt is antagonistic to capital, or a partner in that hatred of wealth which is so obvious and so threatening that certain financial interests, expert in the manipulation of the markets, are scheming to prevent his election to a second term. They know very well that he is no enemy to capital. They know that by birthright, by education and by long political training he is a supporter of sound money, an advocate of a protective tariff, a firm upholder of the rights of property. They know that he is the last man in the world to lead in an assault on capital lawfully applied to the development of the commercial enterprises of the country. They have no fear that he will be led by ambition or impulse into paths of Socialism, or that he will, for one moment, give the authority of his name and office to the aid of organized labor in any movement to crush out competition, and thus to establish a monopoly more destructive to the interests of the country than even the most corrupt, oppressive and powerful trust.

They Cannot Control Him.

What, then, is the reason why these financial interests are scheming to defeat him? The answer is plain. They cannot control him. All efforts to control him through his ambition have failed. Any attempt to control him by grosser forms of bribery would, of course, be useless. Efforts to move him by sophistical arguments framed by clever corporation lawyers into departure from the paths of duty and law have not succeeded. He is a friend of capital. He is a friend of labor. But he is no slave of either.

Capital, or rather certain powerful representatives of capital, having discovered that they cannot control the president, are therefore now scheming to drive him out of office. They do not proclaim their purpose from the housetops. In fact, they conduct their operations and weave their web of opposition, spider-like, in secret. But nevertheless they cannot entirely conceal what they are doing. A part at least of their deep laid plans are visible to the intelligent observer. Put one and one together, and the result is two, and there are one or two signs not merely of this speculative, manipulative, monopolistic conspiracy to defeat Roosevelt, but even of a purpose to throw the election in this city this fall to Tammany—to defeat Low in order to strike at Roosevelt.

The footprints of the conspirators may also be seen in the speculative markets. It is not fair to ask whether these hostile financial interests, if not actually aiding in the destruction of prices, are at least doing nothing to stop the fall, secretly hoping that every fortune wiped out or impaired, every profit reduced, every mill closed, every mine put on half time, will create new enemies to Roosevelt and make new converts to the platform of his capitalistic enemies, which makes the baseless claim that the break in the progress of prosperity began with his attack on the Northern Securities Company and his advocacy of publicity.

Meanwhile organized labor finds that it cannot control the president. It has discovered in him a friend; but it wants more than that. It wants a slave in the White House—someone there to do its bidding.

It is announced from Oyster Bay that the president will not reverse his action in regard to the Miller case, so far as the principle of free labor is concerned. The announcement was unnecessary. Those who know the president were confident there would be no departure from a principle founded on justice and morality.

What, then, will labor do? Will it join hands with that section of the financial world that is also opposed to Roosevelt because it cannot control him? What a strange spectacle that would be—a union of the monopolistic forces of capital and labor in a movement to crush a president who has refused to submit to their domination and who has dared to enforce the law against them.

Is there any reason to doubt the issue of such a contest? FRANK A. PARKER.

NO MORE LIVES TO SAVE IN ATLANTIC CITY SURF

Last of the Life Guards Will Be Dismissed from Service Today.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 29.—Cars will be running over the trolley line of the Atlantic City & Suburban Traction Company between Atlantic City and Pleasantville by Sunday, October 10, according to officials of the company. Material for the bridge across the thoroughfare is all on the ground and a notice of suspension of travel over the road for three days from next Thursday while the bridge span is being placed in position has been served on drivers and automobilists who use the only connecting link between this city and the outside world. No decision has yet been given by the courts as to the form of crossing to be used in carrying the road over the railroad tracks in Chelsea, but the Suburban officials hope to settle this matter in time to allow of running their cars to the beach as soon as the thoroughfare bridge is put into use.

Lifeguards to Be Discharged.

The life guards still remaining on the force will be discharged tomorrow, as there are too few bathers now to warrant their retention.

Monkey Escapes His Keepers.

A big monkey escaped from the cage on the Steeplechase pier this afternoon and crossed via telephone wires to the Hotel Strand roof, where it defied all efforts to capture it. RIOTERS WRECK MORE PROPERTY

Maddened Woodmen Take Revenge Upon Consolidated Lake Superior Co.

SITUATION STILL VERY SERIOUS

Buildings at Wilde Damaged by Men Who Were Refused Transportation to the Soo—Company Anxiously Awaits Arrival of Militia Reinforcements.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAULT STE MARIE, MICH., Sept. 29.—News reached here late this afternoon of serious rioting yesterday, at Wilde Station on the Algoma Central railroad, about 20 miles from the Canadian Soo, where the Consolidated Lake Superior Company is carrying on extensive timber operations. The rioters numbered 200 men and comprised a train load of the discharged lumber men who were being transported to the Soo.

When the engineer arrived at Wilde he found orders to cut off the engine and leave the men there, running to town with none but the train crew aboard. This order was sent after the outbreak in the city and was designed to prevent fresh accessions to the mob. Left in possession of the cars and the station, the men vented their rage on everything in sght, finally cutting the wires and preventing telegraphic communication. The officials of the road admit considerable damage to property occurred.

After a conference at Wilde the men decided to walk to the Canadian Soo, and late this afternoon they began arriving in squads, dirty, tired and hungry, and mad clear through. Their presence in the city in its present condition is anything but reassuring.

About 9 o'clock this morning the police of the Canadian Soo began placing under arrest all of the leaders of yesterday's riots and within an hour nine of these were behind the bars of the county jail. The leader is Jack Dean. He is not an employe of the Consolidated company. Alfred Beault, one of the men shot yesterday died this afternoon. The other wounded man is in a serious condition.

Mayor Plummer announced tonight that with the arrival of a detachment of the militia tomorrow all unemployed men who have refused to accept offers of work elsewhere, will be forced to leave. Since the attack by the mob on the company's offices yesterday the local militia, reinforced by the police, has guarded the plants of the company, but order has been observed today, and communication between the two Soos, which was ordered stopped last night, was resumed.

There are 500 woodsmen in the camps of the company, but as a measure of protection the company, according to William Coyne, assistant to President Shields, will not allow them to come in until tomorrow, when all of the 300 troops en route, will have arrived.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Sept. 29.—Upon application of the Central Trust Company of New York, holding a mortgage on the property of the Michigan Lake Superior Power Company of Sault Ste. Marie, one of the Clergue properties, for $2,400,000, Judge Wanty, in the United States district court, appointed a receiver of the corporation in the person of Benjamin Franklinthal, Jr., of Easton, Pa.

TEACHERS ARE NEEDED FOR THE PHILIPPINES

Insular Bureau Has Been Able to Fill But 42 of 150 Vacancies.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Positions in the Philippines go begging. Several months ago Col. Edwards, chief of the insular bureau, called upon the civil service commission to certify candidates for 150 teachers' positions paying from $900 to $2,000 per annum. There were few applicants, fewer took the examination and only 42 were eligible for appointment. Another examination will be held in October.

The war department is without a report of Governor Taft's negotiations with Mgr. Guidi, the apostolic delegate to the Philippines. It is believed that Governor Taft will bring a report of the negotiations and recommendations concerning the friar's lands to be presented to the next congress. The war department is in receipt of letters from Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Farley of New York, Archbishop Ireland and other prelates, expressing appreciation of the fair and able treatment of all problems in the Philippines.

WORKED ONE DAY.

Imported Stone Cutters Quit and Sue for Their Tools.

The importation of men to take the place of striking stone cutters resulted in William Morris of the firm of Morris Bros., stone contractors of Allegheny, being sued for larceny by bailee. George Holvers and George Morgan of New York, allege that Charles Laughton, agent for Morris Bros., hired them in New York to come to Pittsburgh, guaranteeing that there was no strike.

When the New Yorkers arrived here they were taken to a boarding house and Morris went security for their board. After working one day they found there was trouble and quit, saying their day's work would pay their board bill. Morris is alleged to have refused to allow them to remove their tools.

F. Kalman, the Croatian banker at McKees Rocks, was given a partial hearing before Alderman William Lang of Allegheny, yesterday. Kalman is under $2,000 bail on a charge of embezzlement brought by four depositors, and until the case is disposed of he was ordered to deposit $1,001.16, the amount which he is alleged to have failed to account for.

TUBE MILLS PLAN
McKEESPORT, PA.
(SOLES FARM)
8TH WARD

Real Estate Holdings in McKeesport—the third largest city in Allegheny County, a city justly called "The Wonder of the Monongahela," can be nothing but a paying investment; but it pays in proportion to your property's closeness to mills and business activity. Quick results and big profits await every man or woman who gets a share of the magnificent Tube Mills Plan.

Don't base profit prospects in McKeesport simply on the building of the new $10,000,000.00 Tube Mills—that improvement is actually under way and the benefit will be beyond your wildest expectations—but McKeesport has a thousand other reasons to make it the choicest investment spot in the whole country. Men whose business is to know can point to where twenty-five million dollars will be spent in that city by mills, railroads, etc., within the next two years.

Tube Mills Plan Exactly Meets Popular Demand

It fits all the requirements of investors and men who will build houses close to business, close to mills and close to everything this prosperous, progressive city can offer.

Lots Actually in the City

Tube Mills Plan is reached by two trolley lines. It has Fifth Avenue frontage, that means it's right alongside McKeesport's busiest and best paved street. Two minutes' walk from the plan brings you to property now selling at $200 and $250 a foot. What think you can be the outcome of an investment in Tube Mills Plan with such surroundings? For years this property has been wished for and hoped for by a score of leading real estate men who knew its splendid and unequaled advantages over any other residence site in the city—The chance is in your grasp today, there'll be hundreds to take advantage of it.

SOME NOMINEES' PAPERS REJECTED

The State Department Refused Places on Ballot to Several Candidates.

DUE TO MISTAKES IN PAPERS

Yesterday Was the Last Day for Filing Nominations—Six Tickets in the Field for the November Election—Philadelphia and Allegheny County Tickets.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
HARRISBURG, PA., Sept. 29.

Papers nominating the Democratic state nominees were filed in the state department today by the Independence party, which is composed of those Philadelphia Democrats opposed to the Donnelly-Ryan leadership. The filing of these papers entitles the new party to a place on the official ballot for its local ticket in Philadelphia.

This was the last day for filing nomination papers for candidates to be voted for at the November elections. Contrary to customs the state department did not remain open until midnight to receive such papers. Secretary Fuller has ruled that hereafter office hours, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. shall be observed in receiving election papers, no matter who they are.

Discovery was made today that Charles R. Jones, chairman of the Prohibition state committee, has made the mistake of signing his name to the nomination papers of A. H. Ressler, Prohibition nominee for congress in the Fourth Philadelphia district. This invalidates paper, although the department may allow a new paper to be substituted.

P. M. Stackhouse presented papers at the department tonight, claiming to be the nominee of the Progressive party for congress at the Fourth Philadelphia district. The papers were rejected because they did not contain the requisite number of signatures. The nomination papers of William W. Lathrope, Prohibition candidate for judge in Wayne county, were also rejected because the Prohibitionists polled enough votes at the last election to entitled them to nominate by certificate and nomination papers would not be received. This leaves the party without a candidate for judge in Wayne.

Six parties have qualified to have a state ticket. They are: Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist Labor, Citizens and Independence. The Citizens ticket will be voted exclusively in Allegheny county and the Independence ticket exclusively in Philadelphia.

WILLIAM MILLER & SONS TO BUILD COURT HOUSE

GREENSBURG, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The board of county commissioners and a representative of William Miller & Sons of Pittsburgh, have been in conference today. G. M. Earnest, president of the board, stated this afternoon that the Pittsburgh firm would begin the erection of the court house, despite the opinion of Judge Doty, which disapproved the contract. Controler J. H. Brown says that Miller & Sons do not have sufficient authorization to build the structure.

HE DETERMINED TO DIE BECAUSE OF BOARD BILL

Because Henry Sheller, a German, threatened to take his own life last night the police of the East End had a long and tiring search to find him. Sheller, who at one time lived on the South Side, had some trouble with his landlady near Silver Lake, and a few days ago he was sued for his board bill. This, it is said, made him despondent, and when he entered the house last night he intended setting fire to the barn and then killing himself.

MEN OF NOTE AT THE INSTALLATION

Dr. Finley, Late of Princeton Takes Charge of College of City of New York.

ADDRESSES BY NOTABLES

Grover Cleveland Gave an Interesting Talk Upon the Democracy of Education, Decrying Any Movement Toward the Weakening of the College.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Dr. John Huston Finley, formerly of the faculty of Princeton university, was today installed as the president of the College of the City of New York, in the presence of a notable gathering. Seventy universities and colleges were represented, and former President Grover Cleveland, Gov. Odell, Senator Depew and Presidents Hadley of Yale, Schurman of Cornell and Butler of Columbia, delivered addresses. A letter from President Roosevelt was also read.

Among those in attendance were: Daniel S. Lamont, former secretary of war; Charles S. Fairchild, former secretary of the treasury, John G. Carlisle, former secretary of the treasury; Gen. S. B. M. Young, Gen. Chaffee, Mayor Seth Low and other city officials; Gov. William H. Hunt of Porto Rico; Charles R. Skinner, state superintendent of public instruction, and Col. Albert L. Mills, superintendent of the West Point military academy.

After the preliminary exercises, which included a prayer by the Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke of Princeton, and the inaugural address by Dr. Finley, Mr. Grover Cleveland said in part:

If we have outgrown the simplicity of our early national life; if with the growth of abnormal enterprises and a mad struggle for wealth, a constant and acute solicitation for the country's weal has been somewhat subordinated; and if, in our social and business life we can see signs of a cleavage that may divide our people into distinct and unsympathetic classes, we should be watchful. If with these things we also discover a movement toward a more general collegiate education, we ought to regard it as another unfavorable symptom, if increasing learning is to be made only a mere ornamental accomplishment to the unwholesome and pitiable ostentation of riches and pride.

It should be the prayer of every patriotic citizen that American education may never be so degraded; that it may always remain true to its mission, a steadying force against all untoward conditions; that higher education as it becomes more accessible and widespread, may reinforce the firmness of our national foundations as they are made to bear the increased weight of our country's healthful development and that in the democracy of education our people may ever be gathered together under the sanction of enlightened and strong American citizenship.

Burglars Operated at McKeesport.

Robbers were active in McKeesport early yesterday. The house of Charles Burke, 234 Windsor street, was entered and $48 in cash carried away, as well as a gold watch, a suit of clothes and a check for $150. The suit of clothes was found later on the street. The robbers also entered the home of W. H. Malsead, 605 Rebecca street, and took considerable plunder. They tried to get into a house at 417 Pacific avenue, but were frightened away.

Employes Arrested for Larceny.

William Rue of No. 1413 Webster avenue and Thomas Coughlin of No. 105 Carson street, South Side, were arrested yesterday morning on charges of larceny, preferred by a large downtown department store. It is alleged that the men each took goods valued at $300. Rue was employed as a porter and Coughlin as a storekeeper. The men are said to have come here four months ago from New York.

FARMERS PETITION COURT FOR MANDAMUS

Want Township Supervisors to Secure Macadam Roads Under New Law.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BEAVER, PA., Sept. 29.—In court this morning a petition was presented asking that a peremptory mandamus be issued compelling the road supervisors of Brighton township to petition the county commissioners for the macadamizing of the Duth ridge, or Terrace road, in that township, under the provisions of the Sproul road law.

The court granted an alternative mandamus, returnable October 5, and makes the case of interest to rural sections throughout the state. The law gives the supervisors the right to make such application to the commissioners, but if they think it unwise to do so, it makes it their duty, upon a petition to them signed by property owners representing a majority of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the township.

EXHIBIT TO BE ELABORATE.

Pennsylvania's Fish Display Will Be Complete in Every Detail.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 29.—State Fish Commissioner Meehan has completed plans for an elaborate exhibit of Pennsylvania fish at the St. Louis exposition. The exhibit will include the fresh water fish of this state, stuffed specimens of mammals, birds and reptiles that prey upon fish life, devices for taking fish and a hatchery in full operation.

The Pennsylvania commission has set aside $10,000 for this exhibit, which will cover 3,500 feet of space in the Pennsylvania building.

CONCILIATORS DISAGREE ON SHORT DAY SATURDAY

Dispute Between Anthracite Operators and Miners May Go to Umpire.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WILKESBARRE, PA., Sept. 29.—The board of conciliation appointed to settle disputes between operators and their employes in the anthracite region resumed its sessions in this city today. The two most important questions before the board remain unsettled, those of a short Saturday work day in the Schuylkill region and the payment of the advance percentage on the gross net earnings.

One of the conciliators intimated that they might be able to compromise on the system of payment on gross or net earnings, but that there was such a difference on the question of a short work day on Saturday that it was almost agreed to submit to the umpire.

Iron Plant Put in Operation.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The rebuilt plant of the Sligo Iron & Steel Company, which was dismantled in Pittsburgh, in order to make room for the Wabash railroad, and moved to Connellsville, turned out its first iron today. The plaintiff asks $40,000 from the defendants for detention in Central police station in connection with the Achsah King murder. The allegations were similar to those in the case against former Superintendent of Police John McAleese.

TRICKS OF TRADE AIRED IN COURT

Dr. A. L. Lewin Alleges Horses Were Changed on Him During the Night.

THE GLAZNER CASE IS FINISHED

Testimony Adduced to Break Down the Story of Intoxication—Byers Case Appealed to Supreme Court—An Editor Sues Pullman Company.

By changing horses in the night, bribing the stable boy to keep his mouth shut and reducing the price of a fine bay team, Charles Richmond, it was alleged, so deceived Dr. A. L. Lewin in a horse trade that he was able to make money and get a valuable horse in exchange for a bad one. The tricks of the horse trading business were thoroughly ventilated in court of common pleas No. 3 yesterday, where Dr. Lewin recovered all he had spent for the team and has the horses still. Attorney Harry Diamond represented Lewin.

Lewin sued Richmond for misrepresentation and fraud in a horse deal. In 1902, the plaintiff claims he visited the Schenley riding academy and saw a team of bays he liked. Richmond was the owner and they couldn't agree on the price. Richmond says he is the dealer who sells all the high class horses to the East End aristocracy. He wanted a big price for the bays and finally took them over to Dr. Lewin's residence on Penn avenue for further inspection. The doctor says he tried them out and found them not wanting in any particular. He increased his offer, but it was not high enough. Finally, it is charged, Richmond agreed to take a certain figure and another horse in exchange for the team, and to deliver it the following morning.

That night, a witness explained, Richmond scoured the town and picked up a bad horse that matched one of the bays. He gave the doctor, it is alleged, one good bay and a bad one for the doctor's money, and the other horse. The doctor on further trial discovered one bay would not work with the other. He found the stableboy, Keil, who had accompanied the owner, and after charging them with fraudulently cheating him, succeeded in getting the boy to acknowledge that his charges were true.

When Richmond learned this, he sent the boy to Lewin, it is charged, to explain that his first story was a lie, and that the doctor had purchased the right team. He refused to carry out the scheme, he says, and was a witness for the doctor. The jury gave the plaintiff a verdict for $300, and he still has the bays.

The Glazner case was concluded before Judge Shafer yesterday, and the papers are with the court. Considerable testimony was taken to break down Glazner's story of intoxication. J. H. Flickenger said Glazner was not drunk when he left his house with Miss Hall. He had not heard them quarrel. Mrs. Flickenger said Glazner was not drunk. He had a pint bottle of beer at the house; she did not know what he had had when he went out during the day. A partly filled bottle of gin was found in a cupboard the next morning. May Flickenger, aged 15, and Maggie Flickenger, aged 12, corroborated this testimony.

County Detective Robinson said that a week ago Glazner told him that Miss Hall shot him and then shot herself. Lieut. W. E. Crehan and Officer Robert Dennison said Glazner was rational the morning after the shooting.

It is not known when the finding of the court will be handed down.

John Jack was found guilty of felonious assault and battery. He is alleged to have beaten the 15-year-old daughter of John H. Messner with a stone and a heavy iron ring in the Messner yard in Elizabeth township. For a time it was feared she would die.

In the case of S. E. Stahl against Joseph H. Rankin, Judge F. H. Collier orders a decree requiring the defendant to pay all money collected by him on the plaintiff's property from January 1, 1896, to January 1, 1902, with the exception of the period between January 25, 1898 and July 10, 1899.

In his finding the court says: "The conveyance to Rankin, the defendant, was made for the purpose of hindering, delaying and defrauding the creditors of said Stahl, the plaintiff."

The court then finds that on July 10, 1899, the defendant reconveyed the property to Stahl, and his wife. Stahl owned considerable property in Braddock and Connellsville and Rankin acted as his agent in the collection of rents and sales. He is allowed to retain from money collected his commission and money paid out for repairs.

The famous equity proceedings of Jacob Byers against W. S. and W. R. Byers and the Fidelity Title and Trust Company was given further impetus yesterday when an appeal from the decree of Judge Elliott Rodgers was taken to the supreme court, and an order of supersedeas on appeal made in common pleas court No. 2, on the petition of the defendants.

In the order of supersedeas the trust company is dropped as a defendant and appointed the depository of the court for the valuables involved.

In accordance with the decree the defendants brought into court 175 bonds of the Mt. Pleasant Coke Company, which have a par value of $175,000, and which repose in box 3655 of the trust company.

The defendants also gave bond to the commonwealth for use of Jacob Byers for $119,000, which is double the amount of the cash in consideration in the matter. William S. Folgar and John W. Allshouse, both of Westmoreland county, become security on the bond.

A bill of complaint was filed in the United States circuit court by the Stirling Company of Chicago, against Henry C. Fownes, William C. Fownes and Edward G. Rust of Pittsburgh, doing business as the Rust Boiler Company of Pittsburgh. It is alleged that the Stirling Company has exclusive rights of a water tube boiler, invented by James Pierpont, and an improvement in a steam boiler invented by John E. Schlieper and the defendants have been using these patents and manufacturing them.

In common pleas court No. 2, before Judge S. A. McClung, the case of Louis W. Reilly, editor of the Pittsburgh Observer, against the Pullman company was on trial and will be given to the jury this morning. The suit results from the ejection of the plaintiff from a Pullman car, while en route from Baltimore to Pittsburgh, and at a time when he supposed reservation had been made for him by the Baltimore agent. The latter, the plaintiff gave $19 for car fare and a Pullman berth. He wanted a lower berth but was informed the agent could not let him have any but an upper. However, the agent advised him he might be able to get a lower on the train. The passenger walked away without being given the Pullman ticket, or $2 change. He boarded the train under the impression that reservation had been made for him, but the Pullman car conductor refused to allow him to ride on the sleeper without a ticket and he was compelled to go on a day coach. The Baltimore agent testified he had a $2 surplus in his cash account on the day in question and the diagram of the sleeping car also showed the reservation for an upper berth.

Indicted by the Grand Jury.

The grand jury yesterday found the following true bills:

Assault and battery with intent, etc., Evan Donatucki; embezzlement, William F. Brown, William Ellsworth Slater, Geo. H. Dumbaugh alias Nate J. Farrand, Joseph Horner; assault and battery, Charles Beckett alias Charles McDonald, Lena Geyer et al., Charles Geyer et al., John Heineman, James Fallon; misdemeanor, Aaron Beane, E. W. Pirates Show Buffalo a Display of Their Playing Speed

PATCHED PIRATES BEAT BUFFALO

Clarke and Leach Were Out of Game, Still the Team Put Up a Clever Display.

PITCHER HARDY WAS BUMPED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BUFFALO, Sept. 29.—Pittsburgh easily defeated the Buffalo team of the Eastern league here today, 9 to 1. The Bisons scored in the first inning and thereafter they were unable to get a man across the rubber. Pittsburgh presented a patched team. Fred Clarke was suffering from a bad leg and he did not wish to take any chances. Leach has a bad finger and it kept him out of the game. Smith played at third and Roaring Bill Kennedy covered left field.

Pittsburgh batted like fiends. Hardy, one of Buffalos best twirlers was sent in and the Pirates pounded him for 16 safe drives. "Kitty" Bransfield led the team in hitting, having four safe ones, while Wagner rapped out two triples. Buffalo scored in the first on McIntyre's three-base hit and Atherson's single.

Singles by Beaumont, Wagner and Bransfield, Hardy's error and Sebring's infield hit gave Pittsburgh two runs in the third. A base on balls to Smith, Wagner's triple, and Bransfield's double gave Pittsburgh two more in the fifth.

Beaumont beat out a bunt in the sixth and Smith made a double to left sending Beau home. Smith was caught stretching the hit. Beaumont's bunt, errors by Carey, Hardy, Nattress, and Atherson. Wagner's second triple and Bransfield's second double amassed a total of four in the eighth. In the preceding inning Hardy struck Wagner out and the crowd went wild. The team left at 8:30 o'clock for Boston. The score:

BOSTON NATIONAL SCARED.

Johnstown Has Big Leaguers Beaten Until Eighth Inning.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Johnstown gave the Boston National league a hard run and had it beaten until the eighth, when an error by Hele gave two runs and the game. Errors by Williams and Kinkead early in the game each gave Boston a run. The center field play of West was sensational. The score:

MARSHALL IN DEMAND.

Boston American, Philadelphia and Brooklyn Nationals Want to Sign Him.

"Bill" Marshall, the big Homestead catcher, will be in one of the big leagues next season. The Boston American league team has opened negotiations with the Des Moines Western league team, where he played last season, for his release. Hughey Duffy, who will manage the Philadelphia Nationals next year, and Ned Hanlon of Brooklyn also wish to secure him. It is very probable that he will be landed by Boston.

Marshall is a former Grove City college player, and for four years caught fine ball at Homestead. He went to Des Moines last spring and worked behind the bat and in right field. He hit over the .350 mark and was considered one of the best backstops in the league. He is now playing with Risher's team.

BOUND FOR BOSTON.

President Dreyfuss Leads a Delegation of Pirate Rooters.

At 6 o'clock last night a delegation of Pittsburgh business men, headed by President Dreyfuss of the local club, left for Boston to witness the opening games of the world's championship series. The party numbered over a dozen and the majority were going to the Hub prepared to back the Pittsburgh team.

There has been very little betting done here on the opening series and those who have money to wager are looking for odds at the rate of $100 to $60. It is claimed by the local admirers of the Pirates that the Boston team has the advantage of playing on the home grounds, which is the reason for demanding odds.

PITTSBURGH AMATEURS DEFEATED BY HOMESTEAD

Steel Workers Again Show Superiority Over Rivals—Some Hard Batting.

The Pittsburgh Amateurs, who had entered a bid for the championship of Western Pennsylvania, saw the last hopes they had of getting the title go glimmering when they were disposed of in a double header yesterday afternoon at Friendship park by Homestead, holder of the title. In the first game the steel workers fell on Diebold and chased him off the rubber in the sixth inning. Dick Taylor went on the slab and the beating he received was fearful to behold. Yoedt was then called upon to finish the slaughter.

Alex Pearson pitched a steady game and the last three runs were given the Amateurs when he let down in his work. Pearson also made the longest and hardest hits ever seen on the field. He sent the leather over the left field fence on a line, the ball hitting the roof of a church and continuing on its course to Liberty avenue. Tate also hit over the left field fence for a home run. The final score was 14 to 4.

The Amateurs trotted out Bill Campbell and Sam Brown, the Birmingham Southern league pair, as a battery for the second game. Osborne was sent on the rubber by Risher. The latter pitched a fine game, as did Campbell, but neither was accorded the best of support due to darkness. The second game was late in being started and darkness was approaching before four innings had been played. In the sixth Homestead wanted to quit, but the umpire refused to call the game. At 6:20, when it was so dark that the infield could not see the ball delivered by the pitcher, Capt. Edmundson threw the ball over the fence, whereupon the umpire called off the game. P. A. C. had a man on second at the time, he getting there because Torreyson could not see McChesney's throw. A new ball was thrown on the field, and Edmundson picked it up and threw it as far as he was able. Before Edmundson threw the ball the spectators along the bleachers began to make light by igniting paper and score cards.

The second game was the more interesting to the spectators and again showed the superiority of Homestead over its opponents. P. A. C. scored in the first inning on McCloskey's error of Glover's grounder, Lobert's sacrifice and Nichol's hit. Glover tallying. McChesney singled for Homestead, took second on Mucker's error and home on McCloskey's drive to right. Glover doubled and scored on Lobert's single in the fifth. McCloskey and Torreyson singled in the sixth and scored on Mucker's drop of McLaughlin's throw. Tate hit the middle field fence for three sacks in the ninth and tallied on Cosgrove's fly to Glover. The scores:

THE WOMEN GOLFERS STRIVE FOR SUPREMACY

Mrs. Caleb Fox Had High Honors—Mrs. Elliot Rodgers in the Tourney.

CHICAGO GOLF CLUB, WHEATON, ILL., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Caleb Fox of the Huntingdon Valley Golf club carried off the honors in the qualifying round for the national women's golf tournament over the Wheaton course today, taking but 94 strokes for the 18 holes, or six strokes less than the women's bogey.

Of the 56 starters only 4 succeeded in getting under the 100 mark, and as high as 120 qualified for the real struggle for the championship honors which begins tomorrow. Western women are in a large majority, but nearly all of the easterners who qualified turned in comparatively low medal scores, and the contest east and west promises to be an interesting one.

A strong west wind sprung up about noon and brought disaster to many players in negotiating the wind pond guarding the ninth and tenth greens. Conditions otherwise were very favorable, the course proving to be in perfect condition. The pairing probably will result in bringing together Miss Bessie Anthony, the western champion, and Mrs. Caleb Fox in the second round tomorrow afternoon, and this match will, it is expected, attract much attention.

Mrs. Elliott Rodgers of the Edgeworth club was the only Western Pennsylvania golfer to play today and her scores were 64-55-119. In the pairings for tomorrow Mrs. Rodgers meets Miss Louise Wells.

CRIMSON TEAM'S WORK.

Harvard Eleven Gives Encouraging Practice.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Harvard practice picked up a good deal today, and the men gave promise of running up a good score against Bowdoin tomorrow in the crimson's first mid-week game of the season. In the practice today the 'varsity scored but one touchdown.

The most encouraging work of the season, however, was done today. Dan Hurley did splendid work. Phil Mills played at fullback on the 'varsity for the first time and did some good line plunging.

FAST AUTO WORK.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 29.—Barney Oldfield reeled off some fast miles at the Glenville track today. He went to try out the new 4½-inch tires which were lately affixed to his auto, and after a few warming-up miles he reeled off five laps in 4:58 4-5, an average of 59 9.25 seconds per mile. His time for each mile was: First mile, 1:0 2-5; second, 1:00; third, :59; fourth, :59; fifth, :58 2-5.

In a later trial Oldfield traveled five miles in 4:49 2-5. The world's record is 4:54. Time by miles: :58, :58, :58, :57 2-5, :58.

Homestead and Millvale Today.

Lew. Moren, the pitching find of the season, will be on the rubber for Millvale this afternoon against Homestead at Millvale. Farmer Brown, the old minor leaguer, will oppose him for Risher's crew and the argument will be worth looking at. This is the fourth game between these clubs. The series now stands two to one in favor of the steel town champions, and the fifth game, if one is necessary, will likely be played late this week or early next week.

Barnstormers Select Their Team.

"Soldier" Mullin's crowd of minor leaguers who are to do some barnstorming stunts, will begin Friday with Homestead at Steel Works park. Mullin has relinquished the management of the team to "Hiney" Youngman, who managed the Dayton club. The team will play as follows Friday: Sam Brown, catcher; Mullin and Pastorius, pitcher; Marshall, first; Hatfield, second; Hays, third; Cargo, short; Harry Tate, left; "Bill" Campbell, middle, and pitcher alternating in right field.

School Teams Played Tie Game.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 29.—The New Castle High school played a tie game yesterday afternoon with the Slippery Rock State Normal school team, at the latter's place, the contest ending 5 to 5. Oram Fulton, right halfback of the High school, had the ligaments of his left leg terribly torn, and it is not likely that he will be able to play this season.

Well-Known Driver Badly Injured.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—C. E. Campbell of Portsmouth, one of the best-known race horse drivers of Ohio, was probably fatally injured on the Huntington race course this afternoon, while driving Brown Joe. His horse was in the lead and was just finishing when it fell and Campbell had several bones broken. He was unconscious for hours, and may die.

Kenna and Patton to Race.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Joseph Kenna and Claude Patton, local sprinters, have been matched to meet in three races at 125 yards each, Thursday afternoon at the Pulaski fair. Patton recently defeated Kenna in a 100-yard dash here for $150 a side.

WORLD'S RECORD IS ESTABLISHED

Fastest Three Heats Ever Trotted by Two-Year-Old Created by Alta Axworthy.

WINS HORSE REVIEW PURSE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, Sept. 29.—The Ohio stake of $5,000, three heats of one mile each, for trotters of the 2:09 class, was carded as the feature of the second day at the Oakley park grand circuit meeting, but it proved a disappointment. Billy Buch was withdrawn a short while before the first heat because of lameness. This left Caspian the choice of the bunch. He won the first two heats and the third went to Hawthorne. The finishes were not close, neither were they exciting. Walnut Hall was on his bad behavior, breaking in each heat, otherwise there might have been a different tale to tell.

The Horse Review purse of $3,000 for 2-year-old trotters went to Alta Axworthy after she had dropped the first heat to Grace Bond. It was the best race of the day and resulted in the establishment of a new world's record for the fastest three heats ever trotted by a 2-year-old.

Count Gimes, after breaking badly in the first and third heats, managed to take the 2:08 pace. The 2:30 trot was merely a workout for Bessie Brown. Irish Elder upset calculations by taking the 2:19 pace in two heats, though he got the second by a narrow margin.

Major Delmar goes tomorrow against the world's trotting record of 2:00 flat. Wind shields will be barred, it is understood. Summaries:

Wilkinsburg Horses Will Speed.

Wilkinsburg will be well represented at the Whitehall matinee races on Thursday. The residents and their horses to take part are: Frank Straw's "Billy T," George Lonabaugh's "Annie B," Robert Shaw's "L. Marie," and George Fornof's "Belle L." Next week Mr. Straw and Mr. Lonabaugh will race their horses at Burgettstown and Clinton, thus winding up the season. A number of the sporting fraternity of Wilkinsburg will accompany them.

STEWARDS ARE LOOKING INTO PECULIAR RACING

Trinity Bell's Victory Brought John A. Drake Small Fortune and Race Looks Queer.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—As a result of John A. Drake's Trinity Belle's sudden improvement in form, in the last race yesterday at Morris park, the stewards today took up the sheets of the bookmakers and are investigating the race. Drake was reported to have won a fortune, backing the mare down from 20 to 1 to 7 to 1.

The Fairview selling stakes for 3-year-olds, the feature of the card today, was won by Embarrassment. Rosland made the running over the hill, with Embarrassment second. Straightened out for the run home, O'Neil sent Embarrassment to the front and won easily by two lengths. One favorite won. Summaries:

First race, September selling hurdle race, 1¾ miles over seven hurdles—Amur, 158, Mara, 5 to 1 and 8 to 5, won; McGrathiana Prince, 153, Pending, 20 to 1 and 7 to 1, second; Draughtsman, 153, G. Wilson, 25 to 1 and 8 to 1, third. Time, 3:17¼.

MISS VESTA TILLEY POPULAR AT YOUNGSTOWN

The Famous London Music Hall Artist Makes a Successful American Debut.

[From a Staff Correspondent.]
[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 29.—Miss Vesta Tilley, the now-famous London music hall artist, made her American debut in this city tonight under the management of Liebler & Co. at the opera house and scored heavily in a three-act farce, supported by an excellent company. Miss Tilley has not been in America for five years, her last tour being in vaudeville. The new medium in which she is presented is a somewhat conventional farce of the familiar French type. Its adapters have made it more English than American and have located it in a London hotel.

Miss Letty Taylor, daughter of an English actor, goes up to London disguised as a man in order to discover the habits of a young man, Lord Barrington, for whom she has conceived a sudden passion. The complications that follow involve the old story of a number of persons going to dine at a cafe and engaging the same room. The play is farcical without being striking or original.

Miss Tilley in the first act is in the garb of her sex, but in the second is masquerading as Algy, from whom the play takes its name. She is accompanied by her maid, who is dressed as a man and who is also following a lover.

In the third act Miss Tilley introduces her specialties, and each distinct impersonation was a perfect work of art. Though all the characters impersonated are English and therefore more or less unfamiliar to American people, the work was so perfectly done that applause was instantaneous and enthusiastic. Miss Tilley's work is in the strength and is refined and artistic. Liebler & Co. have provided a strong cast, including M. A. Kennedy, who is fine as a deaf doctor. Edward Abeles shares honors with the star in his portrayal of a female role in the second act, that of a manicurist. Walter Thomas, Julie Dean, Janette Ford and Charles Stanley scored individual successes.

PLUMBERS THREATEN STRIKE.

Want Fifty Cents a Day Advance, and Employers Will Not Grant It.

Local No. 27, United Journeymen of Plumbers and Plumbers' Helpers, met last night in the Building Trades council hall, No. 225 Fourth avenue, and decided to strike tomorrow if the employers do not sign the scale prepared about two months ago.

A committee of the master plumbers and the workmen met to bring about a settlement. The employers asked that the scale expire December 31, instead of September 30, and the workmen agreed to this, providing they were given the advance of 50 cents a day. This the master plumbers refused to do. The master plumbers met last Saturday and agreed to most of the conditions asked by the workmen and prepared an ultimatum. This did not contain the 50 cents a day advance and at the meeting last night the workmen decided not to accept it.

PIE PUMPKINS SENT TO AMERICANS IN INDIA

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The Anglo-American club of Gonda, Northwestern India, proposes to have pumpkin pie on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Duffield Waterford, wife of the governor of Gonda, who is visiting in this city, was delegated by the American members of the club to buy half a carload of pumpkins here and have them shipped to Gonda. She placed the order with a Fifth avenue fruiterer today to attend to with all haste.

TWO MINUTE TROTTERS ARE LIKELY TO MEET

Lou Dillon Will Go After Gold Cup and Owner Billings Hopes to Meet Major Delmar.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Lou Dillon, queen of the trotters, and Major Delmar, her two-minute rival are sure to meet in a world's record mile race at Memphis October 21.

C. K. Billings, the owner of Lou Dillon, declared today that he would drive the wonderful California mare in the contest for the gold cup, and that if E. E. Smathers, owner of Major Delmar, adhered to his intention of driving his steed in this contest, the long sought for meeting would take place.

This is Mr. Billings' position on the subject: "I will race Lou Dillon for the gold cup provided Mr. Smathers trots Major Delmar. However, if Mr. Smathers does not send the Major for the cup I will be content to drive The Monk (2:05¾) or some other horse in my string. If Lou Dillon does not start in this contest I will send her against the world's mile record that day, no matter at what figure The Monk stands at that time."

Next week at Lexington, Lou Dillon will make another try for the record.

LAUGHREY'S FINE WORK.

Broke 95 Out of 100 Blue Rocks at the Traps.

LIGONIER, PA., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The second day's shoot of the Ligonier Gun club took place today, and was marked by excellent work. The first day of the shoot was last Tuesday, and the last day will be next Tuesday. The feature of today's work was the shooting of Laughrey, who did not participate last Tuesday and who today broke 95 out of 100 targets. The others scored as follows:

LINE RUSH IS TOO HARD FOR M'IVEY

McDonald McIvey, Jr., of 2620 Mifflin street, was hurt in a football game yesterday afternoon at Aspinwall. In a rush he went down. His nose was broken and his forehead laid open so badly that several stitches were necessary to close the gash. McIvey is 16 years old.

VIOLENT PROTEST AGAINST CZAR'S VISIT TO AUSTRIA

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

VIENNA, Sept. 29.—A meeting of 2,000 Socialists was held tonight to protest against the visit of the czar of Russia. Addresses of the most violent character were made. One speaker remarked:

"The czar, whose only instruments of cultivation are the gallows, the prison and Siberia, comes like a thief, affected by the stigma of his crimes, between a cordon of troops."

A resolution denouncing the czar's visit as an offense to Russia's liberal population, was not allowed to be passed by the official representative.

The meeting broke up with shouts of "Down with the czar!"

Millvale Barber Will Find Things Mixed Up

People who call themselves "his friends" have arranged to make the homecoming of Joseph Normen, a barber of North avenue, Millvale, who is at present on his wedding journey, an event. Yesterday his shop and rooms were invaded and everything turned topsy turvey. Rice was scattered about and big signs wishing the couple all sorts of blessings, were posted on the outside of the building. The barber pole was draped with crepe, bearing a large death card, which informed the public that "The Barber is Dead in Love."

YALE TALENT SCORES.

Small Number of Candidates Answered Second Call.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Capt. Rafferty issued a second general call today for candidates for the Yale football eleven, and only about 40 men reported. Usually double that number are out. The 'varsity scored two touchdowns in a 20-minute half, Rafferty scoring one by a muff by Donahue. Kinney, in tackle back, pounded his way to another.

SOCIETY

WITH candles burning in quaint old glass candlesticks, which did duty at the wedding 50 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins last evening celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Beside the candles lay an old-fashioned brass snuffer unearthed from its resting place in the attic and brightened up to grace the gay scene in company with the sticks. Mrs. Hopkins received her guests in a modish gown of black voile, while in a room on the second floor hung her gloves and white wedding gown, with its short full skirt. Assisting the old couple were their two daughters, Mrs. H. H. McKee and Mrs. W. N. Kelley; their three grand-daughters, Miss Gladys McKee, Miss Ruth Hopkins and Miss Olive Kelley, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Hopkins. Mrs. McKee appeared in white organdie; a silver gray poplin formed Mrs. Kelley's gown and blue crepe de chene that of Miss Kelley. The two little grand-daughters waited on their grandparents in dainty frocks of white.

Among the numerous gifts which Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins received were two vases of roses, one vase containing 50 American Beauties and the other an equal number of exquisite yellow blooms. In a neat frame were five pictures taken by a niece, Mrs. G. C. Hartman, who has just returned from her second trip abroad. Four of the pictures are scenes from Ireland, one of them being "Tobergill," the old Taggart home in County Antrim, Ireland, while in the center is a view of the old Taggart homestead in Irwin avenue, where the celebration was held last evening. Mrs. Hopkins was Miss Sara Taggart.

The hospitable old colonial home was daintily decorated in honor of the occasion. In the double parlors the mantels were banked. The table was covered with a handsome Battenberg lace over yellow, the chandeliers being covered with golden shades. A huge centerpiece was of yellow roses. The same color scheme was carried out in the rooms on the second floor, where the chandeliers were covered with the green and gold. Asparagus fern entered into the decorations, while there were smaller vases of roses. A pleasing feature of the entertainment were the sweet strains from an orchestra occupying the smaller rooms of the house.

Miss Sarah A. Taggart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Taggart, and John Hopkins were quietly married September 29, 1853, at the bride's home, where the anniversary was celebrated yesterday. Of the few guests who were witnesses of the first wedding nine were present at the celebration: John C. Porter, Miss Mary Lockhart, Mrs. George Allison, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth McAlister, John Taggart, Joseph Taggart, Robert Taggart and Mrs. Jane Brown, now the occupant of the homestead. Of the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins four are now living, D. P. Hopkins, J. A. Hopkins and the two daughters who received with their parents. The grandchildren, Dr. John H. Kelley, W. N. Kelley, Miss Olive Kelley, Miss Gladys McKee and Miss Ruth Hopkins, were all present.

Miller—Hodgdon.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the early fall was that of Miss Rachel S. Miller and William C. Hodgdon, which took place last evening. The bride wore an exquisite gown of crepe de chine with a demi-train. Her veil was caught with a cluster of lilies of the valley and fastened with a diamond pin, her brother's wedding gift. A shower of lilies of the valley, tied with chiffon, was carried, while a pearl pin, Mr. Hodgdon's wedding gift, was fastened at her throat. Miss Katherine Reisfar, the maid of honor, wore a lace gown and carried roses and maidenhair ferns. The two maids, Miss Jane Moorehead and Miss Gertrude Miller, carried roses and wore thin white dresses, with sashes of green. The best man was Harry Koerner, the two ushers being Guy Anderson and Clarence Morrow. John Clayton Miller, a brother, gave away the bride, and an uncle, the Rev. Joseph Lyons Miller, rector of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church, Philadelphia, read the marriage service at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgdon left for the east last night, and after November 1 will receive their friends in Black street, where they will live with the mother of the bride, Mrs. Sarah Clayton Miller, the widow of Major Charles H. Miller, who served on Gen. Custer's staff. Several out-of-town guests were present, among whom were Miss Miller and Miss Elizabeth Miller, aunts of the bride, from Philadelphia, who are being entertained at the Miller home during the wedding festivities. Green and white were the predominating colors. The wedding party stood before a mass of palms and ferns, the greens also being used in the mantel decorations. White roses served effectively to relieve the green, while white asters formed the centerpiece on the bride's table. A quantity of asparagus fern was used in the doorways and on the chandeliers.

Dunn—Seeberger.

St. Agnes' Roman Catholic church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mayme Dunn and John Seeberger last evening. The hour was 5:30 o'clock, the Rev. Father McHugh officiating. Miss Katherine Dunn attended her sister as maid of honor, Miss Cora Dunn, another sister, Miss Charlotte Schneider of Allegheny and Miss Stella Braun acting as maids. The best man was James O'Donnell and the ushers Edward Scully and Edward Smith. About 200 guests were in attendance at the church, but at the reception and supper which followed at the bride's home in Meyran avenue the guests were limited to the members of the two families. The bridal gown was of white swiss, lace trimmed. A hat of lace and plumes was worn. Lilies of the valley and rosebuds forming the bouquets. White swiss formed the gowns of the attendants, white hats being worn by all, a touch of pink appearing in that of the maid of honor. After a wedding trip Mr. Seeberger and his bride will make their home in Meyran avenue with the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunn. Palms were used for the church decorations, a variety of the plants being placed in and about the chancel. Pink and white roses carried out the color scheme at the house. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Mediary of New York, Mrs. Sinclair and son of Wellsburg, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. George Seeberger of Wheeling, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and William Schneider of New York.

McGinness—Sutter.

Miss Edna Belle McGinness and Louis Edward Sutter were married last evening in the presence of about 400 guests. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. I. Wishart in the Eighth United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, at 7:30 o'clock. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McGinness of Perrysville avenue. Her father gave her away. Miss Maud McGinness, a sister, was maid of honor, the bride's two cousins, Miss Lillie McGinness and Miss Mary Neely acting as maids. Taking his place in the bridal train as best man was Howard Sweeney, and the ushers were Wilson McGinness, John Ford, Samuel Burns, Dr. Wray Barclay, Joseph E. McGinness and William Sutter. The bride wore a gown of white lace with a long tulle veil, caught and fastened with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss McGinness, the maid of honor, appeared in an effective gown of white batiste and carried white roses and maidenhair fern. Batiste also formed the gowns of the maids. White asters and asparagus were used for their bouquets. The decorations at the home, where a reception was held after the ceremony, were carried out with roses, asters and ferns. The church was simply decorated. Upon their return from their wedding trip the newly-wedded couple will go to housekeeping in Perrysville avenue.

Newmyer—Porter.

Miss Agnes Hunter Newmyer of Wilkinsburg and Carl A. Porter were quietly married Monday night at the home of the bride's mother. Guests were limited to the relatives and intimate friends. The Rev. M. M. Hunter, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, officiated. The bride was given away by her brother, George M. Newmyer. She wore a gown of white liberty silk and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. There were no bridal attendants. Mr. Porter's best man was Boyd Witherspoon, and a dinner and reception followed the ceremony, the couple leaving on a night train for Washington state, where the groom is engaged in business and where they will make their home. Mr. Porter formerly lived in New Wilmington, Pa., and is a graduate of Westminster college, class of 1900.

Woodside—Daub.

The wedding of Miss Maud Woodside and Theodore G. Daub took place last evening. The Rev. Dr. George, of the Reformed Presbyterian Theological seminary, performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woodside, of Elgin avenue. August and John Daub, cousins of the bridegroom, and Thomas M. Woodside acted as ushers and were the only attendants. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chene, with pearl trimmings. A cluster of roses formed the bouquet. The wedding colors were green and white, roses and palms being employed in decorating. About 75 guests were in attendance. The ceremony was followed by a supper and informal reception. Mr. and Mrs. Daub are to make a trip through the east. On their return they will take possession of Mr. Daub's home in Lang avenue.

Wedding Day Set.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Boothe of Murray Hill avenue, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emily Boothe, and Harry Howard Rankin of Shadyside, on October 8. Owing to the recent death of Mr. Rankin's mother, only the relatives and intimate friends of the young couple will be present.

Shellenberger—Cunningham.

George W. Cunningham, who is connected with the Pittsburgh Railways Company, and Miss Bernice C. Shellenberger of Pittsburgh were quietly married at the Christian church parsonage in Steubenville at noon yesterday. The Rev. Herbert Meninger performed the ceremony.

Pittsburghers Engage Passage.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Philpotts of Pittsburgh are among those who have engaged passage on the White Star liner Teutonic, which sails for Liverpool tomorrow morning.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

EFFORTS to secure more system in preparation and a stronger financial basis are the outcome of the third year's work of the joint committee of Women's clubs. The annual meeting of the committee was held yesterday afternoon in the Twentieth Century club house and the reports of the work of the summer playgrounds and vacation schools in Pittsburgh and Allegheny were presented. The election of officers preceded the general meeting, resulting in the following: Miss Bulah Kennard, general chairman; Miss Eliza D. Armstrong, vice chairman for the South Side; Mrs. J. J. Covert, vice chairman for Pittsburgh, and Mrs. John Cowley, vice chairman for Allegheny; Miss Annie D. Bradley, secretary, and Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon, treasurer.

In the report of the general chairman Miss Kennard presented several suggestions and plans for the coming year, among them being the appointment of a finance committee, consisting of a member from each of the women's clubs represented in the joint committee which shall formulate a plan to present to the committee at a general meeting to be held about the first of January. Work for the playgrounds and schools will be started earlier than usual this year, and an effort will be made to secure more grounds than before and engage more teachers for the different departments of industrial work which will be taken up as well as teachers and caretakers in the playgrounds.

Miss Louise G. Taylor.

The treasurer, Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon, in her report stated the total amount paid for salaries and supplies for the Pittsburgh schools and playgrounds and for the toys and industrial supplies for Allegheny playgrounds was $6,556 84; the total receipts from all sources, including the appropriation of $3,000 by the Pittsburgh central board of education, were $6,486 76, leaving $70 08 still to be raised. The salaries of the teachers this year were slightly in excess of last year, amounting this season to $4,851 and last year to $4,743. Allegheny this year paid out about $850 for the care and maintenance of its playgrounds.

Among the most interesting reports was that presented by the able supervisor, Miss Louise G. Taylor, who in her experience in the vacation schools, covering the entire period they have been in operation in Pittsburgh, including the two years when one school was conducted in the Franklin school building, has been able to observe and understand the needs and requirements of the children in the schools from an educational standpoint.

The committees appointed yesterday by Miss Kennard are:

Finance committee—Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon, chairman; Mrs. Charles Biggs, Avalon King's Daughters; Mrs. Arthur Vining Davis, Colloquium club; Mrs. Albert Blumberg, Columbian Council of Jewish Women; Mrs. Charles S. Eaton, Epoch club; Mrs. C. Latimer, Free Kindergarten association; Mrs. Thomas Steen, [illegible]tten club; Mrs. J. J. Covert, Lawrenceville New Century club; Mrs. Robert Lynch, New Era club; Mrs. Henry J. Bailey, Sorosis; Mrs. John Cowley, Summer Work club; Mrs. George R. Ewart, Tourist; Mrs. Omar Scott Decker, Twentieth Century club; Mrs. William J. Askin, Wimodausis; Mrs. G. H. Alexander, Woman's club of Ben Avon; Mrs. W. N. Burt, Woman's club of Edgewood; Mrs. Robert Card, Woman's club of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Frederick Boyles, Woman's club of Sewickley; Miss Edna A. Smith, Woman's club of Wilkinsburg; Mrs. Milo Miller, Woman's Library club of Knoxville; Mrs. John W. Shearer, Women's Press club; Mrs. Minerva Phillips, Woman's Suffrage club.

Printing committee—Mrs. Henry B. Birch, chairman; Miss M. E. Stevenson, Miss E. D. Armstrong, Mrs. Charles C. Taylor and Miss Mary Weidman.

South Side Recreation park committee—Mrs. Samuel Miller, chairman; Mrs. Robert Lynch, Mrs. Albert Longmore, Mrs. Rufus Martin and Mrs. M. Elverson.

Committee to make arrangement for the mid-winter meeting—Mrs. William Marcum, chairman; Mrs. Henry L. Bartin, Mrs. John Cowley, Mrs. Samuel S. Miller, Mrs. Charles R. Wray, Mrs. A. V. Holmes, Mrs. J. J. Covert, Miss Eliza D. Armstrong, Mrs. Andrew Easton and Mrs. Otto Wuth.

Registration Days.

The last of the three registration days was observed yesterday at the Central Young Women's Christian association in Fifth street. Over 100 new names were added to the lists already prepared, and classes and departments are ready for the opening of the fall term, tomorrow. Last evening was registration night at the Lawrenceville branch in Forteith street, while tomorrow evening well be registration night at the South Side branch.

The noon Bible class will be opened on Friday with Miss Charlotte Adams in charge, and will be conducted throughout the fall and winter. The increase of applicants in the domestic department has necessitated the engagement of a third assistant, Miss Alexandrine Heckner, a graduate of the Pratt institute, who will assist Miss Laura Bradt, the director of that department. Several new classes are ready to be formed, a large number of applications having been received for studies not regularly placed in the curriculum. The course in housekeeping under the direction of Miss Cornelia I. Trimble, has met with a good deal of enthusiasm and a thorough training will be given in cooking, laundering, waitress course, marketing, matrons' sewing and management of the house in general.

WORKMEN ARE AT ODDS.

Rules to Be Adopted to Avoid Trouble Between Masons and Bricklayers.

Despite the arbitration of the dispute between the local stone masons and the bricklayers, which resulted in the stone masons affiliating with the bricklayers' organization, there is clashing. The bricklayers claim the work of putting in sills and similar work where it would delay the progress of the building to wait until a stone mason can be brought to do the work, and the stone masons claim the right to back any stone with brick when a bricklayer cannot be secured immediately. A committee has been appointed representing the stone masons' locals and the bricklayers' unions. This committee will determine what work shall be done by either craft. Failing to agree, an umpire is to be appointed to make a final decision. The committee will meet Friday night.

PERSONALS

Mayor John Weaver of Philadelphia, accompanied by his wife and Edward Martin, director of charity, also accompanied by his wife, passed through the city last night on the Pennsylvania limited. Mayor Weaver said: "We are on our way to Chicago to attend the banquet to be held Thursday evening to mark the final event in connection with the celebration of the centennial of that city. All mayors and prominent men throughout the country have been invited to attend by Mayor Carter Harrison. Judging from reports, the banquet will be one of the greatest ever held in that city." When asked for his opinion of the writings of Steffins, which are appearing in a magazine, bringing to light the corruption of cities, his only answer was a smile.

J. K. Graham, who has been transferred from the office of manager of the Keystone plant of the American Bridge Company in Fifty-first street, this city, to the management of the Edgemoor plant of the same company, was tendered a farewell reception by the employes of the Keystone plant last Monday evening. Mr. Graham's career at the Keystone plant began 17 years ago. Hard work and ability brought him up step by step, until, about three years ago he was appointed manager. J. K. Lyons, assistant division engineer, on behalf of the employes, presented to Manager Graham a beautiful silver coffee set and a chest containing an elegant silver table service.

Robert Edmunds of Canton arrived at the Lincoln last night. He said: "The strike at the Stark rolling mill promises some interesting features. The firm will have to fight the business men as well as the workmen. There are 178 men thrown idle, and the business men, in order to keep the plant union and the men in Canton, are arranging to find them employment until the trouble is settled."

Some of the New Carpetings

Exclusive Things that Come to us from the world's best weavers.

The self-colored effects in small, neat designs are again prominent in the fall designs—and they are always the embodiment of good taste in furnishment—

Other conspicuous designs are the Oriental effects copies of famous rugs in Wilton and Brussels—very rich and beautiful—and always in keeping with modern ideas of decoration.

Among the strictly new things is a carpet that in design and coloring is especially adapted to the popular "Dutch room," with its heavy furnishment and dark woodwork.

A Stock of Wide Range

The stock of high grade carpetings was never more complete—The range of designs and colorings is such that no matter what your special need may be you are almost certain to find it satisfied here—The showing includes:

A MUCH BETTER TONE IN THE STOCK MARKET

Pennsylvania Regained Its Loss and the Steel Issues Made Strong Rallies—Some Improvement on the Pittsburgh Board.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was a decided change in the tone of the stock market yesterday and after some display of weakness at the opening, with a few new low records established, the whole list became strong. The recoveries ranged from 1 to 4 per cent, and closing prices were at the highest of the day. The volume of transactions was also well maintained, the total sales slightly exceeding 900,000 shares. The impression in the street was that the large interests came to the support of the market to avert further demoralization, and as soon as this impression gained foothold the unwieldly short interest began to cover, which materially aided the rally.

Another factor which contributed to the better feeling was the absence of any failures on the stock exchange, proving that the rumors of the night before of dire things to happen had no real foundation. The explanation of the rumormongers was that the individuals and firms which were said to be seriously embarrassed had been taken care of at the last minute. The thing that was plainly in evidence a half hour after the opening was the abatement of selling pressure, and the uneasiness of the shorts.

London was a seller on balance, and the quotations sent over before the opening here showed another new low record for consols, which broke to 87, and irregular prices for American securities. Pennsylvania was notably strong in the foreign market and the Steel issues were all higher. The initial quotations on this side showed irregular changes, but in the majority of instances prices were higher. United States Steel common at 14⅛ and the preferred at 58¾ represented new low records, while the sinking fund 5s declined to 68½, but there was a quick recovery, and in the late dealings the common advanced to 16⅜, the preferred to 61¾, the latter a net rise of 3 per cent, and the bonds advanced to 70¼. Pennsylvania opened 1 per cent higher at 116¾, droped to 115½, and then large buying orders turned the market. From that time to the close of the day this stock was the leader of the railroad group. It recovered all the loss of the day before, selling at 119, and closed at 118¾ bid.

About 1 o'clock when the rally was in full swing and the market displaying a healthy tone, a curious rumor gained currency. It was stated that President Cassatt had resigned as the head of the Pennsylvania railroad. The rumor was widely circulated, and curiously enough, even before the prompt and official denial which followed, the market continued to gain strength. This was evidently based not upon any reflection on the executive ability of the head of the great system, but upon the idea, aparently, that such action meant an end to the warfare that is popularly supposed to be waging between large financial interests in the street. For some time past Wall street has found time between the breaks in the market to discuss the probable attitude of the Rockefeller-Gould interests toward the Morgan-Cassatt interests, and also the attitude of both these and other interests toward the present national administration at Washington. In the absence of any slump in business at all commensurate with the slump in market values there has been a growing impression that under the surface there is special cause for the prolonged weakness, and there has been much theorizing as to the exact nature of this cause. It has been felt that no decided and permanent change in market conditions would take place until the real basis of the shrinkage in values and the continued forced liquidation was disclosed and fully recognized by the public. This feeling is still entertained, and there was a lack of confidence in the stability of the rally which occurred yesterday.

There was very little influential news in circulation, the general market turning upon the improvement in Pennsylvania and the Steel issues. Time money was firm in New York, but call loan rates remained unchanged at 2½@3 per cent. It will not cause any surprise if the governors of the Bank of England advance the minimum rate of discount tomorrow, although the policy of the bank in raising its price for the purchase of gold in the open market may serve the same purpose as an advance in the discount rate.

In Pittsburgh there was an increase in the volume of dealings and the business was better distributed than for some time past. Brokers have been discouraging sales except where they were absolutely imperative, and the result has been that the trading was confined to a comparatively small number of stocks. Yesterday the buying power was a little stronger and hence there was an increase in the number and amount of the transactions.

The strongest rally was in Crucible Steel preferred, which has borne the brunt of the recent liquidation. The stock made a new low record in the early dealings by selling down to 54¾, but it soon recovered the loss, and late in the session became strong, advancing to and closing at 57½, a net gain of 2¼ per cent. The common stock also sold lower than ever before, touching 6⅝, but it recovered to 7 and closed strong at 7¼ bid. United States Steel common did not get below 15⅛ on the local board and rallied to 16⅛, closing at that price bid. The preferred declined to 58¾, but rallied to and closed at 61¼.

Pittsburgh Coal was well supported, and when this fact became apparent there was a cessation of the selling pressure. The common dvanced to and closed at 25¼, and the preferred advanced 3 per cent to 73, closing at 73⅛ bid. River Coal common was a fraction lower in the bid price, closing at 10@10½. The preferred was offered at 34½.

Manufacturers Light & Heat was well supported, and on sales of a little less than 1,500 shares advanced to and closed at 30⅜ bid. Ohio Fuel Supply sold at 39 and 39½ and closed at 39¼ bid. Philadelphia Company declined to 36¼, but recovered to 37⅝. Harbison-Walker common rallied to 4¾, and the Fire Proofing and Brewing stocks were firmer and fractionally higher. Westinghouse Electric after selling at 68¾, rallied to and closed at 70¼ sales and bid. Airbrake declined to 131 and recovered to 132½ bid at the close, the transactions being light.

There was a little more doing in the bank and trust company group, but the only changes of note were an advance of a point to 190 bid for Commonwealth Trust, and a decline of 5 points to 189 for Guarantee Title & Trust. The market closed with a better feeling all around.

PITTSBURGH STOCKS.

Transactions on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday aggregated 13,150 shares stock and $5,000 bonds. Sales:

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The rise in some of the local specialties yesterday suggested the existence of a short interest. As a precaution brokers sometimes sell stocks short against the possibility that some of their customers will be unable to respond to calls for additional margins and that when they are finally forced to sell the market will be below the margin account. It is not known that there has been any such precautions taken during the past two weeks, but the ease with which some stocks advanced after the turn came suggested buying to cover.

"I think the bucket shops are largely responsible for the present market conditions," remarked a prominent member of the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday. "The bucket shop has in a way educated the public to the idea of trading upon slender margins. A bucket shop will accept trade on one, two, or five-dollar margin. It is manifestly to its advantage to do so, because it is comparatively easy to manipulate fluctuations to that extent, and it makes the process of 'wiping out' a customer much easier. There is an enormous amount of trading in bucket shops, and the facilities for buying stocks on a shoe string have multiplied the number of persons who want to trade legitimately on narrow margin. When such traders go to a broker who buys the actual certificates and carries the same subject to actual delivery, he is asked a margin of 10 points on the ordinary run of stocks and more on inactive securities. The buyer protests that the bucket shop does business on less than half the rates demanded, and through the sheer force of the competition he is induced to accept business on a margin that can only be safe in extremely favorable financial weather. The effect has been that the public has bought 200 shares of stock on the same margin that should have been applied to 100 shares. The result has been overspeculation and the lodgment of stocks in weak hands, necessitating forced liquidation and declining values. The experience through which we have been passing will prove a good lesson for both broker and customer. It will be money saved for both if they do less business and have the protection of wider margins in the future."

A dispatch from London said: Consols touched 87 at noon today, the lowest point since 1866, and then hardened somewhat. The whole feeling on the stock exchange was one of extreme depression and nervousness. No disposition was shown to support prices and whenever stocks were offered the quotation was immediately lowered against the seller. Americans showed a further decline, in sympathy with yesterday's movement in New York, the position of United States Steel issues being given as the dominating influence.

The feature of the early trading was buying of 10,000 Pennsylvania by Lansburgh Brothers. This was understood on all sides to be for Kuhn, Loeb & Company. There is the strongest presumptive evidence that a bankers' combination supported prices, as it did a week ago when the market was threatened with demoralization.

The City Deposit bank has declared a quarterly dividend of 3 per cent, payable today.

The Monongahela Water Company has declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable October 10 to stock of record October 1.

The First National bank of Pittsburgh has declared a quarterly dividend of 4 per cent, payable October 1.

The Commonwealth Trust Company of Pittsburgh has declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent.

The Lincoln National bank of Pittsburgh has declared a regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent and an extra dividend of 1½ per cent, payable October 1.

In a special bulletin issued by Stoney on "The Real Situation" in Pittsburgh, a Jones & Laughlin Steel Company official is quoted as follows: "The iron and steel business has shown a material improvement within the last two or three weeks, and indeed, orders are coming in much better than was expected. All of our mills and plants are operating. In going over our books we find that the business is above the average of the past 10 years, although not up to the average of the past two years, a condition which we did not expect and which should not be expected by any person because of the fact that the past two years were periods of abnormal activity, due to special causes, and activity of such a character as was expected to continue by no person in the iron and steel business. The evil reports sent out by Wall street regarding the steel business have been entirely unfounded, and instead of the trade going to the dogs, as they state, the business promises to grow materially better within the next two or three months. This applies particularly to the manufacture of steel and steel products, as the iron trade branch shows the effect of overproduction in the early part of the year, and the importation of nearly 1,000,000 tons of foreign iron last fall during the freight congestion when it was impossible to get American iron to keep the mills fully employed. In view of the fact that the country absorbed 1,000,000 tons of foreign iron and steel, mostly iron, and that the trade continues in such a satisfactory condition, shows the healthy condition of the United States and demonstrates its great consuming power."

The Reading statement for August shows a surplus over all charges of $865,000 against a deficit of $525,000 for the same month last year.

A correspondent at Montreal writes: "Measured alone by the magnitude of the capital involved, the collapse of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company and the troubled maneuverings of the Dominion Iron & Steel Company, are events sufficient to strike apprehension into the minds of Canadians as to the real position at this moment of the iron industry in Canada. The difficulties experienced by these large corporations in obtaining bank loans may have curious results. In the future they may not be able to exist at all unless they possess a working capital easily sufficient to make them independent of banking accommodation. As security they frequently have nothing to offer except their own bonds, or the bonds or stocks of purchased companies. Unless an applicant of this class enjoys the highest credit and has a well-tried record, bankers are not always willing to advance large sums to him. Most of the Canadian banks kept themselves rigidly aloof from the underwriting business when it was in its heyday; now that rates of remuneration and terms of security are more satisfactory it is probable that some of them are participating moderately the underwriting of the best railroad loans in New York. It is not thought here that any of the Canadian banks are entangled with the Soo concern; but a couple of them have large loans to the Dominion Companies."

The net earnings of Southern Railway for August increased $113,000.

The August statement of Chesapeake & Ohio shows an increase of 41 per cent in gross earnings and an increase of 63 per cent in net.

The Dollar Savings Fund & Trust Company of Allegheny has issued a comparative statement of condition on November 29, 1902; August 29, 1903, and September 29, 1903. Within the ten months' period the increase in deposits was $1,082,037.

At the regular meeting of the directors of the Home Trust Company yesterday, J. Alexander Hardy of the Hardy & Hayes Jewelry Company and John L. Porter, president of the Union Storage Company, were elected directors of the Home Trust Company. These gentlemen, already well-known men of affairs of Pittsburgh, will, no doubt, add to the strength of that rising institution.

The Bellefield Company has declared a dividend of $2 a share, payable October 15.

"There is one thing which holders of the steel issues, who have paid for their stock outright, should remember at the present time, and that is, that the continued weakness in the steel issues, is due, not to any falling off in the earnings of the company, but to the fact that people interested in the company have allowed themselves to become entangled in its securities. This is an important distinction. If the earnings of the Steel Corporation fell off heavily there would be a real depreciation in the value of its securities. Then the decline in the steel issues would be to a large extent warranted. The recent decline in the steel issues, however, has only to a very small extent been due to any falling off in earnings. What has happened is this: Certain very prominent capitalists have allowed their resources to become so tangled up that commission houses have been forced to sell them out. Blocks of the steel issues, ranging between 20,000 and 50,000 shares, have been dumped on the market for whatever prices they would bring. The dumping on the market of these huge blocks of the steel issues has naturally caused a serious break in their prices, but it has in no way affected their intrinsic value."—New York Commercial.

THE MONEY MARKET.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Money, 3½@4 per cent; the rate for short bills, 4@4¼ per cent; three months' bills, 4@4¼ per cent; consols for money, 87¾; consols for account, November, 87⅝. Money was in active request and scarce today, the market being entirely dependent on the Bank of England, which has been charging one-half per cent above the bank rate for advances. Discounts were firm. Operators on the stock exchange were gloomy and waiting for the outcome of the settlement, though the feeling of anxiety was somewhat allayed.

BERLIN, Sept. 29.—Prices on the bourse today were adversely affected by yesterday's New York and London quotations.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Business on the bourse today opened feeble. Rio Tintos had a strong reaction, losing 18 francs and unfavorably influenced the American list. Later there was a calmer tendency. Internationals lost ground.

CHANGE OF SENTIMENT IN WALL STREET MARKET

Despite Apparent Bear Arguments Stocks Recover Substantially.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.

Unattended by any change in fundamental conditions or by any new developments of importance bearing upon the situation, the stock market underwent a complete reversal of form yesterday. In fact, the very substantial recoveries of the day were accomplished in the face of market features similar in character to those which have heretofore been cited by some persons to explain declines. That such developments really had very little to do with the recent liquidation, or that, if so, their force for ill is now diminished, was shown; that in the face of new low records for British consols in London and steel stocks in New York, and on the tightening of the corner in cotton, all stocks rallied. For most persons it was difficult to understand why the reported resignation of Mr. Cassatt from the Pennsylvania railroad should be viewed as a bull argument on that stock. But it finally developed that he was supposed to have surrendered control to the Standard Oil party and that signified the termination of the Pennsylvania-Gould contest. The theory that the market's difficulties grew out of the Gould-Pennsylvania controversy has long since been abandoned by anyone with a grain of common sense. Support extended to the Pennsylvania shares also appeared in the United States Steel. There was aggressive buying. Sentiment of a speculative sort was also helped by the assertion that the steel corporation was buying in its common stock at the present low prices. This report, so long afloat, was very persistent yesterday. When Mr. Morgan's attention was called to the rumor he emphatically denied it.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices, but turned firmer and more active as the session progressed on cables from Brazil reporting unfavorably upon the growing crops. The French market also turned firmer toward its close, and while Brazilian receipts were somewhat fuller, sentiment here seemed bullish and speculation on the long side is apparently increasing; the spot market also shows some improvement and this encouraged purchasers of futures. The market closed steady net 5@10 points higher. Sales were 44,500 bags, including November at 4.55@4.65c; December, 4.80@4.90c; January at 5.00c; March at 5.10@5.20c; May at 5.25@5.35c; July at 5.35@5.45c. Sugar—Raw firm; fair refining, 3⅛c; centrifugal 96 test, 3 29-32c; molasses sugar, 3 3-32c; refined firm; crushed, 5.50c; powdered, 5.00c; granulated, 4.90c.

MOVEMENTS IN TRADE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The treasury department today redeemed 5 per cent bonds to the amount $1,480,000 and received for refunding $231,600 3 per cent bonds and $189,900 4 per cent bonds.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A regular quarterly dividend of of 1½ per cent of the Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company has been declared. The books close October 5. The dividend is payable October 20.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—National bank notes received today for redemption, $543,053; government receipts from internal revenue, $542,132; customs, $909,270; miscellaneous, $31,307; expenditures, $1,155,000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Consolidated stock exchange firm of Taylor & Mandeville suspended today. Failure of customers to meet their margins in yesterday's sharp break is believed to account for the failure.

OXFORD, N. J., Sept. 29.—The Empire Steel & Iron Company of this place and the Basic Company of Buttsville have posted notices notifying the employes of a reduction of 10 per cent on their wages October 1. The employes will hold a meeting to protest against the reduction.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Sept. 29.—It has just transpired that on Thursday last Charles S. Mellen, president of the Northern Pacific, tendered his resignation as president, and it was accepted. It is now announced that on October 31 he will assume the presidency of the New York & New Haven railroad.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A second protective committee of income bondholders in Mexican Central was formed today at the meeting held in the office of J. H. Warner. Gen. B. F. Tracy and the representatives of a number of trust companies and banks are on the committee which seeks to get a better offer than that of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., for the conversion of the bonds.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The last payment of $25,000 has been made on the Livingston mine at Boulder, Col., which now becomes the property of Athica, N. Y., parties.

The average recovery of gold by cyanide work in the Black hills is conceded to be approximately 80 per cent of the assay value of the ore.

Development on the Centennial proves the mine to be one of the best in the Georgetown (Col.) district. It is in the lead-sulphide belt and produces ore which mills from one and a half to 12 ounces in gold. There is also a large amount of mill dirt, which is shipped to the concentrator.

The sale of 15 per cent of Silver King stock at $12,000 cash, making a value of $80,000 for the entire issue, was reported in Denver. The seller was prominently connected with the old Mollie Gibson management, while the buyer is an officer of the Smuggler Company, which controls the Silver King and other Mollie Gibson territory under lease.

The Bingham consolidated smelter shipped last week 182,638 pounds of copper bullion; the United States 182,681 pounds, and the Highland Boy 249,700 pounds.

About 25 teams are now hauling ore to the Majestic smelters, and the management expects to have everything in running order by tomorrow.

So successful have been the operations of the small mill erected by Canoll & Martin of Helena at their property in Hellgate Canon, that it has been decided to double its capacity. The mill is now turning out 30 tons of concentrates a day which run 30 per cent copper.

The East Helena plant of the American Smelting & Refining Company is to be enlarged so great have the demands become. Another stack has already been blown in, while an independent copper stack is to be operated in the near future because of the increased copper production in this immediate district.

Based on returns this month, the dividend on Kendall mining stock will exceed $20,000 in September. The Kendall is owned largely in Spokane and Montana.

The Red Bird Company, operating a copper mine near Helena, has declared a dividend of 1 per cent a share for September.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—There was another big decline in London tin prices, the losses for the day being about £2 7s 6d, with spot closing at £112 7s 6d and futures at £113. Locally the market was quiet. A sale of 10 tons spot tin was reported at $25 50, and the closing quotation was $25 45@25 60. Copper also was lower in London, spot declining 7s 6d, to £54 7s 6d, and 5s for futures, to £54 10s. Locally copper was dull. Lake and electrolytic are now quoted at $13 25@13 50, and casting at $13 12½. Lead was unchanged at £11 in London and locally at $4 50. Spelter was 2s 6d lower in London, at £20 15s, but remained quiet and unchanged here at $6. Iron closed at 49s 6p in Glasgow and at 43s 6d in Middlesboro. Locally iron was quiet. No. 1 foundry northern, is quoted at $17; No. 2 foundry northern, at $16 50; No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern soft, at $15 50.

The Three Rivers

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, Sept. 29.—River 6 feet and falling. There were no towboat movements today. Local packets were on time with fair trips. The Lizzie Bay has been put in the Portsmouth trade. Owing to the scarcity of water at Pomeroy and Maysville boats have gone to the bank.

MARIETTA—River 2.8 feet and falling. Bessie Smith up, noon.

WHEELING—River 2 feet 9 inches and falling. Down, H. K. Bedford, Parkersburg, 2 p. m.

STEUBENVILLE—River 2 feet 4 inches and stationary.

LOUISVILLE—River falling, with 3 feet 8 inches in the canal, 1 foot 6 inches on the falls, and 5 feet 4 inches below the locks.

GREENSBORO—River 6 feet and stationary.

OIL CITY—River 10 inches and stationary.

WARREN—River 1 foot.

MORGANTOWN—River 7 feet and stationary.

GALLIPOLIS—River 3 feet 5 inches and falling.

POINT PLEASANT—River 2 feet 1 inch and falling.

Notes of the Three Rivers.

The steamer Kanawha has been laid up at Marietta on account of low water.

William Jones of Parkersburg, an old river engineer, has gone on the Avalon, running between Cincinnati and Memphis.

Capt. Sam Biddle has sold his steamer Olivett to Pittsburgh parties and gone into the real estate business at Parkersburg.

Capt. Spence Sanford of the Queen City has resigned in order to go back to pilot duty. He will be succeeded by Capt. John Sweeney of Gallipolis.

Bids will be received at the United States engineer's office in Pittsburgh until October 28 for the erection of brick lockmaster's houses at dams Nos. 2, 3 and 4, on the Ohio river.

"In coming down the river," said John Moran of the Elizabeth yesterday, "I saw at least 1,000 boys swimming in the river. That was the only thing I noticed between here and Elizabeth that indicated any persons were on the banks." This is the situation in the upper pools of the Monongahela river. No boats are moving, excepting the Monongahela packets. All the steamboats are either tied up or are in the Mississippi river. The river is still lowering, with no signs of a rise.

Ice Company Has Big Capital.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 29.—The Woodcock Plate Ice Company, with a capital of $10,000,000, was incorporated here today, to manufacture plate ice and machinery for the manufacture of the same. The incorporators are John P. Maining, A. B. Van Liew and Warren A. Jacobus, all of Newark.

There Are Now Less Than 20 Oil Wells Doing 100 Barrels a Day

The advance of three cents in the credit balance market is causing more discussion among oil men than any new discoveries in the field. All are agreed that if the present conditions continue, still higher prices will prevail before the close of the year. There is nothing in the field situation to lead to the conclusion that the production can be maintained at its present standard. The territory capable of furnishing anything better than small producers is not in sight and the average size of those completed in the old districts is decreasing.

At this time there are not in the states of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and southeastern Ohio 20 wells with a production of 100 or more barrels each. Southeastern Ohio cannot lay claim to any, and the old Keystone state to but one, owned by the South Penn Oil Company, and located on the Grim farm in Greene county.

The oldest operator can scarcely recall when, if ever, the same conditions existed since the earliest days of development work. The so-called largest producers in West Virginia have had to be shot one or more times to keep them flowing, and yet it has been scarcely more than three months since the oldest was drilled in.

Northeast of the Pine Grove extension in Wetzel county, W. Va., the Thomas Showalter farm well has been the largest producer of the year, but yesterday it was reported to have stopped and in all probability will be given its fifth dose of the high explosive fluid to put new life into it.

In the Salem district in Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 8 on the Randolph Varner farm through the Gordon and the hole has filled up 2,000 feet with fluid.

In the Pine Grove district, Wetzel county, the South Penn has drilled its No. 7 on the Jesse Shumont farm through the Stray and found no oil. It is now drilling to the Gordon. The same company's second test on the J. N. McDougal farm has been completed and will be shot.

On the west side of the Smithfield district the South Penn Oil Company has completed its No. 16 on the Fairfield Patterson farm and has a duster in all sands.

In the Fish Creek district, Marshall county, the South Penn has completed its second test on the Lewis Chambers farm and has a 35-barrel producer.

In the Burning Springs district, Wirt county, there is increased activity in the Shallow sand territory. T. A. and E. P. Mellon have completed their No. 21 on the Rathbun oil tract and have a five-barrel pumper in the second Cow Run sand at a depth of 398 feet.

In the St. Mary's district, Pleasants county, the United States Coal & Oil Company has completed No. 3 on the M. E. Oliver farm and will have a 30 or 40-barrel producer in the Cow Run sand.

In the Cave Run district in the same county the Cunningham Farm Oil Company has completed No. 4 on the D. D. Cunningham farm and has a 50-barrel producer in the Cow Run sand. The same company's No. 5 has been drilled into the sand and is showing for a 40-barrel producer.

C. D. Bole & Company's No. 5, A. F. Wagner farm, is good for 40 barrels a day, and the American Oil Development Company's No. 5, L. S. Verner, is good for 30 barrels a day.

In the Hebron district, Tyler county, Root & Duff have given their No. 2 on the Owens heirs' farm another shot and increased its production temporarily to 125 barrels a day.

In the Brush Creek district, Allegheny county, William Fowler, Son & Company have completed and put to pumping their No. 3 on the William Fowler farm and the well is producing 70 barrels a day.

In the Bristoria field in Greene county, Pa., the South Penn Oil Company has completed its second test on the I. N. Grim farm and has a show for a 10-barrel pumper.

In the Blackville district the same company has drilled its second test on the Spencer Wade farm deeper and the hole has filled up 1,000 feet with fluid.

SQUIRREL HILL SALE OF $23,000

John Goettman Buys a Fine Building Site in Forbes Street.

NO. 1417 FIFTH AVENUE SOLD

Allegheny Flats Selling at $85,000—Good News from Two Trust Companies—Big Deal in Farms—Homestead Building Project of $110,000.

S. C. Grier has disposed of a fine plot of Squirrel Hill frontage for $23,000, the reputed buyer being John Goettman. The property has a frontage of 151 feet on the south side of Forbes street, between Murray avenue and Wightman street, and a depth of 200 feet, making the rate for the frontage about $150 a foot. Its location makes it very desirable, in view of the proposed extension of South Negley avenue, which will strike Forbes street at a point nearly opposite, thus affording easy access to the property from three directions. On the opposite side of the street are the holdings of Thomas Wightman and the handsome residence of James I. Kay is on the adjoining lot. Mr. Goettman, it is said, is having plans prepared for a residence to cost $15,000.

No. 1417 Fifth avenue, belonging to George Norris, has been sold to W. L. Sloan for $22,000. The lot measures 20x89 feet on the north side of the avenue, near Stevenson street, and is improved with a three-story brick store and dwelling. The sale, which is the first deal in this neighborhood for some time, is at the rate of $1,100 a front foot. A new firm handled the transaction, the New York Realty Company, which has offices at No. 430 Fourth avenue. The company has just completed its organization with the following members: Jacob Klebansky, John Cooper and I. Goldstein. The first two have been located in Fourth avenue several months and Mr. Goldstein, who made this sale, was formerly of the Fifth Avenue Realty Company.

Big Allegheny Deal Pending.

Negotiations are pending for the sale of the Kunze apartment houses, Sandusky street, Allegheny, the deal which is now on having been acknowledged by the owner, who, however, refuses to divulge the names of the parties after the property. The hitch in the negotiations which has prevented the consummation of the deal prior to this time is that purchasers offer part trade, while Mr. Kunze insists upon a cash transaction, the price at which he holds the building being $85,000. The lot on which the houses stand is in the Fourth ward, and is one of the best locations in Allegheny. It measures 64½ by about 100 feet, and the houses are known as Nos. 605, 607 and 609 Sandusky street, on the west side of the thoroughfare, just below Ohio street. The buildings are of fire brick, with hardwood finish, four stories high, and contain 18 suites of apartments and several individual rooms for business purposes. They have been built two years and enjoy the distinction of having never been decorated with a let sign, as all the room has been occupied as quickly as opportunity offered. H. A. Kunze, the owner, was the architect and contractor. As now rented, the building yields a net income of 8½ per cent on the price mentioned above.

Trust Companies Strengthen Position.

The Commonwealth Real Estate and Trust Company has declared its regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable October 1, making the third dividend the company has paid. Since the Commonwealth began business in July, 1902, it has accumulated $130,000 in undivided profits, to which fund at least $10,000 will be added shortly. Besides this amount the company has an investment in the Dilmyer building, for which it paid $135,000, on which it could easily realize a profit of $100,000. Officials of the company say, however, that the building will not be sold, but that the site will be used for a modern office building to be occupied by the Commonwealth after next year.

The Real Estate Trust Company has greatly strengthened its board of directors by the addition of four men who were elected yesterday. The new directors are James A. Huston, manager of the American Bright Company; William H. Robinson, secretary of the H. J. Heinz Company; Attorney A. V. D. Watterson of the firm of Watterson & Reid, and Henry Aiken, the well-known consulting engineer. These men are identified with large interests which make their influence in business and financial circles of great value. This addition makes the total membership of the board 15, instead of 11 as before.

Will Sell Farms on Installment.

Selling farms on the installment plan is a decidedly new idea in Pittsburgh real estate circles, but it is soon to be tried on a large scale by an enterprising Pittsburgh broker. P. C. Campbell, who is known chiefly for his operations in Swissvale and Wilkinsburg, is at present forming a company of capitalists who propose to buy 10,000 acres of land in the southwest. Mr. Campbell is immigration agent of the Missouri Pacific railroad, and the tract to be acquired lies along this road. Before closing the deal Mr. Campbell will make a thorough examination of the land, which is said to be admirably adapted for grazing and tilling. The tract will be divided into farms of 80 and 160 acres each, which will be offered for sale on the installment plan, about 10 per cent of the purchase price to be paid at the outset and the remainder in quarterly sums. The scheme has never been tried in selling farm lands, although it has been a wonderful success in marketing suburban allotments. Brokers who deal in farm lands are watching with interest the success of the project, as the same plan, they believe, can be used in selling farms in the Pittsburgh district.

Homestead Men Will Build 22 Houses.

A syndicate of Homestead real estate men, including the Homestead Realty Company, the Enterprise Land Company and William Gray & Co., has been formed to build 22 houses at an average cost of $5,000 each. Fifteen of the houses will be built in Ninth avenue and seven in Tenth avenue on the Carnegie library plan of lots at Munhall. They will be eight and ten-room reception hall brick houses, with all modern improvements, and will stand on lots 50x120 feet each, overlooking the Homestead steel works. The property is only two squares from the line of the Pittsburgh Railways Company and the demand for good houses in this neighborhood is bound to sell them readily.

The New York Record and Guide takes a very sensible view of the slump in building over the country when it says: "There is no reason to suppose that this period of dullness will last very long. It may do so, but it looks as if a wholesale lull rather than a decided set-back would take place. New York, so far from being overbuilt at the present time, is in danger of a house famine. So it is in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Chicago. The country has been caught short of permanent improvements of all kinds and it is temporarily unable to provide the money necessary to make them."

Smithfield Street Lot Held High.

Another offer for downtown property came to light yesterday which shows conclusively that there are buyers in the market to take good properties even at high figures. The tender was for the Smith property, 20x60, at No. 10 Smithfield street, and the amount was $70,000, or $3,500 a front foot. Two years ago the property was on the market for $30,000, which makes the refusal of the present offer the more noteworthy. Although the location is a good one, the property is said to rent for only $2,500 a year, making its revenue value small.

The River and Railroad Terminal Company has secured two more properties on the South Side for a part of the site for its group of 44 warehouses. The larger lot, 60x100 feet, is at the southwest corner of Bingham and South Third streets, and was bought for $16,500 from August H. Schewe. The other property, an improved lot, 24x50 feet, belonged to the Patrick Cunningham estate, and was sold for $3,100. It is on the south side of Cabot way, near Third street.

The Prudential Trust Company has sold to William Forgie, a lumber dealer of Washington, Pa., one of the four Richard J. Palmer houses in Fair Oaks street, near Linden avenue, Twenty-second ward, for $12,200. The house is a 10-room reception hall residence, lately built and stands on a lot 50x100 feet.

New Houses Selling Fast.

SHIPBUILDING COMPANY HAS PLENTY OF CONTRACTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The United States Shipbuilding Company has unfinished contracts for 1904 delivery aggregating $7,321,500. Its contracts for tonnage to be delivered before January 1 total $6,500,000, whereas its completed work will fall short of $5,000,000. This would give the reorganization committee, if its plans were carried through, approximately $8,000,000 of contracts for delivery during 1904, independent of new business. The contracts of the Bethlehem Steel Company are estimated to equal $5,000,000, of which a considerable percentage will have to go over to next year.

CLOVER HAY PRICES MAKE SHARP GAIN

Fresh Vegetables Advance All Along the Line—Peaches Are Very Scarce.

Timothy hay was allowed to remain unchanged yesterday, and the market was steady, without special feature. Clover hay, however, showed firmness and moved forward in price, an increase of $1 per ton being made. Shelled corn is away off, and prices, which have declined several times in the last few days, went down more than 2 cents a bushel yesterday from quotations prevailing on Monday. Ear corn is easier than it was a week ago, but no change was made in prices yesterday. Oats are steady. Straw is very firm, and the advances made since the opening of the week are readily maintained. Mill feed quiet, but strong, with offerings quickly sold.

The only change made in groceries was an advance in No. 2 mackerel. All kinds of salt fish are steady to firm, on account of the limited supplies. Catches of domestic sardines, also, have been very light and the market is advancing.

Flour is steady as quoted, and coffee is holding its own firmly, but without special feature, although the market seems to be steadily gaining ground. Sugar is holding at the decline of Monday, with demand fairly large.

There was a temporary shortage of potatoes in the yards yesterday morning and the market was stronger, prices both on track and from store moving upward. Sweet potatoes held their own without change. Home produce advanced all along the line, scarcity of offerings creating stronger markets. Cucumbers made a big jump forward, quotations being more than $1 a bushel higher than at the beginning of the week. Radishes are higher. There are still some offerings of lettuce at figures formerly ruling, but fanciest stock brings better prices than last named. Egg plant has taken a step to the front and now commands $1.25 a bushel. String beans have moved forward to $1.25. Cauliflower is much higher. Tomatoes are coming froward less freely and have advanced. Corn is in demand, and is higher. Spinach is the one exception to the general rule, and has declined. Peas are out of the market, and no more will be offered until southern stock again arrives, which will be in time for Thanksgiving day.

Good peaches are scarce, and fancy stock are lower in price, buyers having become discouraged in their search for peaches of choice quality this season, and demand is moderate. Grapes are more plentiful and sold yesterday below figures ruling on Monday. Rockyford cantaloupes just about hold their own and will not last much longer. California oranges are scarce, and prices have taken a long step forward.

The high prices prevailing for poultry have had their effect in reducing demand to some extent, but there is still enough request to absorb all arrivals, and the market is steady. Eggs are holding firm as quoted, and dealers do not expect any lower prices before the middle of next month. Cheese is firm and advancing, while butter is steady as quoted.

HORSE MARKET.

There was more activity in the auction sale of horses yesterday than for some time, a large force of buyers being out, and stock was bought more freely than at any previous sale this month. Offerings were heavier than they have been recently, 200 horses being put up for sale, all of which found buyers at prices about the same as those of a week ago, when there were only about 160 sold.

The same improvement noted at auction is found in the retail market, where demand is growing and good horses bring good prices.

GRAIN PRICES FIRMER IN THE CHICAGO MARKETS

Better Tone in the Stock Market Was Reflected in Pit Prices Yesterday.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Fairly active buying by some of the leaders in the wheat pit who were influenced by the upward trend of values on Wall street started shorts to cover early in the day and as a result the market ruled strong. Opening prices were firm on steady cables. A good demand from all classes of buyers soon caused a rally and December sold up to 77⅝c during the first half hour. Part of the early strength was due to the better southwest and northwest markets and to the excellent cash demand. Toward the noon hour there was considerable selling by pit traders due to an increase of 7,489,000 bushels in the world's visible supply as shown by Bradstreets, and the market eased off in consequence. Trading was rather quiet the latter part of the session, but a steady tone prevailed. Primary receipts were 7,704,100 bushels, against 1,393,300 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 1,157 cars, which, with local receipts of 75 cars, four of contract grade, made total receipts for the three points of 1,232 cars, against 628 cars last week and 1,427 cars a year ago.

Corn prices followed wheat in its upward tendency early in the day and the market ruled strong with considerable covering by shorts. An improved shipping demand, together with light country offerings were responsible for much of the early strength, and reports of damage by frost in Nebraska helped to create the bullish sentiment. The weekly government report was decidedly bearish and caused considerable selling which resulted in a loss of most of the early gain. Local receipts were 368 cars, with 70 of contract grade.

Oats were firm early in the session due largely to the strength in other grains and the market received support from brokers. Later, however, there was considerable selling by commission houses and a reaction followed. Local receipts were 169 cars.

With the exception of September pork and lard the provision market ruled firm on a good demand from brokers. An advance of [illegible] in the price of hogs, with light receipts at the yards, together with the firmness in corn, gave a better tone to prices, but trading was light, with offerings scattered. October pork closed [illegible] higher at $11.90. October lard was up [illegible] at $7.80, while ribs were [illegible] higher at $9.32½. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 50 cars; corn, 295 cars; oats, 190 cars; hogs, 26,000 head.

Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Operations in drygoods are restricted in the extreme and are likely to continue so during the next two weeks at least. The activity in the jobbing district is considerably lessened and although reports from the country are to the effect that a fair business is still in progress, the financial situation is not inspiring buyers to purchase a yard more than is absolutely necessary.

Pennsylvania Lines Are to Establish Clearing House for Interchange Business

A clearing house will likely be established by the Pennsylvania railroad and lines west as a result of a meeting held yesterday in the office of General Agent Jaggard relative to interchange business. The meeting, which was attended by the superintendents of all the divisions entering Pittsburgh, was to revise the basis of rendering counter bills between the divisions and covering the vast interchange business. The counter bills or accounts have heretofore been kept by the superintendents and rendered by them. The new plan provides for a clearing house which will take this system of accounting from the shoulders of the superintendents. General Agent Jaggard will in all probability start the clearing house and it will be under his direct supervision.

It is said that the divisions have not been charging each other high enough rates for interchange business. A certain rate would be in force between the Fort Wayne and the Panhandle, while a different rate would apply between the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston and the Panhandle. Recently the question of expenses in the case of wrecks on other divisions of trains with crews from a connecting division came up, and a decision has been reached which was partly responsible for the meeting yesterday.

In the event, say, of a Fort Wayne train colliding with a Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston train on the tracks of the Panhandle, it has been customary for the Panhandle to hold the investigation, the expense being borne in accordance with the result of the finding. This is to be changed and all expenses in such cases will be borne by the division on which the accident occurs. There was one exception to the old rule, and that was in case the wreck was due to a fault in construction of the roadbed or track. In order to protect themselves the divisions will increase their "toll" rates.

Washington Service.

The Panhandle operating officials are wondering what Washington, Pa., is going to do in regard to the speed ordinances. For years the residents of that city complained about slow service from Washington to Pittsburgh over the Panhandle, and to meet their demands new equipment was added and faster trains run. The Chartiers branch is now being double-tracked, grades reduced and curves straightened so that when the work is completed about 10 minutes may be taken off the running time of the fastest Washington-Pittsburgh train. If the ordinance limiting the speed in the city to five miles per hour passes, the improvements to the Chartiers branch will avail nothing to the Washington travelers as far as faster passenger service is concerned.

Ohio Railroads Consolidated.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 29.—Articles of consolidation were filed today with the secretary of state by the Youngstown & Southern Railway Company and the Youngstown & Salem Railway Company, taking the name of the former. The capital stock is $1,500,000. They are steam roads. The incorporators are A. W. Jones, John H. Ruhlmann, W. H. Ruhlmann, J. R. Long, W. E. Andrews and H. L. Andrews.

Stevenson Goes Up.

E. C. Stevenson has been promoted from traveling freight agent of the Clover Leaf to commercial agent, with headquarters at Buffalo. As traveling agent he has visited Pittsburgh time and again and always made his presence felt by securing a large amount of business. A circular announcing the change has just been issued by T. J. Cook, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Clover Leaf.

McConnell Toasted.

Joseph H. McConnell, the retiring manager of the Pittsburgh works of the American Locomotive Company, was the guest of honor at a banquet given last evening at the Schenley hotel by the Pittsburgh officers of the company. Covers were laid for 30. Mr. McConnell was formerly general superintendent of motive power of the Union Pacific lines and president of the American Railway Master Mechanics' association. He came with the American Locomotive Company to Pittsburgh two years ago as manager of the local plant. During this time he has been the author of extensive improvements.

Railroad Notes.

J. L. Hayes has been made traveling freight agent of the Baltimore & Ohio at Baltimore.

President L. F. Loree is expected to arrive in Pittsburgh this morning from Franklin, Pa., where he went yesterday to attend a reception given by Gen. Miller. Upon his way here he will stop at New Castle.

WEEKLY CROP REPORT.

Weather Bureau Summarizes Conditions from Reports from All Sections.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The weather bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions is as follows:

Temperature conditions of the week ending September 28 were generally favorable. Light to heavy frosts, for the most part causing no serious injury, occurred in the more northerly districts eastward of the Upper Mississippi valley. A marked feature of the week was the absence of rain, or the occurrence of only very light showers east of the Rocky mountains. Drought continues in the Ohio valley and with increased severity in Tennessee and the Central and east Gulf states.

The principal corn states have experienced weather conditions exceptionally favorable for maturing late corn, and while frosts have been quite general over the central and eastern portions of the corn belt, no material damage is indicated. Probably less than 20 per cent of the crop in Iowa is unmatured, and while the proportion yet exposed to injury in South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin is greater, the immature will make good feed; farther south only a very small part of the crop is still soft. Cutting is general in all sections and some new corn has been marketed in Southern Kansas.

While the conditions have been favorable for thrashing spring wheat in the spring wheat region, reports of dampness of grain in shock as a result of previous rains continue. Harvest is now completed on the North Pacific coast and threshing far advanced.

With generally seasonable temperature and practically no rain over nearly the entire cotton belt, cotton has opened rapidly and picking has been actively carried on, a large part of the crop having already been gathered. The crop has suffered deterioration, especially in the central and western portions of the belt. Little or no top crop is promised. In Texas the plant has almost entirely ceased fruiting, and in some central counties is dying. In North Carolina the conditions have favored the maturity of late cotton, and in South Carolina premature opening has been checked.

In the states of the Central valleys the reports indicate a light apple crop, but more favorable reports are received from the Middle Atlantic states. Much fruit was blown from the trees by the recent high winds in New England. The reports respecting potatoes continue very unfavorable.

Plowing for fall seeding has made favorable progress in the Atlantic coast districts and in the states of the Upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, but in the Ohio valley, Southern states, and in the western portions of Kansas and Nebraska the soil has been too dry for this work.

PITTSBURGHERS PUSHING WORK

A Mexican Traction Company Spends $500,000 in Gold for Materials.

TO BUILD TROLLEY SYSTEM

Capital of the Republic of Mexico Will Be Given Rapid Transit by Steel City Capitalists Within 18 Months—Other Contracts for Local Plants.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.

The Pittsburghers who are primarily interested in the Campania Mexicana de Tracton (the Mexican Traction Company,) which concern was recently organized for the purpose of constructing and operating an extensive electric traction system in Mexico City, have just subscribed $500,000 gold so that various contracts for material, equipment, etc., may be placed and construction work begun immedately.

Westinghouse equipment will be installed in the power house which will have an initial capacity of 2,000 horsepower. It will be a steam plant. About 1,000 tons of 85-pound girder rails will be ordered right away. The company is also to purchase 20 40-foot cars, each of which wil be equpped with four Westinghouse motors of 26-horse power capacity.

In addition to acquiring the Empresa del Circuito de Banos—a horse road, which runs in the heart of the Mexican capital, the company has just purchased what are known as the Moytan, Garcia & Requima concessions which permit of the building of about 100 miles of road, about 50 miles in the city, and the balance in the suburbs.

McAdoo to Take Charge.

Mr. R. McAdoo, the president of the company, who was recently connected with the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Connellsville electric traction system, leaves New York this week for Mexico. Immediately on his arrival in the southern republic's capital, construction work will be begun and pushed forward with all dispatch.

The chief engineer of the company is A. T. Montmorency of Mexico City. George C. Pierce, formerly of the Baird's road, has been appointed superintendent and electrical engineer of the company.

The Pittsburghers who are behind the project are James B. Oliver, Julius Bieler, Reuben Miller, Sr., James H. Park and Frank B. Smith. The entire system is expected to be completed within 18 months.

V. A. Kajevinkoff, formerly chief mechanical engineer of the Chinese Eastern railroads, in which capacity he visited Pittsburgh last year and placed some substantial contracts for various equipment, machinery, etc., is now on his way to pay the states another visit for the purpose of placing several contracts for material, etc., for the Trans-Caspian railroad, of which he is the principal constructing expert.

Bring Contracts Along.

Prince Kili Koff, the Russian minister of ways and communications, who is also well known in Pittsburgh, has passed the specifications which will call for the expenditure of more than $6,000,000 worth of different material, etc.

The major portion of Mr. Kajevnikoff's contracts will be placed in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

B. F. Graham, who is largely interested in the Lucky Tiger mine, State of Sonora, Mexico, will be in Pittsburgh this week for the purpose of placing substantial contracts for mill equipment, etc.

J. V. Dozal of Mexico City, has just left New York for the southern republic after placing some big orders for Pittsburgh equipment in behalf of the Ferro Carril Urbano Y Agrico de Oaxaca, which concern is to build an electric railway between Zimatlan and Oaxaca, Mexico. The Westinghouse people were allotted a good sized order.

M. Dozal also closed contracts with the Westinghouse interests for equipment to be installed in a large electric plant to be built by the Alcasin Development Company in the Ajo mountains, 12 miles south of Cananea, State of Sonora.

Contract from Pearsons.

The great British contracting firm of S. Pearson & Son, Limited, which is building the National Schnantepec railroad and carrying out other important construction work in Mexico, has just allotted a large contract to the Westinghouse Company through G. & O. Blaniff, Mexico City.

Pittsburgh steel is to be used in the construction of large smelter and power plants to be erected by an American syndicate at Cerro de Pasco, Peru, which is located more than 14,000 feet above the level of the sea.

J. B. Haggin is the leading spirit in the project. The property acquired, it is claimed by experts, will prove to be the largest copper producer in the world. Fully $50,000,000 will be expended before the plants are in full swing. Pittsburgh mills will build a good deal of the equipment.

TENNIS GAME INTERRUPTS BUSINESS OF THE NATION

President's Children Drag Him Away from His Desk to Play Promised Game on the White House Court.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Business was pressing today with the president, and as a result he was obliged to omit his usual ride or walk this afternoon. Four thirty still found him hard at work, and at this hour the secretary of the navy called to discuss some business. While the two were busy, Archie, Quentin and Ethel charged upon them and demanded that the president immediately keep his engagement for a game of tennis. The tennis grounds were not yet completed when the small Roosevelts left Washington and they are correspondingly anxious to try their prowess and pit their skill against their father on the official court. They have waited patiently all day long, but as the afternoon began to wane decided that patience was no longer a virtue. The result was that the president had to surrender.

He invited Secretary Moody to take a racquet in the game but was refused. Finally Dr. Rixey was pressed into service. The president and Ethel took sides and Dr. Rixey and Archie, with Quentin as umpire. It was quite an exciting game and resulted in favor of the president and Miss Ethel. After a couple of sets the president returned to his office and resumed business with his secretary, and numerous officials and statesmen.

Mrs. and Miss Roosevelt spent the morning indoors. This afternoon both ladies took a long walk. The children will not enter at their respective schools until next Monday. Archibald will have a tutor, the same who now has the youngest son of Attorney General Knox in charge.

SAM PARK'S NEWEST MOVE.

Trying to Force Structural Workers to Create a Fund for His Use in New York.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The structural iron workers' convention was given another surprise today, when a resolution was presented asking for a fund of $8,000 for the use of Sam Parks in fighting the New York builders' organization. He also wants an assessment of one day's wages against every ironworker in the United States, which would mean a fund of $500,000.

This resolution will be acted upon tomorrow and a battle royal is expected to prevent Parks from getting the money. The convention today adopted the report of the resolutions committee and along with other things censured President Roosevelt for his stand in the Miller case at Washington, and censured Gov. Peabody of Colorado for his position in the strike of the Western Federation of Miners.

CAR MOTOR FELL TWICE; TWO MEN ARE INJURED

All the Other Passengers Were Shaken Up and Some Badly Bruised.

Two men were seriously injured and a dozen others bruised and shaken up in a street car accident at Rankin at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The injured are:

MICHAEL HENNIGAN, aged 28 years, conductor of the car, of No. 2204 Second avenue, injured on the head and body and thought to be internally injured; taken to Mercy hospital.

CHRISTOPHER MEDRO, aged 30 years, of No. 37 Diamond street; injured on head and body; taken to Mercy hospital.

The car, in charge of Motorman William Graham and Conductor Michael Hennigan, was westbound. When near the entrance of the Rankin plant of the American Steel & Wire Company, the rear motor dropped to the ground, throwing the passengers and Conductor Hennigan to the floor. The motor was raised to its former position and secured with wire. The car was again started, but had only proceeded a short distance when the motor again dropped and this time Hennigan and Medro, the latter a passenger, were thrown to the street. The other passengers were stunned by the shock, but soon recovered and hurried to the assistance of the two injured men. Their wounds were dressed, after which they were taken in a special car to the Mercy hospital.

RALLY OF LEAGUERS.

The Tenth State Convention of Luther League Workers Meets at Reading.

The Luther League of Pennsylvania will meet in annual session at Reading, October 20 and 21, 1903. The general subject of the convention will be "Our Duty." The Hon. Gustav Endlich, one of the judges of Berks county, will welcome the delegates, and William Casper Stoever of Philadelphia, president of the Luther League of America, one of the prominent attorneys at the Philadelphia bar, will respond.

The Rev. R. L. Patterson of Somerset will discuss "Duty to the Individual Church;" Miss Anna M. Landis of Penn station, will discuss "Duty to the Church's Missions," and Miss Emma King of Pittsburgh, secretary of the Central Luther league of this city, will discuss "Duty to the Church's Institutions."

The Luther League of Pennsylvania was organized at Harrisburg June, 1894. Although comparatively young, the league now numbers about 20,000 faithful and earnest workers. Seventeen central organizations, comprising over 300 local societies, is the accomplished result.

SPEAKEASIES PREVAIL IN A NORTH SIDE WARD

Residents Know of Them, but the Wyman Administration Seems Strangely Ignorant.

Residents of the First ward, Allegheny, desire somebody to take hold of the speakeasy nuisance in their ward and acquaint the adminstration with the fact that speakeasies are running there, it being charitably supposed that the administration is ignorant of the existence of the drinking places.

A well-known resident of the ward said yesterday:

"I don't drink myself, but the presence of speakeasies is so notorious that everybody in this neighborhood, including the church members, know where the resorts are. There is one in Corry street, four in Kilbuck street, a street only three or four short blocks long, and one flourishes near the lumber yard on West Canal street.

"There always is some drunkenness in the ward, but nowadays intoxicated individuals are more plentiful on the Sabbath than on any other day in the week. They go in and out of the speakeasies boldly, bump against the children playing on the sidewalk and curse and swear at a great rate. If the administration really means to keep its pledges and carry out its oft-expressed intention it should suppress the speakeasies. I have no doubt that the police on the beats know about them."

SOUTH WOULD ACCEPT A NEW YORK CANDIDATE

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, president of the state senate of Georgia, and a member of the national Democratic committee, said today: "The sentiment of the south is to leave the matter of a candidate for president largely to the doubtful states, especially New York. If New York was to go to the national committee with a candidate who would unite all elements of the party in New York and say to the convention: 'We are united on this man and can carry the state with him,' the south would be inclined to take him."

AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY.

So Thinks at Least One Traveling Man.

I would as soon think of starting out without my mileage books and grip as to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise, said a traveling man who represents a St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses. I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food at all hours of the day and night, and I don't believe any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without protest; anyway, I know mine won't. It has to have something to break the fall, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I fall back on.

My friends often "josh" me about it, tell me I'm an easy mark for patent medicine fakirs, that advertised medicines are humbugs, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of their aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any old kind of fare and feel good and ready for my work when it needs me, and I believe I owe my good digestion and sound health to the daily, regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out, and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.

I used to have heartburn about three times a day and headache about three or four times a week, and after standing for this for four or five years I began to look around for my crutch and found it when my doctor told me the best investment I could make would be a 50-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I have invested about 50 cents a month for them ever since, and when I stop to think that that is what I spend every day for cigars I feel like shaking hands with myself, for I can keep my stomach and digestion in first-class order for 50 cents a month. I don't care for any better life insurance.

My druggist tells me they are the most popular of all stomach medicines and that they have maintained their popularity and success because they do as advertised. They bring results, and results are what count in patent medicine as much as in selling barb wire.

RESUMPTION

EARLY CLOSING ON SATURDAYS. For more than 22 years, beginning 'way back in 1871, this store dismissed its working force every Saturday at 6 o'clock. Ten years ago the disposition to keep open until nearly midnight was encouraged by some large stores, and became so general that we were compelled, as a measure of self-protection, to extend the hours of business to 9:30 p. m. We did this with the greatest reluctance, and promised at the time to be among the first and foremost to return to shorter hours, if ever our cotemporaries would consent to join in the movement. This consummation has at length been reached, and beginning Saturday, October 10th, we will close regularly at 6:30 p. m. Other days at 5:30 as usual.

Paris and Berlin Novelties.

FABRICS PERSONALLY SELECTED IN EUROPE BY OUR BUYER WHILE ABROAD IN JUNE.

While our buyer was on the other side of the ocean during the summer just ended he picked up in Paris and in Berlin some exclusive novelties in dress fabrics and suitings which will not be seen in America at any other store outside of the Metropolis.

FRENCH ZIBELINES—First and foremost among these foreign goods are some fine satin-finished French Zibelines. Paris is using these fabrics very extensively. They come in charming mixed weaves with a very smooth finish—not the rough, hairy kind which are so common in the lower-priced goods this year. Very swagger are they for long coat suits and the long separate coats which predominate in this season's fashion plates. Beautiful shades of brown, gray, blue and green are comprised in our imported line that sell for $3.50 yard. (Mail Orders Filled.)

NOVELTY MIXTURES—The same steamer from Europe that brought the Zibelines likewise had among its cargo several cases of Mixed Novelty Goods in medium and heavy weights, representing some of the choicest and most exclusive styles of dress textiles made abroad. They are on our counters now priced at $2 to $3.50 yard. (Mail Orders Filled.)

SCOTCH MIXTURES—Set it down as an axiom that a leading dress goods stock will always contain plenty of the newest Scotch Mixtures. Some very handsome gray mixed goods in Scotch effect, 52 inches wide, which will be the delight of your dressmaker, we are now showing for coat suits and skirts at $1.50 a yard. (Mail Orders Filled.)

(From an Evening Paper.)
TRIMMED HATS FOR FIVE DOLLARS.
Eligible Millinery That Will Not Break a Bank.

At Campbell's there are Millinery masterpieces in the richest velvet, with long sweeping Ostrich plumes, cut steel ornaments and Paris novelty garniture that cost $20 or more, but these are not the sum total of the stock.

Alongside of these costly hats is another line, just as stylish, just as carefully made, but fashioned out of the expensive materials that sell for only a dollar or two more than a man pays for the best hat—for Five Dollars.

So many at this price and such good ones that any woman who must make the most of a little money will find among them something exactly to her mind.

Every Bed Needs a Spread

—Neat White Bed Spreads, in pleasing patterns, hemmed ready for use—double bed size, 59c.

—Extra large White Bed Spreads, in Marseilles, patterns which will launder handsomely and hold the designs well, for $1.25.

—Fringed White Bed Spreads in honeycomb patterns— double bed size, for $1.25.

—Plain White Marseilles Spreads for use in your guest chamber—11-4 size. Strikingly beautiful designs for $2.25.

Popularity of the Persians

When it comes to Ribbons some folks think the Dresdens too delicate, the Turkish too loud and the Romans too pronounced. To these people the Persian designs represent the acme of beauty. So there is always a vigorous demand for the Persians for evening wear.

A lovely line of Persian Ribbons in all-silk liberty as well as in satin taffeta, 3½ inches wide and wider. Some in two-toned effects, with narrow satin edges, admirable for sashes, neck ribbons, hat trimmings, etc., from 25c to 75c yard.

Grand Sale of City Lots—Riverview Park Plan

Beginning Saturday, October 3rd

These lots are 2½ miles nearer City Hall, Allegheny and Pittsburgh P. O. than any competing plan. They are not green fields in the country, but city lots with all city conveniences at lower prices than country lots. Two street car lines, Perrysville Avenue and East Street, pass our plan.

REASONS

Riverview Park Plan:

1st. Only 12 minutes to MARKET and CARNEGIE LIBRARY, Allegheny. 17 minutes to Pittsburgh.

2d. You can have a home adjoining the RIVERVIEW PARK.

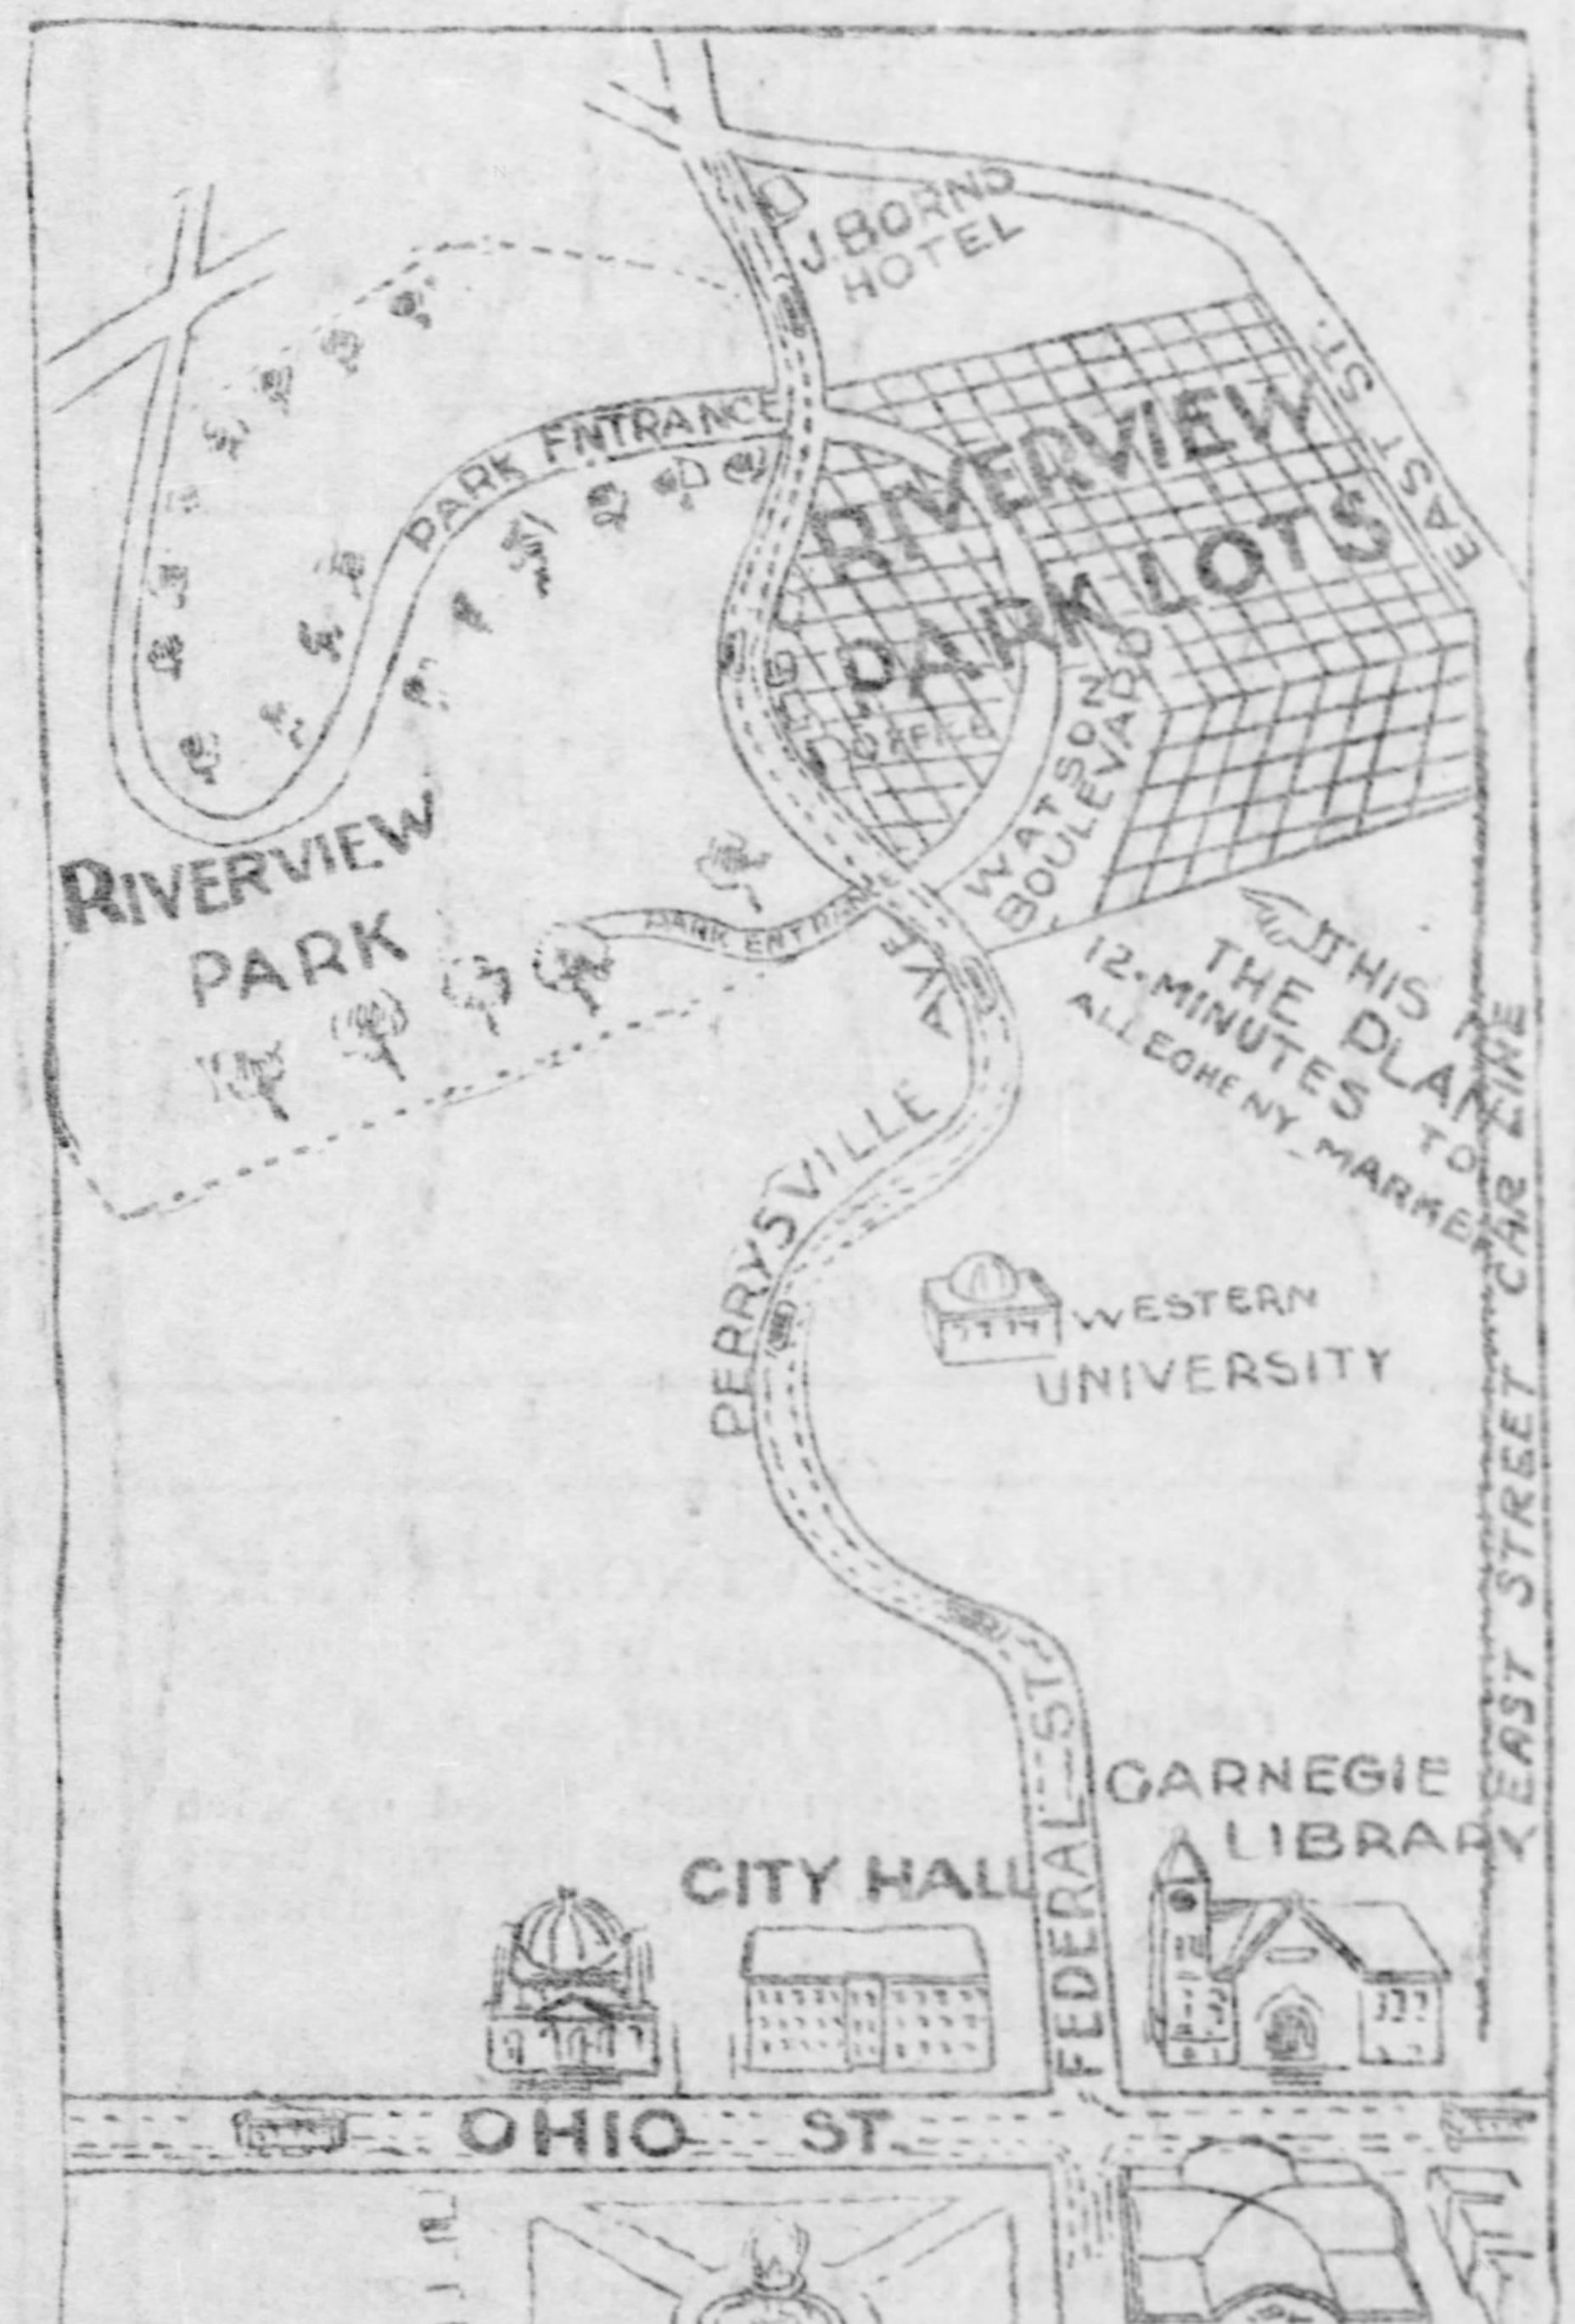
3d. The neighborhood is already established with fine dwellings, THE HOMES OF SOME OF OUR BEST CITIZENS.

4th. This location affords a BEAUTIFUL VIEW, good air, and is one of the most healthful districts in the two cities.

5th. Some streets GRADED and SEWERED, with natural and illuminating gas, city water, electric light, etc.

6th. Perfect car service, fire and police protection, stores of all kinds, with three of the best public schools in the city at hand.

7th. These lots are the cheapest lots on the market. They are being offered at greatly reduced prices, which are but a fraction of their real value, in order to quickly dispose of them. No such bargains can be found anywhere. Prices have in many cases been cut in two. If you want a home, here is your opportunity. The whole of Riverview Park will be your front yard. If you want to make a profitable investment buy a lot here at our prices and you will double your money in a short time.



TERMS:

Lots $125.00 to $150.00,
$5.00 down and $1.00 per week.
Lots $150.00 to $225.00,
$7.00 down and $1.50 per week.
Lots $250.00 to $275.00,
$10.00 down and $1.75 per week.
Lots $300.00 to $375.00,
$15.00 down and $2.50 per week.
